HP CLOSES $4 BILLION REVOLVING CREDIT FACILITY

PALO ALTO, Calif., March 15, 2002 -- Hewlett-Packard Company (NYSE:HWP) today closed a $4 billion revolving credit facility. The facility replaces a $1 billion facility that would have matured in April. The increase in facility size is in anticipation of the needs of the merged company.

The facility will be used for general corporate purposes, including Commercial Paper backstop. Twenty-seven financial institutions participated in the facility, which was nearly 50 percent oversubscribed.

"We are very pleased with the clear showing of support and confidence from the banking community, despite a difficult credit market," said Larry Tomlinson, HP vice president and treasurer.

J.P. Morgan Chase & Co. and Salomon Smith Barney are lead arrangers for the facility, while Deutsche Bank and Royal Bank of Scotland are co-arrangers. The company's existing debt is rated "A2" with negative outlook by Moody's Investor Service and "A-" (CreditWatch negative) by Standard & Poor's.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This document contains forward-looking statements that involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions. If any of these risks or uncertainties materializes or any of these assumptions proves incorrect, the results of HP and its consolidated subsidiaries could differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements.

All statements other than statements of historical fact are statements that could be deemed forward-looking statements, including any projections of earnings, revenues, synergies, accretion or other financial items; any statements of the plans, strategies, and objectives of management for future operations, including the execution of integration and restructuring plans and the anticipated timing of filings, approvals and closings relating to the Merger or other planned acquisitions; any statements concerning proposed new products, services, developments or industry rankings; any statements regarding future economic conditions or performance; any statements of belief and any statements of assumptions underlying any of the foregoing.

The risks, uncertainties and assumptions referred to above include the ability of HP to retain and motivate key employees; the timely development, production and acceptance of products and services and their feature sets; the challenge of managing asset levels, including inventory; the flow of products into third-party distribution channels; the difficulty of keeping expense growth at modest levels while increasing revenues; the challenges of integration and restructuring associated with the Merger or other planned acquisitions and the challenges of achieving anticipated synergies; the possibility that the Merger or other planned acquisitions may not close or that HP, Compaq or other parties to planned acquisitions may be required to modify some aspects of the acquisition transactions in order to obtain regulatory approvals; the assumption of maintaining revenues on a combined company basis following the close of the Merger or other planned acquisitions; and other risks that are described from time to time in HP's Securities and Exchange Commission reports, including but not limited to HP's annual report on Form 10-K, as amended on January 30, 2002, for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2001 and HP's registration statement on Form S-4 filed on February 5, 2002.

HP assumes no obligation and does not intend to update these forward-looking statements.
