Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Agreement

On March 15, 2007, SiriCOMM, Inc.(the Company) entered into a Loan Agreement (Loan Agreement) with Sunflower Capital, LLC, a limited liability company managed by William P. Moore, a director of the Company. The loan is in the principal amount of up to $500,000 of which $300,000 has been funded to date and is evidenced by a 10% Convertible Promissory Note due February 29, 2008 (the Note). As consideration for Sunflower making the loan, the Company amended an aggregate of 4,537,661 warrants previously issued to Sunflower and its affiliates to extend the expiration date of all those warrants to March 31, 2012 and eliminate all redemption rights contained in those warrants. The loan is secured by all of the Company s assets. However, Sunflower has agreed to release certain collateral upon funding of a loan from Quest Capital Alliance, L.L.C.

The Note converts at any time and from time to time at the option of the holder, into shares of the Company s common stock at a variable conversion price determined by taking the lowest volume weighted average price of the Company s common stock for any five consecutive trading days during the period from the date of issuance to the date of the conversion notice.

As additional consideration for making the loan commitment, the Company shall issue Sunflower a 5-year warrant on the earlier of the date of conversion or maturity date. The number of warrants to be issued will be equal to $500,000 divided by Conversion Price (which, if not earlier determined, shall be determined as of the Maturity Date). This warrant will be issued regardless of whether Sunflower elects to convert the Note. The exercise price of these warrants shall be equal to the conversion price of the Note.

The proceeds of the loan will be used by the Registrant as general working capital.
