The Reporting Persons believe the Board of Directors of the Fund has substantially failed over the past year to take meaningful actions to permanently reduce or eliminate the substantial and persistent discount to net asset value ("NAV") at which the Fund's shares have been trading. In August 2009, the Reporting Persons communicated with the Board regarding the persistently wide discount at which the company's shares traded, inviting them to consider taking remedial action. The Fund recently announced that the discount level has triggered a proposal for a binding resolution to convert the Fund into an open-end investment that will be submitted at the next Annual General Meeting of Shareholders. The Reporting Persons intend to vote in favor of this resolution to convert the fund into an open-end investment vehicle.

EXHIBIT A

December 30, 2009

Pedro-Pablo Kuczynski
The Taiwan Greater China Fund
111 Gillett Street
Hartford, CT 06105

Dear Mr. Kuczynski,

The Taiwan Greater China Fund, Inc. recently announced to the Market that at the next Annual General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board will submit to shareholders a binding resolution to convert the Fund into an open-end investment company, an action necessitated by the wide discount to NAV at which the Fund's shares trade. City of London Investment Management would like to remind the Board that we have repeatedly expressed concern over the Fund's discount, as well as the consistently poor performance of the Fund relative to the Taiwan Stock Exchange Index. As such, we feel that the triggering of the resolution can only be viewed as the natural result of ineffective management of the Fund's assets and a lack of meaningful corporate governance, and it is for these reasons that we intend to vote in support of the resolution.

We would also take this opportunity to comment upon the filing on November 12 of a preliminary prospectus for a Rights Offering. We find it extraordinary that the Fund would consider issuing additional shares when the discount is so wide, a fact that, at least in part, must be attributed to a distinct lack of demand. In such an environment, proposing a Rights Offering only serves to send mixed messages to the market. To actually move forward with one would suggest that Management is more interested in increasing its fees than in providing a competitive product for investors. This, we would point out, is yet another example of the lack of responsible corporate governance being demonstrated by the Board.

In view of our many discussions with Fund Management and the Board, we would assume our stated intentions regarding this resolution and our response to the possibility of a Rights Offering come as no surprise. We simply feel it necessary to make the Fund and the Market aware of our stance as soon as possible.

Regards,

Jeremy Bannister
