ITEM 2.03 CREATION OF A DIRECT FINANCIAL OBLIGATION OR AN OBLIGATION UNDER AN OFF-BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENT OF A REGISTRANT.

NN, Inc. has amended and restated its two current credit facilities.

On March 13, 2009, the Company amended and restated its current revolving credit facility with Key Bank as the administrative agent. At that time, it also amended and restated the terms of the agreement for its senior notes. These facilities were revised to change certain financial covenants to reflect current economic and business conditions and to assure the availability of credit for NN.

The $90 million revised syndicated credit agreement which expires in September 2011 provides for the borrowing of available funds by the Company's domestic and European subsidiaries and is collateralized by assets of the Company in addition to pledges of stock and guarantees of its domestic and foreign subsidiaries. The loan agreements contain customary covenants including restrictions on payments for dividends, capital expenditures and stock repurchases. The revolving loan agreement carries a revised interest rate of LIBOR plus 4% and the senior notes which are due in April 2014, carry a revised interest rate of 8.5%. At current interest rates, this yields a blended interest rate of approximately 6%.
