EXPLANATORY NOTE

On October 14, 2003, Hanson Building Materials Limited (previously known as "Hanson PLC" and hereinafter, the "Predecessor Registrant") completed a reorganization (the "Reorganization") of its capital and corporate structure through a scheme of arrangement pursuant to Section 425 of the Companies Act 1985 of Great Britain, resulting in the formation of a new holding company, Hanson PLC (previously known as "Hanson Building Materials PLC" and hereinafter, the "Registrant"), and pursuant to which ordinary shares, each having a nominal value of £3.00, of the Registrant were exchanged for ordinary shares, each having a nominal value of £2.00, of the Predecessor Registrant. Subsequent to the Reorganization and in connection therewith, the Registrant undertook a capital reduction resulting in a decrease in the per share nominal value of its ordinary shares from £3.00 to £0.10, effective on October 21, 2003.

This Post-Effective Amendment No. 1 to the Registration Statement on Form S-8, Registration No. 333-14022, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on October 18, 2001 by the Predecessor Registrant (as amended, this "Registration Statement"), relating to the Hanson Building Materials America Retirement Savings and Investment Plan (the "Plan"), is being filed by the Registrant pursuant to Rule 414 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), as the successor issuer to the Predecessor Registrant following the Reorganization.

In accordance with Rule 414(d) under the Securities Act, the Registrant, as the successor to the Predecessor Registrant, hereby expressly adopts the Registration Statement as its own for all purposes of the Securities Act and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act").

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 310 of the Companies Act 1985 of Great Britain, as amended (the "Companies Act"), provides:

Edgar Filing: HANSON PLC - Form S-8 POS

“(1) This section applies to any provisions, whether contained in a company’s articles or in any contract with the company or otherwise, for exempting any officer of the company or a person (whether an officer or not) employed by the company as auditor from, or indemnifying him against, any liability which by virtue of any rule of law would otherwise attach to him in respect of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust of which he may be guilty in relation to the company.

(2) Except as provided by the following subsection, any such provision is void.

Back to Contents

(3) This section does not prevent a company:

- (a) from purchasing and maintaining for any such officer or auditor insurance against any such liability; or
- (b) from indemnifying any such officer or auditor against any liability incurred by him:
 - (i) in defending any proceedings (whether civil or criminal) in which judgment is given in his favour or he is acquitted; or
 - (ii) in connection with any application under section 144(3) or (4) (acquisition of shares by innocent nominee) or section 727 (general power to grant relief in case of honest and reasonable conduct) in which relief is granted to him by the court.”

Section 727 of the Companies Act provides:

“(1) If in any proceeding for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust against an officer of a company or a person employed by a company as auditor (whether he is or is not an officer of the company) it appears to the court hearing the case that that officer or person is or may be liable in respect of the negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust, but that he has acted honestly and reasonably, and that having regard to all the circumstances of the case (including those connected with his appointment) he ought fairly be excused for the negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust, that court may relieve him, either wholly or partly, from his liability on such terms as it thinks fit.

(2) If any such officer or person as above-mentioned has reason to apprehend that any claim will or might be made against him in respect of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust, he may apply to the court for relief; and the court on the application has the same power to relieve him as under this section it would have had if it had been a court before which proceedings against that person for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust had been brought.

(3) Where a case to which subsection (1) applies is being tried by a judge with a jury, the judge, after hearing the evidence, may, if he is satisfied that the defendant or defender ought in pursuance of that subsection to be relieved either in whole or in part from the liability sought to be enforced against him, withdraw the case in whole and in part from the jury and forthwith direct judgment to be entered for the defendant or defender on such terms as to costs or otherwise as the judge may think proper.”

Articles 143 and 144 of the Articles of Association of the Registrant provides as follows:

“(1) Subject to the Act, but without prejudice to any indemnity to which he may otherwise be entitled, every Director, alternate Director, Secretary or other officer of the Company (excluding the Auditors, unless and to the extent that the Board determines otherwise) and every employee or agent of the Company shall be entitled to be indemnified out of the assets of the Company against all costs, charges, losses, damages and liabilities incurred by him in the actual or purported execution or discharge of his duties or exercise of his powers or otherwise in relation to such duties, including (without limitation) any liability incurred in defending any proceedings (whether civil or criminal) which relate to anything done or omitted or alleged to have been done or omitted by him as an officer or employee of the Company and in which judgment is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with any application in which relief is granted to him by any court of competent jurisdiction or which are otherwise disposed of without any finding or admission of any material breach of duty on his part.

(2) Subject to the Act, the Board may purchase and maintain insurance at the expense of the Company for the benefit of any person who is or was at any time a Director, alternate Director, Secretary or other officer or employee of any body corporate which is a member of the Group or in which the Company has an interest whether direct or indirect or who is or was at any time a trustee of any pension fund or employee benefits trust in which any employee of any such body corporate is or has been interested indemnifying such person against any liability which may attach to him or loss or expenditure which he may incur in relation to anything done or alleged to have been done or omitted to be done as a Director, alternate Director, Secretary, officer, employee or trustee.”

The Registrant maintains directors' and officers' liability insurance coverage for its directors and officers.

Item 9. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers of sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

- (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;
- (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective Registration Statement; and
- (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement;

Provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) of this section do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered that remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and each filing of the Plan's respective annual reports pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Exhibit 5.1

February 26, 2004

Securities and Exchange Commission
Washington DC 20549

Ladies and Gentlemen

Reference is made to the Registration Statement on Form S-8, Registration No. 333-14022, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on October 18, 2001, as amended by the Post-Effective Amendment No. 1 to the Registration Statement (as amended, the "Registration Statement") relating to the registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, of ordinary shares (the "Ordinary Shares") of Hanson PLC, a public limited company (the "Company") incorporated in England and Wales (registered no. 4626078), to be issued in connection with the Hanson Building Materials America Retirement Savings and Investment Plan (the "Plan"). The Ordinary Shares are issuable by the Company as a consequence of the vesting or exercising of rights or options under the Plan.

This opinion is limited to the laws of England and Wales as applied by the English courts at the date of this opinion and is given on the basis that it will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales at the date of this opinion.

I have examined and relied on copies of such corporate records and other documents, including the Registration Statement, and reviewed such matters of the laws of England and Wales which I have deemed necessary or appropriate for the purpose of this opinion.

In rendering this opinion, I have assumed that (i) the Company will continue to maintain in existence sufficient authorised but unissued and reserved ordinary share capital and the necessary authority under Article 4 of the Company's Articles of Association to enable it to fulfil all of its obligations to satisfy rights, whether presently existing or granted in the future and whether arising as a consequence of the vesting of awards or the exercise of options under the Plan or otherwise, to the allotment and issue of Ordinary Shares under the Plan; (ii) no resolution of shareholders or of any particular class of shareholders of the Company in any general meeting is passed which might constrain the ability of the Company to fulfil such obligations; (iii) the resolutions of the board of directors of the Company passed from time to time with respect to the allotment and issue of Ordinary Shares to satisfy entitlements under the Plan will not be amended or revoked prior to the allotment and issue of any such Ordinary Shares; and (iv) to the extent that resolutions of the board of directors have not yet been passed authorising the allotment and issue of Ordinary Shares to satisfy entitlements under the Plan, such resolutions will be duly passed and will not be subsequently amended or revoked prior to the allotment and issue of any such Ordinary Shares.

On the basis of, and subject to, the foregoing, I am of the opinion that (i) the Company has been duly incorporated and is validly existing as a company under the laws of England and Wales and (ii) any Ordinary Shares to be allotted and issued by the Company under the Plan will, when so issued, be legally and validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable and entitle the holders thereof to the rights specified therein (i.e. no further contributions in respect thereof will be required to be made to the Company by the holders thereof, by reason only of their being such holders).

In giving this opinion, I have not made an investigation of, and do not express or imply any opinion on, the law of any jurisdiction other than England and Wales or on any European Communities' law as it affects any jurisdiction other than England and Wales and assume that no law of any jurisdiction would render the allotment and issue by the Company of Ordinary Shares under the Plan illegal or ineffective.

I hereby consent to the filing of this Opinion as an exhibit to the Registration Statement.

Yours faithfully

Graham Dransfield
Legal Director
