1

Edgar Filing: COPART INC - Form NT 10-K

2006 (Form 10-K) within the prescribed period (on or before October 16, 2006) without unreasonable effort or expense.

The Company's predecessor outside auditor through the fiscal year ended July 31, 2005, has informed the Company of the need for additional time to complete its review process prior to delivering consents required for filing of the Form 10-K.

In connection with the preparation of the Form 10-K, the Company undertook a voluntary review of its historical stock option practices. The Company recently provided the results of its review to Ernst & Young, its current auditor, who is in the process of reviewing materials related to this matter. In addition, the predecessor outside auditor is in the process of reviewing this matter.

The Company intends to file the Form 10-K as soon as practicable following completion of the matters described above.

Pursuant to Rule 12b-25, attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 is the statement of the Company's predecessor outside auditor, KPMG LLP.

If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Note: This Form 12b-25 contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 that involve risks and uncertainties, including statements regarding the review process to be completed by the Company's predecessor outside auditor, the review to be conducted by Ernst & Young, the voluntary review initiated by the Company and the Company's intent to file the Form 10-K as soon as practicable. There can be no assurances that forward-looking statements will be achieved, and actual results could differ materially from those suggested by the forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially include: the completion of the review process by the Company's predecessor outside auditor; the results and findings of the review by Ernst & Young; the impact, if any, of such results or findings on the financial statements of the Company; the Company's inability to timely file reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission and any resulting impact on its ability to meet NASDAQ listing requirements; and risks of litigation and governmental or other regulatory inquiry or proceedings arising out of or related to any of the matters described above in Part III. Therefore, any forward-looking statements in this Form 12b-25 should be considered in light of various important factors, including the risks and uncertainties listed above, as well as others. The Company makes no commitment to revise or update any forward-looking statements in order to reflect events or circumstances after the date any such statement is made.
