Item 5. Additional Information

On July 12, 2001, UNOVA, Inc. (the Company) entered into a Credit Agreement providing for a $200 million asset-based revolving credit facility (the Revolving Facility) and a Loan Agreement providing for a $75 million secured term loan (the Term Loan). The Revolving Facility was obtained from a syndicate of lenders led by Bank of America and Heller Financial, Inc., acting as agents. Borrowing availability is subject to a Borrowing Base calculation, as defined in the Credit Agreement, based on eligible levels of accounts receivable and inventory.

On April 15, 2003, the Company gave notice to the agent of its intent, as provided in the Credit Agreement, to reduce the amount of the committed Revolving Facility by $100 million. Such reduction is effective on April 29, 2003, the tenth business day after the notice was given to the agent.

Net of outstanding letters of credit and limitations on Minimum Availability, the Company had borrowing capacity at March 31, 2003 of $26.4 million, and no borrowings are outstanding under the Revolving Facility as of the date of this Report.

Also, on April 15, 2003, the Company and the lenders under the Credit Agreement agreed to a second amendment to the Credit Agreement. The Credit Agreement required all proceeds from the sale of real estate, machinery and equipment of the Company and its domestic subsidiaries to be applied to the reduction of the Term Loan. The Term Loan was fully paid down and terminated on January 17, 2003. The second amendment to the Credit Agreement provides that proceeds from the sale of real estate, machinery and equipment can be utilized for corporate purposes, subject to a Liquidity Availability requirement as provided in the Credit Agreement as amended.
