On June 4, 2009, the Board of Directors of Kratos Defense & Security Solutions, Inc. (the “Company”) adopted Amended and Restated Bylaws (the “Amended and Restated Bylaws”). The Amended and Restated Bylaws revise and update, among other things, the advance notice provisions to:

- provide that stockholders making proposals or nominations (or beneficial owners on whose behalf proposals or nominations are made) be stockholders (or beneficial owners, as applicable) at the time the notice is delivered to the Secretary of the Company and at the time of the meeting, and to require such stockholder to disclose all ownership interests, hedges, short positions, economic and profit incentives and rights to vote with respect to securities of the Company;
- clarify and expand the information that stockholders submitting proposals are to include in stockholder notices, the disclosures to be made by persons nominated by stockholders as directors, and the disclosures to be made by the nominating stockholders regarding themselves and their nominees; and
- require that disclosures by stockholders be updated and supplemented, if necessary, so as to be accurate as of the record date for an annual or special meeting.

In addition, the Amended and Restated Bylaws also reflect modernization of certain articles to comply with developments in the Delaware General Corporation Law that have taken place since the Company last amended and/or restated its bylaws.
