PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed period. (Attach Extra Sheets if Needed)

As previously reported, the Registrant is unable to complete and file its Annual Report on Form 10-K. As described more fully in the Registrant's Amended Notification of Late Filing on Form 12b-25/A filed with the Commission on March 29, 2004, the Registrant is in the process of reviewing its assets and other items which the Registrant currently expects will require write-downs of approximately $78 million in fixed assets and approximately $5 million of goodwill and other intangible assets. The Registrant currently expects the write-downs to be recorded in 2003 and one or more prior years and, as a result, expects that certain prior year financial statements will require restatement. In addition, as previously announced, independent investigations are currently being conducted under the direction of the Registrant's Audit Committee, with the assistance of outside counsel, of matters in the Registrant's South Texas Division and of aspects of the Registrant's disclosure controls and procedures and its internal controls structure and procedures. Accordingly, until the investigations and this review and restatements of prior year financial statements are completed, the Registrant will not be able to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q within the prescribed period.

PART IV OTHER INFORMATION

The Company previously announced on March 29, 2004 that it would not file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003 by March 30, 2004. As described more fully in the Company's March 29, 2004 release, the Company is in the process of reviewing its assets and other items which the Company currently expects will require write-downs of approximately $78 million in fixed assets and approximately $5 million of goodwill and other intangible assets. The Company currently expects the write-downs to be recorded in 2003 and one or more prior years and, as a result, expects that certain prior year financial statements will require restatement. Accordingly, until this review and restatements of prior year financial statements are completed, the Company will not be able to provide results of operations or other financial statements.

Key Energy Services, Inc. is the world's largest rig-based, onshore well service company. The Company provides diversified energy operations including well servicing, contract drilling, pressure pumping, fishing and rental tool services and other oilfield services. The Company has operations in all major onshore oil and gas producing regions of the continental United States and internationally in Argentina, Canada and Egypt.

Certain statements contained in this news release constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including, without limitation, statements regarding the estimated amounts of write-downs and write-offs. These forward-looking statements are based on current expectations, estimates and projections about the Company's industry, management's beliefs and certain assumptions made by management. Whenever possible, the Company has identified these "forward-looking statements" by words such as "expects", "believes", "anticipates" and similar phrases. Readers are cautioned that any such forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance or the results of the ongoing review and restatements and are subject to certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions that are difficult to predict, including, but not limited to: the risk that the Company will not execute on its operating plan; risks related to market demand; the risk of possible changes in the scope and nature of, and the time required to complete, the issuance of audit opinions on the Company's prior year financial statements and the audit of the Company's 2003 financial statement. Because such statements involve risks and uncertainties, the actual results and performance of the Company may differ materially from the results expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Given these uncertainties, readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements. Unless otherwise required by law, the Company also disclaims any obligation to update its view of any such risks or uncertainties or to announce publicly the result of any revisions to the forward-looking statements made here; however, readers should review carefully reports or documents the Company files periodically with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
