In our opinion, the accompanying statements of net assets available for plan benefits and the related statement of changes in net assets available for plan benefits present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for plan benefits of the Profit Participation Plan of The Dun & Bradstreet Corporation (the "Plan") at December 31, 2001 and 2000, and the changes in net assets available for plan benefits for the year ended December 31, 2001 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits of these statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, which require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplemental schedule of Assets Held for Investment Purposes at December 31, 2001 is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements but is supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. The supplemental schedule is the responsibility of the Plan's management. The supplemental schedule has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Profit Participation Plan of The Dun & Bradstreet Corporation
Notes to Financial Statements

1. Background and Plan Description

The Dun & Bradstreet Corporation established The Dun & Bradstreet Defined Contribution Plan Trust (the "Trust") for the purpose of holding the assets of The Profit Participation Plan of The Dun & Bradstreet Corporation (the "Plan").

On September 30, 2000, (the "2000 Distribution Date"), the company then known as The Dun & Bradstreet Corporation ("Old D&B") separated into two independent, publicly traded companies - The New D&B Corporation (the "Company") and Moody's Corporation ("Moody's"). The separation was accomplished through a tax-free distribution to shareholders of Old D&B (the "2000 Distribution") of all of the shares of common stock of the Company. For every two shares of common stock of Old D&B held, shareholders received one share of common stock of the Company. Following the 2000 Distribution, Old D&B was renamed "Moody's Corporation" and the Company was renamed "The Dun & Bradstreet Corporation." Prior to the 2000 Distribution, Old D&B had completed an internal reorganization to the effect, at the time of the 2000 Distribution, the business of the Company consisted solely of the business of supplying credit, marketing and purchasing information as well as receivables management services (the "D&B Business"), and the business of Old D&B (other than the Company and its subsidiaries) consisted solely of the business of providing ratings and related research and risk management services (the "Moody's Business").

The existing Plan was adopted by the Company as of the separation date. The Plan retained the balances of the Company's active and disabled participants as well as all retirees and vested terminated participants of Old D&B as of the separation date. Moody's participants were given the option to keep their balances as of separation date in the Plan or transfer balances to the Profit Participation Plan of Moody's Corporation ("Moody's Plan"). Absent an election to remain in the Plan, all balances of Moody's active and disabled participants as of the separation date were transferred to the Moody's Plan. Moody's active and disabled participants who elected to remain in the Plan cannot make contributions to the Plan.

In May 2001, the Company completed the sale of the operations of its Receivable Management Service ("RMS"). RMS employees were immediately vested in their employer contributions. As a result of this sale, assets totaling $18.43 million were transferred to RMS Savings Plan.

The following summary of major Plan provisions in effect for the Plan year is provided for general information purposes only. Participants should refer to the Plan document for more complete description of the Plan's provisions. The Plan is a defined contribution plan and is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

Eligibility

Full time associates of the Company are immediately eligible to participate in the Plan on their date of hire. Part time associates who work at least one thousand hours during the consecutive twelve-month period following employment, or in any calendar year thereafter, are eligible to participate in the Plan.

Contributions

Participants contribute to the basic Plan by authorizing payroll deductions between 1% and 6% of their creditable compensation as defined in the Plan. The Company makes matching contributions equal to a minimum of 50% of aggregate participants contributions. For Plan years ended prior to January 1, 2001, if the average increase in earnings per share ("EPS"), as defined in the Plan, of common stock of The Dun & Bradstreet Corporation for any Plan year and the immediately preceding Plan year is greater than 5%, the Company may contribute an additional percentage of the aggregate participant contributions. The percentage of additional Company matching contributions depends on the 2-year average increase in EPS and a participant's total years of service. Beginning with Plan year 2001, the provisions of the Plan with respect to the EPS match were amended such that the Company may contribute a percentage of the aggregate participant contributions in the form of The Dun & Bradstreet Corporation Common Stock if the Company meets the annual EPS goal determined by management. Such EPS match contributions are recorded by the Plan in the period in which they are received by the Plan. Diversification rules prohibit transfers of the EPS match for The Dun & Bradstreet Corporation Common Stock until age 50.

Participants may also make additional contributions to the Investment Plan (which are not eligible for Company matching contributions) under an Investment Plan addendum to the basic Plan by authorizing payroll deductions between 1% and 10% of their creditable compensation as defined in the Plan.

Participants' contributions under the basic Plan and additional contributions under the Investment Plan may be made in the form of contributions from after-tax earnings and/or contributions from before-tax earnings, which have the effect of reducing current taxable earnings for federal income tax purposes. A participant's aggregate contributions may not exceed 16% of the participant's creditable compensation (up to 6% in contributions under the basic Plan and up to 10% in contributions under the Investment Plan) subject to an overall limit on before-tax contributions imposed by the Internal Revenue Code (IRC).

Individual Accounts

A separate account is established and maintained for each Plan participant. Contributions are invested in one or more of the Plan's investment funds as designated by the participant. Participants are not permitted to invest more than 50% of their account balance in The Dun & Bradstreet Common Stock Fund. Income earned and net appreciation or depreciation on Plan investments for a given fund is allocated in proportion to the participant's account balance in that fund on a daily basis.

Payment of Benefits

Upon termination of service with the Company, participants become eligible for a lump sum distribution of the vested portion of their account balance. Retired and terminated participants who have an account balance in excess of $5,000 may elect various forms of deferred distribution.

Participant Loans

Participants may obtain loans from the Plan, which are secured by the vested balance in their account. The Plan limits the total number and amount of loans outstanding at any time for each participant, of up to two general-purpose loans and a principal residence loan. The minimum loan is $500 and the maximum is the lower of 50% of a participant's vested account balance or $50,000. The maximum applies to all outstanding loans. Interest rates applicable to Plan loans are based on the prime rate as reported in The Wall Street Journal on the last business day of the month before the loan is processed plus 200 basis points. At December 31, 2001, interest on participant loans ranged between 6.75% and 11.5%.

Vested Benefits and Forfeitures

Participants are immediately vested in their voluntary contributions plus actual earnings thereon. The Plan provides for 100% vesting in the value of Company contributions plus actual earnings thereon to a participant's Plan account after three years of service beginning on the participant's initial employment date with the Company. In addition, a participant becomes 100% vested in the value of Company contributions immediately upon attainment of age 65 or if they become totally and permanently disabled or die.

Amounts forfeited by nonvested or partially vested participants who terminated employment during the year ended December 31, 2001 were $940,890. Forfeited amounts reduce future Company contributions.

Administration of the Plan

The Plan is administered by the Employee Benefits Committee which is appointed by the Board of Directors of the Company. Fidelity Management Trust Company ("The Trustee") are the Trustees of the Plan and has custody of the Plan's assets. The expenses of administering the Plan are paid by the Company except for investment management fees which are charged to the Plan.

Plan Termination

While the Company has not expressed any intent to discontinue its contributions or to terminate the Plan, it is free to do so at any time subject to the provisions of the ERISA and the Internal Revenue Code which state that, in such event, all participants of the Plan shall be fully vested in the amounts credited to their accounts.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting The financial statements of the Plan are prepared on the accrual method of accounting.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make significant estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and changes therein, and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Risks and Uncertainties

The Plan provides for various investment options in any combination of stocks, bonds, fixed income securities, mutual funds, and other investment securities. Certain investment securities are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, market and credit. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities and the level of uncertainty related to changes in the value of investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in risks in the near term could materially affect the amounts reported in the

Edgar Filing: DUN & BRADSTREET CORP/NW - Form 11-K

Statements of Net Assets Available for Plan Benefits and the Statement of Changes in Net Assets Available for Plan Benefits.

Payment of Benefits Benefits are recorded when paid.

Investment Valuation

Investments in securities of regulated investment companies are valued at the closing fund share price on the last business day of the period. The Plan has entered into benefit responsive investment contracts with various insurance companies.

Participants in the Plan can invest in the benefit responsive investment contracts with various insurance companies by allocating a percentage of their contributions into the Special Fixed Income Fund. The Special Fixed Income Fund is credited with earnings on the underlying investments and charged for participant withdrawals and administrative expenses. Such contracts are included in the financial statements at contract value as reported to the Plan by the respective contract issuers. Contract values represent contributions made under the contract, plus earnings, less participant withdrawals and administrative expenses. Participants direct the withdrawal of their investment at contract value. There are no reserves against contract value for credit risk of the contract issuer or otherwise. The average yield and crediting interest rates ranged from 4.44% to 7.14% for 2001 and 5.47% to 7.14% for 2000 and the crediting interest rates are fixed for the duration of such contracts.

Investment Transactions and Investment Income

Purchase and sales of securities are reflected on a trade date basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date. Income from other investment is recorded as earned on an accrual basis.
