The Schedule 13D filed by The Jacmar Companies with the Securities and Exchange Commission on December 21, 2000 was filed to amend the Schedule 13G filed by The Jacmar Companies with the Securities and Exchange Commission on August 10, 2000, as amended by Amendment No. 1 thereto filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on August 30, 2000 and Amendment No. 2 thereto filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on December 5, 2000.

On May 2, 2005, BJ Chicago, LLC distributed all of its shares of BJs Restaurants Common Stock (as defined below) pro rata to its members in connection with the planned dissolution of BJ Chicago. The members of BJ Chicago determined to dissolve that entity because they concluded that the administrative burdens of maintaining the entity outweighed its benefits. The members now hold directly the same number of shares of BJs Restaurants Common Stock that they previously held indirectly through BJ Chicago.

The Jacmar Companies and entities affiliated with Jacmar s chairman and chief executive officer William H. Tilley owned 41.67% of the membership interests in BJ Chicago, and Golden Resorts, Inc. and its director Jerry G. Brassfield owned 54.94% of the membership interests in BJ Chicago. The balance of the interests were held by James A. Dal Pozzo and Shann M. Brassfield, who are officers of The Jacmar Companies and Golden Resorts, Inc., respectively, as well as directors of BJs Restaurants.

When the members formed BJ Chicago in December 2000, they contemplated the possibility of selling additional membership interests in BJ Chicago to other investors and using the proceeds to purchase additional shares of BJs Restaurants (then known as Chicago Pizza & Brewery) and to make investments in other companies. However, the members have not done so, and immediately prior to the distribution, BJ Chicago did not have any assets other than shares of BJs Restaurants Common Stock.

Following the distribution, the shares of BJs Restaurants Common Stock continue to be subject to restrictions on transfer imposed by the federal securities laws because all of the members of BJ Chicago may be deemed to be affiliates of BJs Restaurants.

The former members will no longer share voting and investment power with respect to all shares of common stock owned by BJ Chicago.
