Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On October 26, 2011, the Federal Housing Finance Agency (FHFA), the Conservator of Freddie Mac (formally known as the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation), issued a press release announcing that Freddie Mac directors John A. Koskinen and Robert R. Glauber have reached the previously established mandatory retirement age, as set forth in FHFA 's corporate governance regulation and Freddie Mac 's Corporate Governance Guidelines, and will be stepping down from the Board at the expiration of their current terms.

In anticipation of these retirements and to promote a smooth transition, FHFA also announced that Christopher S. Lynch, a Freddie Mac director and the Chairman of the Board 's Audit Committee since December 2008, will assume the role of Non-Executive Chairman of the Board, commencing with the Board 's next regularly scheduled meeting in December 2011.

In addition, FHFA announced that Charles E. Haldeman, Jr., Freddie Mac 's Chief Executive Officer and a member of the Board since August 2009, has expressed his desire to step down from those positions in the coming year. FHFA 's announcement indicates that Acting Director Edward J. DeMarco has asked Mr. Koskinen and Mr. Lynch to work with the other members of the Board and with FHFA on developing a succession plan for the position of Chief Executive Officer, and that the Board will begin that process shortly. According to FHFA 's announcement, Mr. Haldeman has assured the Board and FHFA of his commitment to remain as Chief Executive Officer until the transition has taken place.

A copy of the press release issued by FHFA on October 26, 2011 regarding these developments is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.
