On November 12, 2002, and subject to the Cooper matter described below, the Company completed a private offering consisting of $798,898 in promissory notes and warrants to purchase 19,972,451 of the Company's Common Stock at $.04 per share. The note and warrant are a non-registered offering made in reliance on Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and/or Rule 506 promulgated thereunder. The Company intends to use the net proceeds generated from the notes for working capital, capital expenditures, and debt reduction.

The notes which were sold at a 7.5% discount, are payable to the Company's chief Executive Officer, various members of the board of directors and a third party investor. The note principal and interest, calculated at the rate of 10% per annum, are due July 31, 2003. The notes were issued in exchange for $150,000 dollars and the surrender of company notes issued August 16, 2002.

As a condition to the private offering described above and because the Company's obligation to Cooper Capital, LLC had matured, the Company entered into a Fifth Amendment to Forbearance Agreement with Cooper Capital which established a payment schedule and a maturity date of September 1, 2003.
