Employment Agreements

Scott N. Greenberg. As of July 1, 1999, Scott N. Effective June 12, 2001, Mr. Greenberg was elected President of the Company, and effective April 26, 2005, Mr. Greenberg was elected Chief Executive Officer. Unless sooner terminated pursuant to its terms, the employment agreement terminated on June 30, 2004, provided that if the employment agreement was not terminated prior to June 30, 2002, the employment agreement would have been extended on June 30, 2002 to June 30, 2005. On April 1, 2002, the Compensation Committee amended Mr. Greenberg's employment agreement, which amendment was ratified unanimously by the Board of Directors on May 3, 2002, with Mr. Greenberg abstaining, to provide that the employment agreement now terminates on June 30, 2007, provided that if the employment agreement was not terminated prior to June 30, 2005, the employment agreement was extended on June 30, 2005 to June 30, 2008. On January 21, 2005, the Compensation Committee amended Mr. Greenberg's employment agreement to provide that the employment agreement now terminates on June 30, 2008.

Commencing July 1, 1999, Mr. Greenberg's base annual salary was $250,000, with annual increases to be determined by the Board of Directors of not less than the greater of (i) 3% and (ii) the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index. The Company agreed to pay Mr. Greenberg a signing bonus in 1999 of $300,000, which Mr. Greenberg waived. Mr. Greenberg is entitled to an annual bonus based upon the percentage increase in GPC's earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, excluding extraordinary or unusual nonrecurring items of income and expense (EBITDA), from GPC's EBITDA for the prior year, up to 50% of his base salary. Pursuant to such provision, Mr. Greenberg received a bonus of $100,000 in 2006 for 2005 and a bonus of $75,000 in 2004 for 2003. Mr. Greenberg received a discretionary bonus of $350,000 in 2005 for 2004 that was in excess of his formula bonus. Pursuant to the employment agreement entered into in 1999, the Company granted Mr. Greenberg under the Company's option plan, options to purchase 100,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock at an exercise price of $8.00 per share, the market price on the date of grant, which options expired on June 30, 2004. The Company is required to provide Mr. Greenberg with an automobile and to maintain the existing life and disability insurance covering Mr. Greenberg.

The Company may terminate the employment agreement for Cause, which is defined as (i) the willful and continued failure by Mr. Greenberg to substantially perform his duties or obligations or (ii) the willful engaging by Mr. Greenberg in misconduct which is materially monetarily injurious to the Company. If the employment agreement is terminated for Cause, the Company is required to pay Mr. Greenberg his full salary through the date his employment is terminated. If Mr. Greenberg's employment is terminated by his death, the Company is required to pay to his spouse or estate his full salary for a period of one year. If, as a result of Mr. Greenberg's incapacity due to physical or mental illness, he is absent from his duties on a full-time basis for the entire period of six consecutive months, and he does not return within 30 days of notice, the Company may terminate his employment. Mr. Greenberg is entitled to receive his full salary during the disability period until his employment is terminated.

Mr. Greenberg can terminate the employment agreement for Good Reason, which is defined to include (i) a change in control of the Company, (ii) a management change in control of the Company, or (iii) a failure by the Company to comply with any material provision of the employment agreement which has not been cured within ten days after notice. A change in control of the Company is defined as any of the following, but only if not approved by the Board of Directors, (i) a change in control of a nature that would be required to be reported in response to Item 1(a) of Form 8-K, other than a change of control resulting in control by Mr. Feldman or Mr. Greenberg or a group including Mr. Feldman or Mr. Greenberg, (ii) any person (as such term is used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Exchange Act), other than Mr. Feldman or Mr. Greenberg or a group including Mr. Feldman or

Mr. Greenberg, is or becomes the beneficial owner (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, of securities of the Company representing 20% or more of the combined voting power of the Company's then outstanding securities, (iii) the Company and its affiliates owning less than a majority of the voting stock of GPC, (iv) the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of GPC, or (v) at any time when there has not been a management change of control of the Company, individuals who were either nominated for election or elected by the Board of Directors of the Company cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority of the Board. A management change in control of the Company is defined as (i) an event that would have constituted a change of control of the Company if it had not been approved by the Board of Directors or (ii) a change in control of the Company of a nature that would be required to be reported in response to Item 1(a) of Form 8-K, resulting in control by a buy-out group including Mr. Feldman but not Mr. Greenberg.

If the Company wrongfully terminates the employment agreement or Mr. Greenberg terminates the employment agreement for Good Reason (other than as a result of a management change of control), (i) the Company is required to pay Mr. Greenberg his full salary and provide him his benefits through the termination date, and pay him his full annual bonus for the calendar year in which termination occurs; (ii) the Company is required to pay as severance pay to Mr. Greenberg an amount equal to (a) Mr. Greenberg's average annual cash compensation received from the Company during the three full calendar years immediately preceding the termination date, multiplied by (b) the greater of (I) the number of years (including partial years) that would have been remaining in the employment period if the employment agreement had not so terminated but was not subsequently extended and (II) three, such payment to be made (c) if termination is based on a change of control of the Company, in a lump sum or (d) if termination results from any other cause, in substantially equal semimonthly installments payable over the number of years (including partial years) that would have been remaining in the employment period if the employment agreement had not so terminated but was not subsequently extended; (iii) all options to purchase the Company's Common Stock granted to Mr. Greenberg under the Company's option plan or otherwise immediately become fully vested and terminate on such date as they would have terminated if Mr. Greenberg's employment by the Company had not terminated and, if Mr. Greenberg's termination is based on a change of control of the Company and Mr. Greenberg elects to surrender any or all of such options to the Company, the Company is required to pay Mr. Greenberg a lump sum cash payment equal to the excess of (a) the fair market value on the termination date of the securities issuable upon exercise of the options surrendered over (b) the aggregate exercise price of the options surrendered; (iv) the Company is required to maintain in full force and effect, for a number of years equal to the greater of (a) the number of years (including partial years) that would have been remaining in the employment period if the employment agreement had not so terminated but was not subsequently extended and (b) three, all employee benefit plans and programs in which Mr. Greenberg was entitled to participate immediately prior to the termination date; and (v) if termination of the employment agreement arises out of a breach by the Company, the Company is required to pay all other damages to which Mr. Greenberg may be entitled as a result of such breach.

If Mr. Greenberg terminates the employment agreement for Good Reason as a result of a management change of control, (i) the Company is required to pay Mr. Greenberg his full salary and provide him his benefits through the termination date, and pay him his full annual bonus for the calendar year in which termination occurs; (ii) the Company is required to pay as severance pay to Mr. Greenberg a lump sum amount equal to twice Mr. Greenberg's average annual cash compensation received from the Company during the three full calendar years immediately preceding the termination date; (iii) all options to purchase the Company's Common Stock granted to Mr. Greenberg under the Company's option plan or otherwise immediately become fully vested and terminate on such date as they would have terminated if Mr. Greenberg's employment by the Company had not terminated and, if Mr. Greenberg elects to surrender any or all of such options to the Company, the Company is required to pay Mr. Greenberg a lump sum cash payment equal to the excess of (a) the fair market value on the termination date of the securities issuable upon exercise of the options surrendered over (b) the aggregate exercise price of the options surrendered; and (iv) the Company is required to maintain in full force and effect for two years all employee benefit plans and programs in which Mr. Greenberg was entitled to participate immediately prior to the termination date.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall not be obligated to pay any portion of any amount otherwise payable to Mr. Greenberg if the Company could not reasonably deduct such portion solely by operation of Section 280G.

Douglas E. Sharp. As of July 1, 1999, Douglas E. Sharp and GPC entered into an employment agreement pursuant to which Mr. Sharp was employed as Group President of GPC. Mr. Sharp was elected President of GPC on September 4, 2002. Unless sooner terminated pursuant to its terms, the employment agreement terminated on June 30, 2004, provided however, that since the employment agreement was not terminated prior to June 30, 2002, the employment agreement provided that it was extended on June 30, 2002 to June 30, 2005. On January 21, 2005, the Compensation Committee amended the employment agreement, to provide that the employment agreement now terminates on June 30, 2008.

Commencing July 1, 1999, Mr. Sharp's base annual salary was $230,000, with annual increases to be determined by the Board of Directors of GPC of not less than 3%. GPC paid Mr. Sharp a signing bonus in 1999 of $300,000. Mr. Sharp is entitled to an annual bonus based upon the percentage increase in GPC's EBITDA from GPC's EBITDA for the prior year, up to 50% of his base salary. Pursuant to such provision, Mr. Sharp received a bonus of $85,000 in 2006 for 2005 and $50,000 in 2005 for 2004. Pursuant to the employment agreement entered into in 1999, the Company granted Mr. Sharp under the Company's option plan, options to purchase 100,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock at an exercise price of $8.00 per share, the market price on the date of grant, which options expired on June 30, 2004. GPC is required to provide Mr. Sharp with an automobile.

GPC may terminate the employment agreement for Cause, which is defined as (i) the willful and continued failure by Mr. Sharp to substantially perform his duties or obligations or (ii) the willful engaging by Mr. Sharp in misconduct which is materially monetarily injurious to GPC. If the employment agreement is terminated for Cause, GPC is required to pay Mr. Sharp his full salary through the date his employment is terminated. If Mr. Sharp's employment is terminated by his death, GPC is required to pay to his spouse or estate his full salary for a period of one year. If, as a result of Mr. Sharp's incapacity due to physical or mental illness, he is absent from his duties on a full-time basis for the entire period of six consecutive months, and he does not return within 30 days of notice, GPC may terminate his employment. Mr. Sharp is entitled to receive his full salary during the disability period until his employment is terminated.

Mr. Sharp can terminate the employment agreement for Good Reason, which is defined to include (i) a change in control of the Company, (ii) a management change in control of the Company, or (iii) a failure by GPC to comply with any material provision of the employment agreement which has not been cured within ten days after notice. A change in control of the Company is defined as any of the following, but only if not approved by the Board of Directors, (i) a change in control of a nature that would be required to be reported in response to Item 1(a) of Form 8-K, other than a change of control resulting in control by Mr. Feldman or a group including Mr. Feldman (ii) any person (as such term is used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Exchange Act), other than Mr. Feldman or a group including Mr. Feldman, is or becomes the beneficial owner (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, of securities of the Company representing 20% or more of the combined voting power of the Company's then outstanding securities, (iii) the Company and its affiliates owning less than a majority of the voting stock of GPC, (iv) the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company, or (v) at any time when there has not been a management change of control of the Company, individuals who were either nominated for election or elected by the Board of Directors of the Company cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority of the Board. A management change in control of the Company is defined as (i) an event that would have constituted a change of control of the Company if it had not been approved by the Board of Directors or (ii) a change in control of the Company of a nature that would be required to be reported in response to Item 1(a) of Form 8-K, resulting in control by a buy-out group including Mr. Feldman.

If GPC wrongfully terminates the employment agreement or Mr. Sharp terminates the employment agreement for Good Reason, (i) GPC is required to pay Mr. Sharp his full salary and provide him his benefits through the termination date, and pay him his full annual bonus for the calendar year in which termination occurs; (ii) GPC is required to pay as severance pay to Mr. Sharp an amount equal to (a) Mr. Sharp's average annual cash compensation received from GPC during the three full calendar years immediately preceding the termination date, multiplied by (b) the greater of (I) the number of years (including partial years) that would have been remaining in the employment period if the employment agreement had not so terminated but was not subsequently extended and (II) three, such payment to be made (c) if termination is based on a change of control of the Company, in a lump sum or (d) if termination results from any other cause, in substantially equal semimonthly installments payable over the number of years (including partial years) that would have been remaining in the employment period if the employment agreement had not so terminated but was not subsequently extended; (iii) all options to purchase the Company's Common Stock granted to Mr. Sharp under the Company's option plan or otherwise immediately become fully vested and terminate on such date as they would have terminated if Mr. Sharp's employment by GPC had not terminated and, if Mr. Sharp's termination is based on a change of control of the Company and Mr. Sharp elects to surrender any or all of such options to GPC, GPC is required to pay Mr. Sharp a lump sum cash payment equal to the excess of (a) the fair market value on the termination date of the securities issuable upon exercise of the options surrendered over (b) the aggregate exercise price of the options surrendered; (iv) GPC is required to maintain in full force and effect, for a number of years equal to the greater of (a) the number of years (including partial years) that would have been remaining in the employment period if the employment agreement had not so terminated but was not subsequently extended and (b) three, all employee benefit plans and programs in which Mr. Sharp was entitled to participate immediately prior to the termination date; and (v) if termination of the employment agreement arises out of a breach by GPC, GPC is required to pay all other damages to which Mr. Sharp may be entitled as a result of such breach.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, GPC shall not be obligated to pay any portion of any amount otherwise payable to Mr. Sharp if GPC could not reasonably deduct such portion solely by operation of Section 280G.

The Company guaranteed the performance by GPC of its obligations under Mr. Sharp's employment agreement.

Andrea D. Kantor. As of May 1, 2001, Andrea D. Kantor and the Company entered into an employment agreement pursuant to which Ms. Kantor was employed as the Vice President and General Counsel of the Company. Unless sooner terminated pursuant to its terms, the employment agreement terminated on June 30, 2004, provided however, that since the employment agreement was not terminated prior to June 30, 2002, the employment agreement provided that it was extended on June 30, 2002 to June 30, 2005. On January 21, 2005, the Compensation Committee amended Ms. Kantor's employment agreement, to provide that the employment agreement now terminates on June 30, 2007.

Commencing May 1, 2001, Ms. Kantor's base annual salary was $190,000, with annual increases to be determined by the Board of Directors of not less than the greater of (i) 3% and (ii) the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index. Ms. Kantor is entitled to an annual bonus, as determined by the Board based upon the Company's revenues, profits or losses, financing activities, and such other factors deemed relevant by the Board. Ms. Kantor received a discretionary bonus of $50,000 in 2006 for 2005 and $50,000 in 2005 for 2004. The Company is required to provide Ms. Kantor with an automobile and to maintain the existing life and disability insurance covering Ms. Kantor.

The Company may terminate the employment agreement for Cause, which is defined as (i) the willful and continued failure by Ms. Kantor to substantially perform her duties or obligations or (ii) the willful engaging by Ms. Kantor in misconduct which is materially monetarily injurious to the Company. If the employment agreement is terminated for Cause, the Company is required to pay Ms. Kantor her full salary through the date her employment is terminated. If Ms. Kantor's employment is terminated by her death, the Company is required to pay to her spouse or estate her full salary for a period of one year. If, as a result of Ms. Kantor's incapacity due to physical or mental illness, she is absent from her duties on a full-time basis for the entire period of six consecutive months, and she does not return within 30 days of notice, the Company may terminate her employment. Ms. Kantor is entitled to receive her full salary during the disability period until her employment is terminated.

Ms. Kantor can terminate the employment agreement for Good Reason, which is defined to include (i) a change in control of the Company, (ii) a management change in control of the Company, or (iii) a failure by the Company to comply with any material provision of the employment agreement which has not been cured within ten days after notice. A change in control of the Company is defined as any of the following, but only if not approved by the Board of Directors, (i) a change in control of a nature that would be required to be reported in response to Item 1(a) of Form 8-K, other than a change of control resulting in control by Mr. Feldman or Mr. Greenberg or a group including Mr. Feldman or Mr. Greenberg, (ii) any person (as such term is used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Exchange Act), other than Mr. Feldman or Mr. Greenberg or a group including Mr. Feldman or Mr. Greenberg, is or becomes the beneficial owner (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, of securities of the Company representing 20% or more of the combined voting power of the Company's then outstanding securities, (iii) the Company and its affiliates owning less than a majority of the voting stock of GPC, (iv) the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of GPC, or (v) at any time when there has not been a management change of control of the Company, individuals who were either nominated for election or elected by the Board of Directors of the Company cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority of the Board. A management change in control of the Company is defined as (i) an event that would have constituted a change of control of the Company if it had not been approved by the Board of Directors or (ii) a change in control of the Company of a nature that would be required to be reported in response to Item 1(a) of Form 8-K, resulting in control by a buy-out group including Mr. Feldman or Mr. Greenberg.

If the Company wrongfully terminates the employment agreement or Ms. Kantor terminates the employment agreement for Good Reason (other than as a result of a management change of control), (i) the Company is required to pay Ms. Kantor her full salary and provide her benefits through the termination date, and pay her full annual bonus for the calendar year in which termination occurs; (ii) the Company is required to pay as severance pay to Ms. Kantor an amount equal to (a) Ms. Kantor's average annual cash compensation received from the Company during the three full calendar years immediately preceding the termination date, multiplied by (b) the greater of (I) the number of years (including partial years) that would have been remaining in the employment period if the employment agreement had not so terminated but was not subsequently extended and (II) three, such payment to be made (c) if termination is based on a change of control of the Company, in a lump sum or (d) if termination results from any other cause, in substantially equal semimonthly installments payable over the number of years (including partial years) that would have been remaining in the employment period if the employment agreement had not so terminated but was not subsequently extended; (iii) all options to purchase the Company's Common Stock granted to Ms. Kantor under the Company's option plan or otherwise immediately become fully vested and terminate on such date as they would have terminated if Ms. Kantor's employment by the Company had not terminated and, if Ms. Kantor's termination is based on a change of control of the Company and Ms. Kantor elects to surrender any or all of such options to the Company, the Company is required to pay Ms. Kantor a lump sum cash payment equal to the excess of (a) the fair market value on the termination date of the securities issuable upon exercise of the options surrendered over (b) the aggregate exercise price of the options surrendered; (iv) the Company is required to maintain in full force and effect, for a number of years equal to the greater of (a) the number of years (including partial years) that would have been remaining in the employment period if the employment agreement had not so terminated but was not subsequently extended and (b) three, all employee benefit plans and programs in which Ms. Kantor was entitled to participate immediately prior to the termination date; and (v) if termination of the employment agreement arises out of a breach by the Company, the Company is required to pay all other damages to which Ms. Kantor may be entitled as a result of such breach.

If Ms. Kantor terminates the employment agreement for Good Reason as a result of a management change of control, (i) the Company is required to pay Ms. Kantor her full salary and provide her benefits through the termination date, and pay her full annual bonus for the calendar year in which termination occurs; (ii) the Company is required to pay as severance pay to Ms. Kantor a lump sum amount equal to twice Ms. Kantor's average annual cash compensation received from the Company during the three full calendar years immediately preceding the termination date; (iii) all options to purchase the Company's Common Stock granted to Ms. Kantor under the Company's option plan or otherwise immediately become fully vested and terminate on such date as they would have terminated if Ms. Kantor's employment by the Company had not terminated and, if Ms. Kantor elects to surrender any or all of such options to the Company, the Company is required to pay Ms. Kantor a lump sum cash payment equal to the excess of (a) the fair market value on the termination date of the securities issuable upon exercise of the options surrendered over (b) the aggregate exercise price of the options surrendered; and (iv) the Company is required to maintain in full force and effect for two years all employee benefit plans and programs in which Ms. Kantor was entitled to participate immediately prior to the termination date.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall not be obligated to pay any portion of any amount otherwise payable to Ms. Kantor if the Company could not reasonably deduct such portion solely by operation of Section 280G.

Sharon Esposito-Mayer. As of August 16, 2005, Sharon Esposito-Mayer and GPC entered into an employment agreement pursuant to which Ms. Esposito-Mayer is employed as Executive Vice President of GPC. The employment agreement amended and restated a prior employment agreement between GPC and Ms. Esposito-Mayer dated as of April 11, 2005. Unless sooner terminated pursuant to its terms, the employment agreement terminates on July 31, 2007.

Commencing April 11, 2005, Ms. Esposito-Mayer's base annual salary was $180,000, with annual increases to be determined by the Board of Directors of not less than the greater of (i) 3% and (ii) the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index. GPC is required to provide Ms. Esposito-Mayer with an automobile and cellular phone and to maintain the existing life and disability insurance covering Ms. Esposito-Mayer. In addition, Ms. Esposito-Mayer was granted 23,000 Stock Units of the Company's Common Stock pursuant to the Plan. Upon the occurrence of a Change in Control or a Sale of the Company during the term of the employment agreement, all of Ms. Esposito-Mayer's stock options to purchase the Company's Common Stock will immediately become fully vested and exercisable and all of Ms. Esposito-Mayer's stock units will immediately be paid in unrestricted shares of the Company's Common Stock. For purposes of the employment agreement, a Change in Control is deemed to have occurred if any person who was not on March 18, 2005 a beneficial owner (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended), directly or indirectly, of securities of the Company representing 15% or more of the combined voting power of the Company's outstanding securities becomes the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of securities of the Company representing 25% or more of the combined voting power of the Company's outstanding securities and a Sale of the Company is deemed to have occurred if (i) the Company engages in a transaction or series of transactions (including, without limitation, a merger or consolidation) with another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other entity, and the stockholders of the Company immediately prior to such transaction(s) do not, after such transaction(s), hold at least 50% of the voting power of the Company or its successor, (ii) the Company and its affiliates cease to own more than 80% of the voting stock of GPC, (iii) all or substantially all of the assets of the Company, GPC, or the business unit of GPC with regard to which Ms. Esposito-Mayer is assigned are sold, or (iv) the Company's Common Stock is neither listed on a national securities exchange nor authorized to be quoted in an inter-dealer quotation system of a registered national securities association.

GPC may terminate the employment agreement if (i) Ms. Esposito-Mayer is physically or mentally incapacitated or disabled or otherwise unable fully to discharge her duties for a period of 90 consecutive days, (ii) Ms. Esposito-Mayer is convicted, plead guilty, or enter a plea of nolo contendere to a felony or a crime involving moral turpitude, (iii) Ms. Esposito-Mayer commits any act or omit to take any action in bad faith and to the detriment of GPC, or (iv) Ms. Esposito-Mayer (A) willfully and continually fails to perform her duties or obligations under any provision of the employment agreement (other than provisions relating to non-competition, non-solicitation, or protection of confidential information) in any material respect, and does not correct such failure within 10 days after receipt of written notice thereof, or (B) fails to perform her duties or obligations under the provisions of the employment agreement relating to non-competition, non-solicitation, or protection of confidential information in any material respect. Upon such termination, GPC is required to pay Ms. Esposito-Mayer her full salary through the date her employment is terminated.

Ms. Esposito-Mayer can resign for Just Cause, which occurs if Ms. Esposito-Mayer resigns within 30 days following (A) GPC, without the express written consent of Ms. Esposito-Mayer, (i) imposing any significant change in Ms. Esposito-Mayer's function, duties, or responsibilities that is not consistent with Ms. Esposito-Mayer being an executive of GPC and failing to rescind or modify such change within 10 business days after receipt of written notice from Ms. Esposito-Mayer, or (ii) failing to make any material payment or provide any material benefit contemplated under the employment agreement to Ms. Esposito-Mayer, and failing to correct any such deficiency within 10 business days after receipt of written notice from Ms. Esposito-Mayer, or (B) GPC breaching any other term of the employment agreement and not correcting such failure or breach within 30 days after written notice from Ms. Esposito-Mayer. If Ms. Esposito-Mayer resigns for Just Cause or GPC wrongfully terminates Ms. Esposito-Mayer's employment, and Ms. Esposito-Mayer is in full compliance with her obligations under the provisions of the employment agreement relating to non-competition, non-solicitation, and protection of confidential information, then for the period that would have been remaining in the term of the employment agreement if Ms. Esposito-Mayer had not so resigned or been terminated or for a period of 6 months after termination (whichever is longer), (1) GPC will continue to pay Ms. Esposito-Mayer her base annual salary at the rate in effect on the date of such employment termination, and (2) Ms. Esposito-Mayer will continue to be eligible to receive such benefits as she would have been entitled to had her employment not terminated. In addition, in such case, for purposes of her stock units, Ms. Esposito-Mayer will be deemed to have been employed by GPC through April 10, 2008. Such benefits will terminate if Ms. Esposito-Mayer does not remain in compliance with the provisions of the employment agreement relating to non-competition, non-solicitation, and protection of confidential information. If Ms. Esposito-Mayer resigns for Just Cause or GPC wrongfully terminates Ms. Esposito-Mayer's employment, and Ms. Esposito-Mayer is not in full compliance with her obligations under the provisions of the employment agreement relating to non-competition, non-solicitation, and protection of confidential information, then GPC is only required to pay Ms. Esposito-Mayer her full salary through the date her employment is terminated.

If Ms. Esposito-Mayer's employment is terminated by her death, GPC is required to pay to her estate her full salary to the end of the calendar month and for the next two months. In addition, in such case, for purposes of her stock units, Ms. Esposito-Mayer will be deemed to have been employed by GPC through July 31, 2007.

If the employment agreement expires on July 31, 2007 and during the period commencing on August 1, 2007 and ending on April 10, 2008, (i) (A) Ms. Esposito-Mayer resigns within 30 days following GPC's, without the express written consent of Ms. Esposito-Mayer, (I) imposing any significant change in Ms. Esposito-Mayer's function, duties, or responsibilities that is not consistent with Ms. Esposito-Mayer being an executive of GPC and failing to rescind or modify such change within 10 business days after receipt of written notice from Ms. Esposito-Mayer, or (II) materially reducing Ms. Esposito-Mayer's compensation or benefits from those provided under the employment agreement, and failing to rescind such reduction within 10 business days after receipt of written notice from Ms. Esposito-Mayer, or (B) GPC terminates Ms. Esposito-Mayer's employment for reasons other than (I) Ms. Esposito-Mayer's physical or mental incapacity or disability or other inability to fully to discharge her duties for a period of 90 consecutive days, (II) Ms. Esposito-Mayer is convicted, plead guilty, or enter a plea of nolo contendere to a felony or a crime involving moral turpitude, (III) Ms. Esposito-Mayer commits any act or omit to take any action in bad faith and to the detriment of GPC, or (IV) Ms. Esposito-Mayer fails to perform her duties or obligations to GPC and does not corrects such failure or breach within 10 days after receipt of written notice thereof and (ii) Ms. Esposito-Mayer is in full compliance with her obligations under the provisions of the employment agreement relating to non-competition, non-solicitation, and protection of confidential information, then, for purposes of her stock units, Ms. Esposito-Mayer will be deemed to have been employed by GPC through April 10, 2008. Such benefits will terminate if Ms. Esposito-Mayer does not remain in compliance with the provisions of the employment agreement relating to non-competition, non-solicitation, and protection of confidential information.

Jerome I. Feldman. As of June 1, 1999, Jerome I. Feldman and the Company entered into an employment agreement pursuant to which Mr. Feldman was employed as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company until May 31, 2004, unless sooner terminated. Effective June 12, 2001, Mr. Feldman resigned as President of the Company and Scott N. Greenberg was elected to that office. On April 1, 2002, the Compensation Committee extended Mr. Feldman's Employment Agreement until May 31, 2007, which extension was ratified unanimously by the Board of Directors on May 3, 2002, with Mr. Feldman abstaining. Effective April 26, 2005, Mr. Feldman was appointed Chairman of the Executive Committee and Scott Greenberg was elected Chief Executive Officer. Pursuant to a management services agreement, commencing November 24, 2004, NPDC pays the Company a management fee to cover a portion of the compensation of certain officers of the Company who provide services to NPDC, which includes reimbursement of approximately 80% of Mr. Feldman's compensation. See Item 13. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions.

Commencing June 1, 1999, Mr. Feldman's base annual salary was $400,000, with annual increases of $25,000. The Company and Mr. Feldman also agreed to negotiate in good faith to formulate an annual incentive based compensation arrangement based on the Company's achieving certain financial milestones which were fair and equitable to Mr. Feldman and the Company and its stockholders. Pursuant to such provision, the Compensation Committee approved an Incentive Compensation Agreement (the Incentive Agreement) with Mr. Feldman on April 1, 2002, which Incentive Agreement was ratified unanimously by the Board of Directors on May 3, 2002, with Mr. Feldman abstaining.

Pursuant to the Incentive Agreement, Mr. Feldman, was eligible to receive from the Company up to five payments in an amount of $1 million each, based on the closing price of the Company's Common Stock sustaining or averaging increasing specified levels over periods of at least 10 consecutive trading days. On each of June 11, 2003, July 23, 2003, December 22, 2003, November 3, 2004 and December 10, 2004, Mr. Feldman earned an incentive payment of $1 million. To the extent there were any outstanding loans from the Company to Mr. Feldman at the time an incentive payment was payable, the Company had the right to set-off the payment of such incentive payment first against the outstanding accrued interest under such loans and next against any outstanding principal.

Each incentive payment was payable on the date earned, except that any incentive payment earned prior to December 31, 2003 is payable on the Company's last payroll date in December. On October 1, 2003, the Incentive Agreement was amended to allow Mr. Feldman to defer receipt of any incentive payment for a period of at least six months. The deferral period will automatically renew unless Mr. Feldman gives a termination notice at least 30 days prior to the expiration of the deferral period. However, no deferral period may end later than May 31, 2007. A deferral notice with respect to any incentive payment earned prior to December 31, 2003 was required to be given prior to December 1, 2003 (which deferral notice was timely given by Mr. Feldman) and a deferral notice with respect to any incentive payment earned on or after December 31, 2003 was required to be given at least five business days prior to the date that such incentive payment was earned (which deferral notice was timely given by Mr. Feldman). Pursuant to such deferral provisions, all five incentive payments are payable in January 2007, unless further deferred. A deferral notice cannot be given, and any deferral period will end, if any outstanding loan from the Company to Mr. Feldman is due and payable and is not otherwise paid. Interest accrues on each deferred amount at the prime rate minus 1%, which is 1% less than the interest rate accrued on the Company's outstanding loans to Mr. Feldman.

Although any set-off of the payments earned on June 11, 2003, July 23, 2003, December 22, 2003, November 3, 2004 and December 10, 2004 will take place in future periods when such amounts are payable, for accounting purposes, the set-offs will be deemed to have occurred on the dates earned since the Company possesses the right of set-off under the Incentive Agreement. As a result, for accounting purposes only, the Company applied the first $1 million earned by Mr. Feldman against $1 million of accrued interest, the second $1 million against $163,000 of accrued interest and $837,000 of principal, the third $1 million against $64,000 of accrued interest and $936,000 of principal, the fourth $1 million against $86,000 of accrued interest and $914,000 of principal, and the fifth million against $67,000 of accrued interest and $933,000 of principal, which resulted in the outstanding principal balance of the note being reduced, for accounting purposes only, to approximately $619,000 as of December 31, 2004 and December 31, 2005. On January 19, 2006, Mr. Feldman repaid approximately $496,000 of the principal balance of the note.

Pursuant to the employment agreement entered into in 1999, the Company granted Mr. Feldman under the Company's option plan, options to purchase 100,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock at an exercise price of $8.00 per share, which options expired on May 31, 2004. The Company is required to provide Mr. Feldman with an automobile, to pay for country club dues, which membership is to be used primarily to further the Company's business, and to maintain the existing life and disability insurance covering Mr. Feldman. The maturity date of the Company's presently outstanding loans to Mr. Feldman was extended to May 31, 2007, and all contractual restrictions imposed by the Company on the disposition by Mr. Feldman of shares of Class B Stock were terminated. On April 1, 2002, the Compensation Committee amended the Employment Agreement to extend the maturity date of such loans to May 31, 2007, which amendment was ratified unanimously by the Board of Directors on May 3, 2002, with Mr. Feldman abstaining.

The Company may terminate the employment agreement for Cause, which is defined as (i) the willful and continued failure by Mr. Feldman to substantially perform his duties or obligations or (ii) the willful engaging by Mr. Feldman in misconduct which is materially monetarily injurious to the Company. If the employment agreement is terminated for Cause, the Company is required to pay Mr. Feldman his full salary through the date his employment is terminated. If Mr. Feldman's employment is terminated by his death, the Company is required to pay to his heirs, in a lump sum, an amount equal to his full salary for the period ending May 31, 2007. If, as a result of Mr. Feldman's incapacity due to physical or mental illness, he is absent from his duties on a full-time basis for the entire period of six consecutive months, and he does not return within 30 days of notice, the Company may terminate his employment. Mr. Feldman is entitled to receive his full salary during the disability period until his employment is terminated.

Mr. Feldman can terminate the employment agreement for Good Reason, which is defined to include (i) a change in control of the Company or (ii) a failure by the Company to comply with any material provision of the employment agreement which has not been cured within ten days after notice. A change in control of the Company is defined as (i) a change in control of a nature that would be required to be reported in response to Item 1(a) of Current Report on Form 8-K (Form 8-K) pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act, other than a change of control resulting in control by Mr. Feldman or a group including Mr. Feldman, (ii) any person (as such term is used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Exchange Act), other than Mr. Feldman or a group including Mr. Feldman, is or becomes the beneficial owner (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, of securities of the Company representing 20% or more of the combined voting power of the Company's then outstanding securities, or (iii) at any time individuals who were either nominated for election or elected by the Board of Directors of the Company cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority of the Board. Mr. Feldman has agreed that he will not seek to terminate the employment agreement for Good Reason as a result of no longer serving as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company or being assigned his present duties.

If the Company wrongfully terminates the employment agreement or Mr. Feldman terminates the employment agreement for Good Reason, then (i) the Company is required to pay Mr. Feldman his full salary through the termination date; (ii) the Company is required to pay as severance pay to Mr. Feldman an amount equal to (a) Mr. Feldman's average annual cash compensation received from the Company during the three full calendar years immediately preceding the termination date, multiplied by (b) the greater of (i) the number of years (including partial years) that would have been remaining in the employment period if the employment agreement had not so terminated and (ii) three, such payment to be made (c) if termination is based on a change of control of the Company, in a lump sum or (d) if termination results from any other cause, in substantially equal semimonthly installments payable over the number of years (including partial years) that would have been remaining in the employment period if the employment agreement had not so terminated; (iii) all options to purchase the Company's Common Stock granted to Mr. Feldman under the Company's option plan or otherwise immediately become fully vested and terminate on such date as they would have terminated if Mr. Feldman's employment by the Company had not terminated and, if

Mr. Feldman's termination is based on a change of control of the Company and Mr. Feldman elects to surrender any or all of such options to the Company, the Company is required to pay Mr. Feldman a lump sum cash payment equal to the excess of (a) the fair market value on the termination date of the securities issuable upon exercise of the options surrendered over (b) the aggregate exercise price of the options surrendered; (iv) the Company is required to maintain in full force and effect, for a number of years equal to the greater of (a) the number of years (including partial years) that would have been remaining in the employment period if the employment agreement had not so terminated and (b) three, all employee benefit plans and programs in which Mr. Feldman was entitled to participate immediately prior to the termination date; and (v) if termination of the employment agreement arises out of a breach by the Company, the Company is required to pay all other damages to which Mr. Feldman may be entitled as a result of such breach.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall not be obligated to pay any portion of any amount otherwise payable to Mr. Feldman if the Company could not reasonably deduct such portion solely by operation of Section 280G (Section 280G) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Share Repurchases and Exchanges

On January 19, 2006, the Company purchased from (i) EGI-Fund (02-04) Investors, L.L.C. (EGI) 1,090,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock for a price per share equal to $6.80 and 300,000 shares of the Company's Class B Stock for a price per share equal to $8.30 (the aggregate purchase price paid by the Company to EGI was $9,902,000) and (ii) Bedford Oak 1,031,500 shares of the Company's Common Stock for a price per share equal to $6.80 and 300,000 shares of the Company's Class B Stock for a price per share equal to $8.30 (the aggregate purchase price paid by the Company to Bedford Oak was $9,504,200). Simultaneously with such purchases, Jerome I. Feldman agreed with the Company to exchange 568,750 shares of the Company's Class B Stock for Common Stock, at a rate of one share of Class B Stock for one share of Common Stock, for a price of $1.50 per share exchanged (the aggregate price paid by the Company to Mr. Feldman was $853,125, which Mr. Feldman applied toward repayment of indebtedness owed by him to the Company).

Harvey Eisen, Chairman of the Board of the Company, is deemed to have beneficial ownership of the shares owned by Bedford Oak by virtue of his position as managing member of Bedford Oak Advisors, LLC, the investment manager of Bedford Oak. EGI had designated Matthew Zell as a Director of the Company. Mr. Zell resigned from the Board of Directors of the Company simultaneously with such repurchase. Mr. Feldman is the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Company and the former Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The repurchase and exchange transactions were negotiated and approved by a Special Committee of the Board of Directors.

Loans

The Company has made loans to Mr. Feldman, who primarily utilized the proceeds of such loans to exercise options to purchase Class B Stock. Such loans bear interest at the prime rate of Fleet Bank and were secured by the purchased Class B Stock and certain other assets. The largest aggregate amount of indebtedness (including principal and accrued interest) outstanding from January 1, 2005 through March 31, 2006, after giving effect to the application of the five $1 million incentive payments as described under Employment Agreements - Jerome I. Feldman and the application of the exchange premium as described above, was $972,000, which was the amount outstanding on December 31, 2005. As of March 31, 2006, the aggregate amount of indebtedness (including principal and accrued interest) outstanding under the loans for accounting purposes only, after giving effect to the application of the five $1 million incentive payments as described under Employment Agreements - Jerome I. Feldman and the application of the exchange premium as described above, was approximately $135,000.

On July 1, 2002, the Company made a loan to Douglas Sharp, who was then the President of GPC and is now also the President of the Company, in the principal amount of $150,000 in connection with Mr. Sharp's relocation. The loan bears interest at the prime rate of Wachovia Bank. The largest aggregate amount outstanding under the loan from January 1, 2005 through March 31, 2006 was approximately $65,000, which was the amount outstanding on January 1, 2005. As of March 31, 2006, the aggregate amount of indebtedness outstanding under the loan was approximately $5,000.

NPDC

On August 8, 2003, pursuant to a Note and Warrant Purchase Agreement, the Company issued and sold to Gabelli Asset Management, Inc. $7,500,000 aggregate principal amount of 6% Conditional Subordinated Notes due 2008 (the Notes) and warrants to purchase Company Common Stock. The Notes mature August 2008 with interest at the rate of 6% per annum payable semi-annually commencing on December 31, 2003. The Notes are secured by a mortgage on the Company's former property located in Pawling, New York that was contributed to MXL Industries, Inc. (MXL) in connection with the spin-off (the Spin-Off) of NPDC, which occurred on November 24, 2004. MXL, which is now a subsidiary of NPDC, assumed the mortgage, but without liability for repayment of the Notes or any other obligations of the Company under the Note and Warrant Purchase Agreement (other than foreclosure on the property). If there is a foreclosure on the mortgage for payment of the Notes, the Company has agreed to indemnify MXL for the loss of the value of the property.

Prior to the Spin-Off, NPDC was a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. In connection with the Spin-Off and while NPDC was a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, the Company and NPDC entered into contracts that govern certain relationships between them. The Company and NPDC believe that these agreements are at fair market value and are on terms comparable to those that would have been reached in arm's-length negotiations had the parties been unaffiliated at the time of the negotiations.

Certain of the Company's executive officers are also executive officers of NPDC. Such executive officers, who do not receive any compensation from NPDC, provide NPDC with management services under a management agreement between the Company and NPDC entered into while NPDC was a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company and in connection with the Spin-Off. Services under the management agreement relate to corporate federal and state income taxes, corporate legal services, corporate secretarial administrative support, and executive management consulting. The term of the agreement extends for three years from the date of the Spin-Off, or through November 24, 2007, and may be terminated by either the Company or NPDC on or after July 30, 2006 with 180 days prior written notice, with the exception of the fee relating to Mr. Feldman's services for which NPDC is liable through May 31, 2007.

Prior to July 1, 2005, under this management agreement, NPDC paid the Company a management fee to cover an allocable portion of the compensation of these officers, based on the time they spent providing services to NPDC, in addition to an allocable portion of certain other corporate expenses. The Company and NPDC amended the management agreement effective July 1, 2005. Pursuant to the amendment, NPDC pays the Company an annual fee of not less than $970,000 as compensation for the management services, payable in equal monthly installments. The fee includes $698,000 for the period July 1, 2005 through June 30, 2006 relating to the services of Jerome I. Feldman, the Chairman of the Company's Executive Committee, representing approximately 80% of the cost of the compensation and benefits required to be provided by the Company to Mr. Feldman. For the year ended December 31, 2005, NPDC reimbursed the Company approximately $1,141,000 for services under the management agreement.

NPDC also occupies a portion of corporate office space leased by the Company. NPDC compensates the Company approximately an additional $205,000 annually for use of this space. The Company's lease extends through December 31, 2006.

While NPDC was a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company and in connection with the Spin-Off, NPDC had entered into a separate management agreement with the Company pursuant to which NPDC provided certain general corporate services to the Company. Under this management agreement, the Company paid NPDC a management fee to cover an allocable portion of corporate overhead related to services performed by NPDC for the Company and its subsidiaries. Effective as of July 1, 2005, the Company and NPDC terminated this management agreement. For the year ended December 31, 2005, the Company paid NPDC $82,000 for services under the management agreement.

Under the distribution agreement relating to the Spin-Off, the Company and NPDC each agreed that neither would take any action that might cause the Spin-Off to not qualify as a tax-free distribution. Should one party take an action which causes the Spin-Off not to so qualify, then that party would be liable to the other for any taxes incurred by the other from the failure of the Spin-Off to qualify as a tax-free distribution.

In connection with the Spin-off, the Company agreed to make an additional capital contribution to NPDC in an amount equal to the first $5 million of any proceeds (net of litigation expenses and taxes incurred, if any), and 50% of any proceeds (net of litigation expenses and taxes incurred, if any) in excess of $15 million, received by the Company from its claims relating to the acquisition by its wholly-owned subsidiary, GPC, of Learning Technologies. In January 2005, the Company made a $5 million additional capital contribution to NPDC pursuant to such agreement. In addition, as of December 31, 2005 and as of the date hereof, the Company had a payable to NPDC of approximately $1,201,000 for an additional capital contribution relating to litigation proceeds in the amount of $9,000,000 received by the Company in December 2005.

Jerome I. Feldman, the Chairman of the Company's Executive Committee, is also Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of NPDC, as well as Chairman of the Board of Five Star, a subsidiary of NPDC. Scott N. Greenberg, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer, is a Director and the Chief Financial Officer of NPDC. Andrea D. Kantor, the Company's Executive Vice President and General Counsel, is the Vice President and General Counsel of NPDC. Harvey P. Eisen, a Director of the Company, is also a Director of NPDC.

GSE

Pursuant to a management services agreement, the Company provides corporate support services to GSE. GSE pays the Company an annual fee of $685,000 for these services and can terminate the agreement by providing sixty days written notice. The management services agreement can be renewed by GSE for successive one-year terms and was renewed through December 31, 2006. Subsequent to the spin-off by the Company to its stockholders of its 58% interest in GSE effective September 30, 2005, the Company continues to provide GSE with corporate support services through December 31, 2006.

GSE was an additional borrower under GPC's credit agreement, and the Company also agreed to guarantee GSE's borrowings as part of its fee pursuant to the management services agreement described above. On March 8, 2006, GSE repaid its borrowings of $1,182,000 under GPC's credit agreement and GSE ceased to be a borrower under such agreement.

Michael Feldman received an annual salary of approximately $110,000 from GSE as Executive Vice President in 2005. Michael Feldman currently receives an annual salary of $110,000 from GSE. Michael Feldman is the son of Jerome I. Feldman, the Chairman of the Company's Executive Committee.

Jerome I. Feldman, the Chairman of the Company's Executive Committee and the Company's former Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, is also Chairman of the Board of GSE. Scott N. Greenberg, the Company's Chief Executive, Officer and Director, Douglas Sharp, the President of the Company, Andrea D. Kantor, the Company's Executive Vice President and General Counsel, and Michael Feldman, the son of Jerome Feldman, is each a Director of GSE.

Guarantees

The Company guarantees certain operating leases for Five Star's New Jersey and Connecticut warehouses, totaling approximately $1,589,000 per year through the first quarter of 2007. The Company's guarantee of Five Star's leases remained in effect subsequent to the spin-off of NPDC.

Subsequent to the spin-off of NPDC, the Company continues to guarantee the repayment of two debt obligations of MXL, which are secured by property and certain equipment of MXL. The aggregate outstanding balance as of December 31, 2005 was $1.4 million. The Company's guarantees expire upon the maturity of the debt obligations which are October 1, 2006 and March 31, 2011.

The Company continued to guarantee GSE's borrowings under GPC's Credit Agreement (for which $1,500,000 is allocated for use by GSE) subsequent to the spin-off on September 30, 2005. As of December 31, 2005, GSE had borrowings of $1,182,000 under the Credit Agreement. In March 2006, GSE repaid its borrowings in full and ceased to be a Borrower under the Credit Agreement.
