SINO-GLOBAL SHIPPING AMERICA, LTD. AND AFFILIATES

NOTES TO THE UNAUDITED CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF BUSINESS

Founded in the United States (the “U.S.”) in 2001, Sino-Global Shipping America, Ltd., a Virginia corporation (“Sino-Global” or the “Company”), is a non-asset based global shipping and freight logistic integrated solution provider. The Company provides tailored solutions and value-added services for its customers to drive effectiveness and control in related links throughout the entire shipping and freight logistics chain. The Company conducts its business primarily through its wholly-owned subsidiaries in the U.S., the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC”) (including Hong Kong), Australia and Canada. Currently, a significant portion of the Company’s business is generated from clients located in the PRC, and its operations are currently primarily conducted in the PRC.

The Company’s Chinese subsidiary, Trans Pacific Shipping Limited, a wholly-owned foreign enterprise (“Trans Pacific Beijing”), is the 90% owner of Trans Pacific Logistics Shanghai Limited (“Trans Pacific Shanghai”). Trans Pacific Beijing and Trans Pacific Shanghai are referred to collectively as “Trans Pacific”.

Prior to fiscal year 2016, the Company’s shipping agency business was operated by its subsidiaries in the PRC (including Hong Kong). The Company’s ship management services were operated by its subsidiary in Hong Kong. The Company’s shipping and chartering services were operated by its subsidiaries in the U.S. and subsidiary in Hong Kong. Currently, the Company’s inland transportation management services are operated by its subsidiaries in the PRC and the U.S. The Company’s freight logistic services are operated by its subsidiaries in the PRC and the U.S. The Company’s container trucking services are currently operated by its subsidiaries in the PRC, and the Company expects to have more businesses involved in the U.S. from third quarter of fiscal year 2017 as the website version of our short haul container truck services platform launched in December 2016.

In January 2016, the Company formed a subsidiary, Sino-Global Shipping LA Inc., a California corporation (“Sino LA”), for the purpose of expanding its business to provide freight logistic services to importers who ship goods into the U.S. The Company expects to generate increased revenue from this new service platform in the coming fiscal year.

In fiscal year 2016, affected by worsening market conditions in the shipping industry, the Company’s shipping agency business segment suffered a significant decrease in revenue due to a reduced number of ships served. As a result, the Company has temporarily suspended its shipping agency services business. Also, as a result of these market condition changes, the Company has temporarily suspended its ship management services business. In addition, in December 2015, the Company temporarily suspended its shipping and chartering services business, primarily as a result of the termination of its previously contemplated vessel acquisition. As of March 31, 2016, the Company's current service offerings consist of inland transportation management service, freight logistic services and container trucking services.

In August 2016, the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board") authorized management to move forward with the development of a mobile application that will provide a full-service logistics platform between the U.S. and the PRC for short-haul trucking in the U.S. The Board's decision followed an extensive review by the Company's management team and the Board in identifying Sino-Global's key competitive advantages as an expert in global logistics between the U.S. and the PRC, and then leveraging that experience to both address the needs of its customer base and to provide new solutions to contemporary issues affecting the logistics and supply chain. The Company completed a market analysis and feasibility study related to building a mobile based logistics application for short-haul trucking in U.S. ports to better manage the over 25 million containers, or "TEU", moving between the PRC and the U.S. each year.

Sino-Global completed development of a full-service logistics platform as of December 2016. Upon the completion of the platform, the Company signed two significant agreements with COSCO Beijing International Freight Co., Ltd. (“COSFRE Beijing”) and Sinotrans Guangxi in December 2016. Pursuant to the agreement with COSFRE Beijing, the Company will receive a percentage of the total amount of each transportation fee for the arrangement of inland transportation services for COSFRE Beijing’s container shipments into U.S. ports. For the strategic cooperation framework agreement with Sinotrans Guangxi, which is a subsidiary of Sinotrans Limited, the Company expects to utilize both parties’ existing resources and establish an integrated logistics plan to provide an end-to-end supply chain solution for customers shipping soybeans and sulfur products from the U.S. to the southern PRC via container.

On January 5, 2017, the Company entered into a joint venture agreement and formed a new joint venture company named ACH Trucking Center Corp. (“ACH Trucking Center”) with Jetta Global Logistics Inc. (“Jetta Global”). Along with the establishment of ACH Trucking Center, the Company began providing short haul trucking transportation and logistics services to customers located in the New York and New Jersey areas. The Company holds a 51% ownership stake in ACH Trucking Center. The financial statements of ACH Trucking Center has been included in the consolidated financial statements of the Company.

On January 9, 2017, the Company entered into a strategic cooperation agreement with China Ocean Shipping Agency Qingdao Co. Ltd. (“COSCO Qingdao”). COSCO Qingdao will utilize the Company’s full-service logistics platform to arrange the transport of its container shipments into U.S. ports. Sino-Global will receive a percentage of the total amount of each transportation fee in exchange for the arrangement of inland transportation services for COSCO Qingdao’s container shipments into U.S. ports.

On February 18, 2017, the Company entered into a cooperative transportation agreement with Zhiyuan International Investment & Holding Group (Hong Kong) Co., Ltd. (the “Buyer” or “Zhiyuan Hong Kong”). Zhiyuan Hong Kong in joint entity with China Minmetals Corporation and China Metallurgical Group Corporation acts as the general designer, general equipment provider and general service contractor in the upgrade and renovation project of Perwaja Steel Indonesia which is located in Malaysia (the “Project”). The Company is contracted to provide high-quality services including detailed transportation plan design, plan execution and necessary supervision of the execution at Zhiyuan Hong Kong’s demand, and the Company will receive from the Buyer 1% - 1.25% of the total transportation expense incurred in the Project as commission for its professional design and execution of transportation plan as a general agent (see Note 16).

Note 2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the U.S. (“US GAAP”) for interim financial information pursuant to the rules and regulations of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). All significant intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated in consolidation. In the opinion of management, all adjustments considered necessary to give a fair presentation have been included. Interim results are not necessarily indicative of full-year results. The information in this Form 10-Q should be read in conjunction with information included in the Company’s annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2016 filed with the SEC on September 19, 2016.

(b) Basis of Consolidation

The unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company, its subsidiaries, and its affiliates. All significant intercompany transactions and balances are eliminated in consolidation. Sino-Global Shipping Agency Ltd., a PRC corporation (“Sino-China”), is considered a variable interest entity (“VIE”), with the Company as the primary beneficiary. The Company, through Trans Pacific Beijing, entered into certain agreements with Sino-China, pursuant to which the Company receives 90% of Sino-China’s net income. The Company does not receive any payments from Sino-China unless Sino-China recognizes net income during its fiscal year. These agreements do not entitle the Company to any consideration if Sino-China incurs a net loss during its fiscal year. If Sino-China incurs a net loss during its fiscal year, the Company is not required to absorb such net loss.

As a VIE, Sino-China's revenues are included in the Company's total revenues, and any loss from operations is consolidated with that of the Company. Because of contractual arrangements between the Company and Sino-China, the Company has a pecuniary interest in Sino-China that requires consolidation of the financial statements of the Company and Sino-China.

The Company has consolidated Sino-China's operating results because the entities are under common control in accordance with ASC 805-10, "Business Combinations". The agency relationship between the Company and Sino-China and its branches is governed by a series of contractual arrangements pursuant to which the Company has substantial control over Sino-China. Management makes ongoing reassessments of whether the Company remains the primary beneficiary of Sino-China. As mentioned elsewhere in this report, due to the worsening market conditions in the shipping industry, Sino-China's shipping agency business suffered a significant decrease in revenue due to a reduced number of ships served. As a result, the Company has temporarily suspended this business.

The carrying amount and classification of Sino-China's assets and liabilities included in the Company's unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets were as follows:

	March 31, 2017	June 30, 2016
Total current assets	$7,683,369	$31,128
Total assets	7,822,687	129,463
Total current liabilities	3,256	7,222
Total liabilities	3,256	7,222

(c) Use of Estimates and Assumptions

The preparation of the Company's unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the dates of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting periods. Estimates are adjusted to reflect actual experience when necessary. Significant accounting estimates reflected in the Company's unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements include revenue recognition, fair value of stock based compensation, cost of revenues, allowance for doubtful accounts, deferred income taxes, and the useful lives of property and equipment. Since the use of estimates is an integral component of the financial reporting process, actual results could differ from those estimates.

(d) Revenue Recognition Policy

Revenues from shipping agency services are recognized upon completion of services, which coincides with the date of departure of the relevant vessel from port. Advance payments and deposits received from customers prior to the provision of services and recognition of the related revenues are presented as advances from customers.

Revenues from shipping and chartering services are recognized upon performance of services as stipulated in the underlying contracts.

Revenues from inland transportation management services are recognized when commodities are being released from the customers' warehouse.

Revenues from ship management services are recognized when the related contractual services are rendered.

Revenues from freight logistic services are recognized when the related contractual services are rendered.

Revenues from container trucking services are recognized when the related contractual services are rendered.

F-7

(e) Translation of Foreign Currency

The accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries, including Sino-China and each of its branches are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the “functional currency”). The Company’s functional currency is the U.S. dollar (“USD”) while its subsidiaries in the PRC, including Sino-China, report their financial positions and results of operations in Renminbi (“RMB”). The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements are presented in USD. Foreign currency transactions are translated into USD using the fixed exchange rates in effect at the time of the transaction. Generally, foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions are recognized in the unaudited condensed consolidated statements of operations. The Company translates the foreign currency financial statements of Sino-China, Sino-Global Shipping Australia, Sino-Global Shipping Hong Kong, Sino-Global Shipping Canada, Trans Pacific Beijing and Trans Pacific Shanghai in accordance with ASC 830-10, “Foreign Currency Matters”. Assets and liabilities are translated at current exchange rates quoted by the People’s Bank of China at the balance sheet dates and revenues and expenses are translated at average exchange rates in effect during the year. The resulting translation adjustments are recorded as other comprehensive income (loss) and accumulated other comprehensive loss as a separate component of equity of the Company, and also included in non-controlling interests.

The exchange rates as of March 31, 2017 and June 30, 2016 and for the three and nine months ended March 31, 2017 and 2016 are as follows:

(f) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash on hand and other highly liquid investments which are unrestricted as to withdrawal or use, and which have an original maturity of three months or less when purchased. The Company maintains cash and cash equivalents with various financial institutions mainly in the PRC, Australia, Hong Kong, Canada and the U.S. As of March 31, 2017 and June 30, 2016, cash balances of $4,976,980 and $1,333,713, respectively, were maintained at financial institutions in the PRC, and are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or other programs.

(g) Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are presented at net realizable value. The Company maintains allowances for doubtful accounts and for estimated losses. The Company reviews the accounts receivable on a periodic basis and makes general and specific allowances when there is doubt as to the collectability of individual receivable balances. In evaluating the collectability of individual receivable balances, the Company considers many factors, including the age of the balances, customers' historical payment history, their current credit-worthiness and current economic trends. Receivables are considered past due after 365 days. Accounts Receivable is written off against the allowances only after exhaustive collection efforts.

(h) Earnings (loss) per Share

Basic earnings (loss) per share is computed by dividing net income (loss) attributable to holders of common shares of the Company by the weighted average number of common shares of the Company outstanding during the applicable period. Diluted earnings per share reflect the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue common shares of the Company were exercised or converted into common shares of the Company. Common share equivalents are excluded from the computation of diluted earnings per share if their effects would be anti-dilutive.

For the three and nine months ended March 31, 2017, the basic average shares outstanding and diluted average shares of the Company outstanding were not the same because the effect of potential shares of common stock of the Company was dilutive since the exercise prices for options were lower than the average market price for the related periods. As a result, for the three and nine months ended March 31, 2017, a total of 34,782 and 20,621 unexercised options were dilutive, respectively, and were included in the computation of diluted EPS. For the three and nine months ended March 31, 2016, no unexercised warrants and options were dilutive.

(i) Stock-based Compensation

Valuations are based upon highly subjective assumptions about the future, including stock price volatility and exercise patterns. The fair value of share-based payment awards was estimated using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. Expected volatilities are based on the historical volatility of the Company's stock. The Company uses historical data to estimate option exercise and employee terminations. The expected term of options granted represents the period of time that options granted are expected to be outstanding. The risk-free rate for periods within the expected life of the option is based on the U.S. Treasury yield curve in effect at the time of the grant.

(j) Risks and Uncertainties

The Company's business, financial position and results of operations may be influenced by the political, economic, and legal environments in the PRC, as well as by the general state of the PRC economy. The Company's operations in the PRC are subject to special considerations and significant risks not typically associated with companies in North America and Western Europe. These include risks associated with, among others, the political, economic and legal environment and foreign currency exchange. The Company's results may be adversely affected by changes in the political, regulatory and social conditions in the PRC, and by changes in governmental policies or interpretations with respect to laws and regulations, anti-inflationary measures, currency conversion, remittances abroad, and rates and methods of taxation, among other things. Moreover, the Company's ability to grow its business and maintain its profitability could be negatively affected by the nature and extent of services provided to its major customers, Tianjin Zhiyuan Investment Group Co., Ltd. (the "Zhiyuan Investment Group") and Tengda Northwest Ferroalloy Co., Ltd. ("Tengda Northwest").

(k) Reclassifications

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current period presentation. These reclassifications have no effect on the results of operations and cash flows.

(I) Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In December 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standard Update (ASU) No. 2016-20, "Technical Corrections and Improvements to Topic 606," which includes thirteen technical corrections or improvements that affect only narrow aspects of the guidance in ASU No. 2014-09. ASU No. 2014-09 and all of the related ASUs have the same effective date. On July 9, 2015, the FASB deferred the effective date of ASU No. 2014-09 for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2017, including interim periods within that reporting period. Early adoption is permitted as of the original effective date, which is annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2016 and interim periods within those annual periods. The new standard is to be applied retrospectively and permits the use of either the retrospective or cumulative effect transition method. The Company is currently evaluating the effect that the adoption of this update will have on its unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements.

In January 2017, the FASB issued ASU No. 2017-01, "Business Combinations (Topic 805): Clarifying the Definition of a Business". The amendments in this ASU clarify the definition of a business with the objective of adding guidance to assist entities with evaluating whether transactions should be accounted for as acquisitions (or disposals) of assets or businesses. Basically, these amendments provide a screen to determine when a set is not a business. If the screen is not met, the amendments in this ASU first require that to be considered a business, a set must include, at a minimum, an input and a substantive process that together significantly contribute to the ability to create output, and second, they require removal of the evaluation of whether a market participant could replace missing elements. These amendments take effect for public businesses for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017 and interim periods within those periods, and all other entities should apply these amendments for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2018, and interim periods within annual periods beginning after December 15, 2019. The Company does not expect that the adoption of this guidance will have a material impact on its unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements.

In May 2017, the FASB issued ASU 2017-09, Scope of Modification Accounting, which amends the scope of modification accounting for share-based payment arrangements, provides guidance on the types of changes to the terms or conditions of share-based payment awards to which an entity would be required to apply modification accounting under ASC 718. For all entities, the ASU is effective for annual reporting periods, including interim periods within those annual reporting periods, beginning after December 15, 2017. Early adoption is permitted, including adoption in any interim period. The Company does not expect that the adoption of this guidance will have a material impact on its unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements

Note 15. SEGMENT REPORTING

ASC 280, “Segment Reporting”, establishes standards for reporting information about operating segments on a basis consistent with the Company's internal organizational structure as well as information about geographical areas, business segments and major customers in financial statements for detailing the Company's business segments.

The Company's chief operating decision maker is the Chief Executive Officer, who reviews the financial information of the separate operating segments when making decisions about allocating resources and assessing the performance of the group. The Company has determined that it has five operating segments: (1) shipping agency and ship management services; (2) shipping and chartering services; (3) inland transportation management services; (4) freight logistics services; and (5) container trucking services. However, due to the downturn in the shipping industry, the Company has decided to temporarily suspend to its shipping agency and ship management services and shipping and chartering services.

The following tables present summary information by segment for the three and nine months ended March 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively:

Overview

Third Quarter Highlights

Sales in the third quarter of 2017 increased by $1,573,842, or 134.1%, from $1,173,769 for the three months ended March 31, 2016, to $2,747,611 for the comparable period in 2017. The increase was mainly due to:

The Company's subsidiary, Trans Pacific Shanghai, began providing container trucking services in the second quarter of fiscal year 2017. In addition to the launch of our full-service logistics platform, Trans Pacific Shanghai signed a service agreement with Shanghai International Port (Group) Co. Ltd., resulting in a significant increase in the subsidiary revenues. Trans Pacific Shanghai's revenues generated by its container trucking services segment and revenues from freight logistic services increased approximately 167% and 220%, respectively, compared with the previous quarter.

Pursuant to the Strategic Cooperation Agreement with COSCO Logistics (Americas) Inc. ("COSCO Logistics"), signed in July 2016, starting in the third quarter of fiscal year 2017, the Company's subsidiary in Los Angeles, California began providing freight logistic services and container trucking services to COSCO Logistics.

Pursuant to an agreement with signed in December 2016, the Company and Jetta Global Inc. ("Jetta Global") established ACH Trucking Center Corp. ("ACH Trucking Center"), a joint venture based in New York that provides trucking services. During the third quarter of fiscal year 2017, ACH Trucking Center began providing freight logistic services and container trucking services to COSCO Beijing International Freight Co., Ltd. ("COSFRE Beijing") in the New York and New Jersey areas.

On February 16, 2017, the Company raised capital by issuing 1.5 million shares of common stock to three institutional investors at a purchase price of $3.18 per share. The aggregate gross proceeds of the sale to the Company totaled $4.77 million, and net proceeds after deducting offering expenses and placement agent fees, equaled approximately $4.3 million. The Company will use the funds for working capital and general corporate purposes.

Other 2017 Highlights:

In July 2016, the Company signed a Strategic Cooperation Agreement with COSCO Logistics, which is owned by the PRC's largest integrated shipping company, China COSCO Holdings Company Ltd.. Pursuant to that agreement, both parties will provide logistics services between the PRC and the U.S. and develop shipping customers as an end-to-end global logistics service. Starting in the third quarter of fiscal year 2017, the Company and COSCO Logistics began providing container trucking services on the west coast of the U.S.. The Company expects to increase its cooperation with COSCO Logistics and to provide inland transportation services in the U.S. for shipments to and from the PRC. According to the agreement, the two companies will also assess locations in the U.S. to potentially establish warehouse and/or distribution facilities in the coming months and share pricing information for short-haul trucking services across selected regions of the U.S..

In December 2016, the Company completed the development of its full-service logistics platform, and a website portal to seamlessly connect shipping customers with short-haul trucking transportation services throughout the U.S. is now accessible through the Company's website. In connection with the new platform, the Company signed strategic cooperation agreements with one major Chinese shipping company, COSCO (consisting of both COSFRE Beijing and COSCO Qingdao) in December 2016 and January 2017, respectively. We believe that the Company's cooperation with COSCO should increase door-to-door short-haul trucking volumes and boost revenues from inland transportation services in the U.S.

On April 20, 2017, the Company signed a Strategic Cooperation Agreement with Ningbo Xinyang Shipping Co., Ltd ("COSCO Xinyang"). This agreement with COSCO Xinyang is a continuation of the Company's ongoing partnership with China Ocean Shipping Company ("COSCO"). Pursuant to the agreement with COSCO Xinyang, which is similar with the Company's previously announced inland transportation agreements with COSCO, Sino-Global will receive a percentage of the total amount of each transportation fee for arranging inland transportation services for COSCO Xinyang's container shipments into U.S. ports. The Company continues to work to expand its business to provide logistics services to customers who ship goods into the U.S.

In the remaining periods of fiscal year 2017, the Company will continue marketing itself to state-owned shipping companies in the PRC, promoting our inland transportation services, including freight logistics and container trucking, in the U.S., and using containers for our bulk shipping projects. In the interim, we will continue to establish our services network in the U.S. in order to increase our sales revenue and leverage our fundamentals using our new profit model, i.e., developing inland transportation services (including freight logistics and container tracking service).

Company Structure

The Company, founded in 2001, is a non-asset based global shipping and freight logistic integrated solution provider. We provide tailored solutions and value-added services for our customers to drive effectiveness and control in related aspects throughout the entire shipping and freight logistic chain. Our current service offerings consist of inland transportation management services, freight logistic services and container trucking services. We have temporarily suspended our shipping agency and ship management services primarily due to market condition changes. We have also temporarily suspended our shipping and chartering services, primarily because of the termination of our planned vessel acquisition in December 2015.

The Company conducts its business primarily through its wholly-owned subsidiaries in the PRC (including Hong Kong), Australia, Canada, and the U.S. (specifically, New York and Los Angeles). In the quarter ended March 31, 2017, ACH Trucking Center was been established as a joint venture in New York by the Company and Jetta Global. The Company owns 51% ownership of ACH Trucking Center.

Currently, the Company's inland transportation management services are operated by its subsidiaries in the PRC (including Hong Kong) and the U.S. Our freight logistic services are operated by the Company's subsidiaries in the PRC, New York and Los Angeles. Our container trucking services are mainly operated by our subsidiaries and joint venture company in the PRC, New York and Los Angeles.

Results of Operations

The Three Months Ended March 31, 2017 Compared to the Three Months Ended March 31, 2016

Revenues. Total revenues increased by $1,573,842, or 134.1%, from $1,173,769 for the three months ended March 31, 2016, to $2,747,611 for the same period in 2017. The increase was mainly due to the increased revenues generated from our inland transportation management services, freight logistic services and container trucking services, and was partially offset by the decrease in revenue from shipping agency and ship management services. The Company's main source of revenue has expanded since the third quarter of fiscal year 2016, and now includes not only revenues from inland transportation management services, but also from freight logistic services and container trucking services. We have expanded our business to provide freight logistic services in first quarter of fiscal year 2017, and first announced container trucking services as new segment in the second quarter of fiscal year 2017. The revenue generated by container trucking services in the third quarter of fiscal year 2017 has also trended positively. As a result, total revenues increased for the three months ended March 31, 2017, in comparison to the same period in 2016, despite the temporary suspension of our shipping agency and ship management services, as well as our shipping and chartering services.

Revenues

(1) Revenues from Shipping Agency and Ship Management Services

For the three months ended March 31, 2017 and 2016, our revenue generated from the shipping agency segment was nil and $232,901, respectively. The decline in revenues was mainly due to the decrease in the total number of ships the Company served from one ship for the three months ended March 31, 2016 to zero ships for the three months ended March 31, 2017. The decrease in the number of ships served for the three months ended March 31, 2017 was largely due to the general economic slow-down, the rising labor costs in the PRC and intense competition in the shipping industry, with established and new competitors offering rates that in many cases are lower than we can offer. Rising labor costs and increased overhead costs also reduced our profitability in this segment. However, we will resume providing shipping agency services once the shipping industry outlook turns positive.

We did not generate any revenue from the ship management service segment for the three months ended March 31, 2017 and 2016, as the management decided to temporarily suspend the ship management segment as of the beginning of fiscal year 2016.

(2) Revenues from Shipping and Chartering Services

In connection with the termination of the acquisition of Rong Yao International Shipping Limited (“Rong Yao”) on December 7, 2015, the Company realigned its development strategy and temporarily suspended shipping and chartering services. As a result, we did not report any revenue from this segment for the three months ended March 31, 2017 and 2016.

(3) Revenues from Inland Transportation Management Services

In September 2013, the Company executed an inland transportation management service contract with Zhiyuan Investment Group, a related party, whereby the Company is to provide certain solutions to help control potential commodities losses during the transportation process. The Company began to provide inland transportation management services to a third-party customer, Tengda Northwest Ferroalloy Co., Ltd. (“Tengda Northwest”), following the quarter ended September 2014. As a result, for the three months ended March 31, 2017 and 2016, inland transportation management services generated related party revenue of $762,777 and $556,948, respectively, and generated third party revenue of $771,063 and $383,920, respectively. For the three months ended March 31, 2017 and 2016, the gross profit amounted of $1,453,857 and $504,714, respectively. The increase in revenue from this segment is due to the significant increase in commodities transported by Tengda Northwest and Zhiyuan Investment Group during the three months ended March 31, 2017.

Overall gross margin for this segment increased to 94.8% for the three months ended March 31, 2017 from 53.6% for the three months ended March 31, 2016. The increase in gross margin is mainly due to:

Increased efficiency: When the Company acquires a new customer in this segment, much of the costs are incurred upfront where the Company uses its professional expertise to assist the customer in setting up efficient and sound 1) procedures and policies to minimize losses in the transportation process. Once the process is set up, additional cost will decrease as the Company only needs to monitor and improve the process during operations or to handle specific issues should those arise. Therefore gross margin for this segment is higher due to low marginal costs.

Increased volume: Due to the increase of price in Chrome ore and Chrome iron in the commodity market, our customers have more demand for shipments therefore increasing the volume of shipments we managed. As 2) discussed above, no substantial costs were incurred to handle the extra volume resulting in further increase of our gross margin.

(4) Revenues from Freight Logistic Services

After the Company formed the new subsidiary company, Sino-Global Shipping LA Inc., in January 2016, we began to provide freight logistic services, including cargo forwarding and truck transportation services. Since the first quarter of 2017, the portion of revenue generated by freight logistic service has increased significantly, so the Company now discloses related revenue as a separate business segment. The Company has signed agreements with LJC Trading New York Ltd., and Zhiyuan (Hong Kong) Chromium Group Co., non-related parties to provide freight logistic services.

Pursuant to the strategic cooperation agreement with COSCO Logistics, signed in July 2016, the Company's subsidiary in LA begin to provide freight logistic services to COSCO Logistics beginning in the third quarter of fiscal year 2017. These services include cargo forwarding, trucking and customs declaration and filing.

In the third quarter of fiscal year 2017, the Company entered an agreement with COSFRE Beijing pursuant to which the Company formed a new joint venture company, ACH Trucking Center, with Jetta Global to provide short-haul trucking transportation and freight logistics services to customers located in the New York and New Jersey areas. Revenue from ACH Trucking Center for this segment was $164,146 this quarter 2017.

Benefitting from the Company's new logistics platform, the strategic cooperation agreement with COSCO Logistics and the new joint venture, revenue from this segment contributed $0.83 million or about 30% of the Company's total revenue for this quarter. For the three months ended March 31, 2017, revenue generated from freight logistic services was $827,908, and related gross profit was $128,330.

(5) Revenues from Container Trucking Services

Since the second quarter of fiscal year 2017, the Company has provided container trucking services in the PRC, and began providing related services in the U.S. in the third quarter of fiscal year 2017. This new business segment is based on a modified and improved version of our freight logistic services business model. For the three months ended March 31, 2017, revenue generated from container trucking services increased by 141% from last quarter to $385,863, and the related gross profit was $33,211. Our Shanghai subsidiary has signed multiple shipping contracts this quarter including a service agreement with Shanghai International Port (Group) Co. Ltd, and has contributed majority of the increase in revenue.

Operating Costs and Expenses

Total Operating Costs and Expenses. Total operating costs and expenses decreased by $48,610, or 2.6%, from $1,834,509 for the three months ended March 31, 2016, to $1,785,899 for the three months ended March 31, 2017. This decrease was primarily due to the decrease in general and administrative expenses, and partially offset by the increase in cost of revenues and selling expenses, as discussed below.

The following table sets forth the components of the Company's costs and expenses for the periods indicated:

	For the three months ended March 31,
	2017		2016		Change
	US$	%	US$	%	US$	%
Revenues	2,747,611	100.0%	1,173,769	100.0%	1,573,842	134.1%
Cost of revenues	1,132,213	41.2 %	620,542	52.9 %	511,671	82.5 %
Gross margin	58.8	%	47.1	%	11.7	%
General and administrative expenses	612,441	22.3 %	1,190,614	101.4%	(578,173)	(48.6)%
Selling expenses	41,245	1.5 %	23,353	2.0 %	17,892	76.6 %
Total Costs and Expenses	1,785,899	65.0 %	1,834,509	156.3%	(48,610)	(2.6)%

Costs of Revenues

The Company's costs of revenue were $1,132,213 for the three months ended March 31, 2017, an increase of $511,671, or 82.5%, as compared to $620,542 for the three months ended March 31, 2016. The overall cost of revenues as a percentage of our revenues decreased from 52.9% for the three months ended March 31, 2016 to 41.2% for the three months ended March 31, 2017. The decrease in the overall cost of revenue in percentage terms for the three months ended March 31, 2017 was mainly because the majority of our revenue during the three months ended March 31, 2017 came from our more profitable inland transportation business lines rather than from our less profitable shipping agency service segment. As our revenue from shipping agency services has decreased to nil, our inland transportation management service and freight logistic services are now considered as our essential revenue sources.

General and Administrative Expenses

Our general and administrative expenses consist primarily of salaries and benefits, office rent, office expenses, regulatory filing and listing fees, amortization of stock-based compensation expenses, legal, accounting and other professional service fees. For the three months ended March 31, 2017, we had $612,441 of general and administrative expenses as compared to $1,190,614 for the three months ended March 31, 2016, a decrease of $578,173 or 48.6%. The decline was mainly due to more effective cost control procedures for labor expenses and travelling expenses, less recognition of stock-based compensation for common stock issued to consultants, less recognition of stock compensation for employees and fewer legal fees incurred, partially offset by the decrease in the reversal of bad debt expenses, during the three months ended March 31, 2017 compared to the same period in 2016. As a percentage of revenue, our general and administrative expenses decreased from 101.4% to 22.3% of revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2016 and 2017, respectively. This decrease was largely due to substantially increased revenue and decreased general and administrative expenses in the three months ended March 31, 2017, as compared to the same period of 2016.

Selling Expenses

The Company's selling expenses consist primarily of business development costs and salaries and commissions for our operating staff at the ports at which we provide services. For the three months ended March 31, 2017, we had $41,245 of selling expenses as compared to $23,353 for the three months ended March 31, 2016, an increase of $17,892 or 76.6%. As a percentage of revenue, our selling expenses decreased from 2.0% for the three months ended March 31, 2016, to 1.5% for the corresponding quarter in 2017. During the three months ended March 31, 2017, we increased our business development efforts to explore new business opportunities, while maintaining our current customer relationships.

Operating Income (Loss)

The Company's operating income was $961,712 for the three months ended March 31, 2017, compared to the operating loss of $660,740 for the comparable period ended March 31, 2016. The increase was mainly due to increased revenue generated from inland transportation management services with strong margin contributions, and the decline in general and administrative expenses as discussed above.

Financial Income, Net

The Company's net financial income was $34,167 for the three months ended March 31, 2017, compared to a net financial income of $61,183 for the same period of 2016. We have operations in the U.S., Canada, Australia, Hong Kong and the PRC, and our financial income for this reporting period mainly reflects the unrecognized foreign currency transaction income expressed in USD.

Taxation

The Company's income tax benefit was $303,196 for the three months ended March 31, 2017, compared to an income tax expense of $265,721 for the three months ended March 31, 2016. During the three months ended March 31, 2017, the amount of Federal Net Operating Losses ("NOL") utilized was $650,000, and the tax benefit derived from such NOL was $292,000; in the corresponding period for the three months ended March 31, 2016, the utilization of NOL was nil and no tax benefit was derived from NOL. During the three months ended March 31, 2017, the Company provided a 90% valuation allowance against the deferred tax assets and resulted in a tax benefit of $387,900; in the corresponding period of 2016, the Company provided a 100% valuation allowance against the deferred tax assets and no tax benefit was derived therefrom. The decrease in income tax expense was also attributable to a decrease in the taxable income of Trans Pacific during the three months ended March 31, 2017 in comparison to the same period in 2016.

Net Income (Loss)

As a result of the foregoing, the Company had net income of $1,299,075 for the three months ended March 31, 2017, compared to net loss of $854,876 for the three months ended March 31, 2016. After deduction of non-controlling interest, net income attributable to Sino-Global was $1,295,054 for the three months ended March 31, 2017, compared to net loss attributable to Sino-Global of $738,209 for the three months ended March 31, 2016. Including comprehensive income from foreign currency translation, comprehensive income attributable to the Company was $1,323,365 for the three months ended March 31, 2017, compared to a comprehensive loss of $721,084 for the three months ended March 31, 2016.

Nine months ended March 31, 2017 Compared to Nine months ended March 31, 2016

Revenues

Total revenues increased by $1,350,623 or 24.7%, from $5,469,938 for the nine months ended March 31, 2016 to $6,820,561 for the comparable period in 2017. The increase was mainly due to Company's efforts to diversify, resulting in the rise in revenues generated from our inland transportation management services, our freight logistic services segment since the first quarter of 2017, and container trucking services since the second quarter of fiscal year 2017. The increase is partially offset by the decreased revenue from shipping agency and ship management services segment due to the decrease in the number of ships served, and the decreased revenue from our shipping and chartering services segment as a result of the termination of a planned vessel acquisition.

Revenues

(1) Revenues from Shipping Agency and Ship Management Services

For the nine months ended March 31, 2017 and 2016, our revenue generated from the shipping agency segment was nil and $1,782,157, respectively. As the Company has noted on its annual report for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2016, management team decided to temporarily suspend the shipping agency services because the shipping industry is experiencing a downturn. The decline in revenues was mainly due to the decrease in the total number of ships the Company served from nineteen ships for the nine months ended March 31, 2016 to zero ship for the nine months ended March 31, 2017. The decrease in the number of ships served for the nine months ended March 31, 2017, was largely due to the general economic slow-down, the rising labor costs in the PRC and intense competition in the shipping industry, with established and new competitors offering rates that in many cases are lower than we can offer. Rising labor costs and increased overhead costs also reduced our profitability in this segment. However, we will resume providing shipping agency services once the shipping industry outlook turns positive.

We did not generate any revenue from the ship management services segment for the nine months ended March 31, 2017 and 2016 as management decided to temporary suspend the ship management business segment as of the beginning of fiscal year 2016.

(2) Revenues from Shipping and Chartering Services

In connection with the termination of acquisition of Rong Yao International Shipping Limited (“Rong Yao”) on December 7, 2015, the Company realigned its development strategy and temporarily suspended its shipping and chartering services. As a result, we reported nil and $462,218 in revenue from this segment for the nine months ended March 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively.

(3) Revenues from Inland Transportation Management Services

In September 2013, the Company executed an inland transportation management service contract with Zhiyuan Investment Group, a related party, whereby the Company agreed to provide certain solutions to help control the potential loss of commodities during the transportation process. The Company also began providing inland transportation management services to a third-party customer, Tengda Northwest, following the quarter ended September 2014. As a result, for the nine months ended March 31, 2017 and 2016, inland transportation management services generated related party revenue of $2,229,180 and $1,916,510, respectively, and generated revenue from third parties of $2,241,998 and $1,309,053, respectively. For the nine months ended March 31, 2017 and 2016, gross profit of inland transportation management services amounted of $4,199,394 and $2,297,717, respectively. The increase in total revenue from this segment is due to the increase in the amount of commodities transported by both Zhiyuan Investment Group and Tengda Northwest.

Overall gross margin for this segment increased to 93.9% for the nine months ended March 31, 2017 from 71.2 % for the nine months ended March 31, 2016. The increase in gross margin is mainly due to:

Increased efficiency: When the Company acquired a new customer in this segment, much of the cost was incurred upfront where the Company used its professional expertise to assist the customer in setting up efficient and sound 1) procedures and policies to minimize losses in the transportation process. Once the process was set up, marginal cost will decrease as the Company only needs to monitor and improve the process during operations or to handle specific issues should those arise.

Increased volume: Due to the increase of price in Chrome ore and Chrome iron in the commodity market, our customers have more demand for shipments therefore increasing the volume of shipments we managed. As 2) discussed above, no substantial costs were incurred to handle the extra volume resulting in further increase of our gross margin.

(4) Revenues from Freight Logistic Services

Since the Company formed our new subsidiary, Sino-Global Shipping LA, Inc., in January 2016, we began providing freight logistic services, including cargo forwarding and truck transportation services. During the nine month period ended March 31, 2017, the portion of revenues generated by freight logistic services has increased significantly, and the Company now discloses related revenue as a separate business segment. The Company has signed agreements with non-related parties LJC Trading New York Ltd. and Zhiyuan (Hong Kong) Chromium Group Co. to provide freight logistic services.

Pursuant to the strategic cooperation agreement with COSCO Logistics, signed in July 2016, Sino-Global Shipping LA, Inc. begin to provide logistic services to COSCO Logistics beginning in the third quarter of fiscal year 2017. These services include cargo forwarding, trucking and customs declaration and filing.

In the third quarter of 2017, the Company entered an agreement with COSFRE Beijing pursuant to which the Company formed a new joint venture company, ACH Trucking Center, with Jetta Global to provide short-haul trucking transportation and freight logistics services to customers located in the New York and New Jersey areas. Benefitting from the Company's new logistics platform, strategic cooperation with COSCO Logistics and the new joint venture, revenue generated from freight logistic services was $1,803,641, and related gross profit was $734,690 for the nine months ended March 31, 2017.

(5) Revenues from Container Trucking Services

Since the second quarter of fiscal year 2017, the Company has provided container trucking services in the PRC, and began providing related services in USA beginning in the third quarter of fiscal year 2017. This new business segment is based on a modified and improved version of our freight logistic services business segment. For the nine months ended March 31, 2017, revenue generated from container trucking services was $545,742 and related gross profit was $97,129.

Operating Costs and Expenses

Total operating costs and expenses decreased by $2,529,265 or 37.6%, from $6,720,681 for the nine months ended March 31, 2016 to $4,191,416 for the nine months ended March 31, 2017. This decrease was primarily due to the decrease in cost of revenues and general and administrative expenses partially offset by the increase in selling expenses, as discussed below.

The following table sets forth the components of the Company's costs and expenses for the periods indicated:

	For the nine months ended March 31,
	2017		2016		Change
	US$	%	US$	%	US$	%
Revenues	6,820,561	100.0%	5,469,938	100.0%	1,350,623	24.7 %

Gross margin	73.8	%	53.0	%	20.7	%
General and administrative expenses	2,248,639	33.0 %	4,084,858	74.7 %	(1,836,219)	(45.0)%
Selling expenses	153,429	2.2 %	67,478	1.2 %	85,951	127.4%
Total Costs and Expenses	4,191,416	61.6 %	6,720,681	122.9%	(2,529,265)	(37.6)%

Costs of Revenues

The cost of revenues was $1,789,348 for the nine months ended March 31, 2017, a decrease of $778,997, or 30.3%, as compared to $2,568,345 for the nine months ended March 31, 2016. The overall cost of revenues as a percentage of our revenues decreased from 47.0% for the nine months ended March 31, 2016, to 26.2% for the nine months ended March 31, 2017. The decrease in the overall costs of revenues in percentage terms for the nine months ended March 31, 2017, was mainly because the majority of our revenue during the nine months ended March 31, 2017 came from the more profitable inland transportation business lines and freight logistic services rather than the less profitable shipping agency service segment. Because revenue from shipping agency services has been decreased to nil, inland transportation management services and freight logistic services are now considered to be our essential revenue sources.

General and Administrative Expenses

Our general and administrative expenses consist primarily of salaries and benefits, office rent, office expenses, regulatory filing and listing fees, amortization of stock-based compensation expenses, legal, accounting and other professional service fees. For the nine months ended March 31, 2017, we had $2,248,639 of general and administrative expenses, as compared to $4,084,858 for the nine months ended March 31, 2016, a decrease of $1,836,219, or 45%. The decline was mainly due to more effective cost control procedures for labor expenses and travelling expenses, less recognition of stock-based compensation for common stock issued to consultants, less recognition of stock compensation for employees, a recovery of allowances for doubtful accounts, and fewer legal fees and meals and entertainment fees incurred during the three months ended March 31, 2017 compared to the corresponding period in 2016. As a result of the substantial reduction in general and administrative expenses and the increase in revenues, our general and administrative expenses, as a percentage of revenue, decreased from 74.7% for the nine months ended March 31, 2016 to 33% for the corresponding period in 2017.

Selling Expenses

The Company's selling expenses consist primarily of business development costs and salaries and commissions for our operating staff at the ports at which we provide services. For the nine months ended March 31, 2017, we had $153,429 of selling expenses as compared to $67,478 for the nine months ended March 31, 2016, an increase of $85,951, or 127.4%. As a percentage of revenue, our selling expenses increased from 1.2% for the nine months ended March 31, 2016, to 2.2% for the corresponding period in 2017. During the nine months ended March 31, 2017, we increased our business development efforts to explore new business opportunities, while maintaining our current customer relationships.

Operating Income (Loss)

The Company had an operating income of $2,629,145 for the nine months ended March 31, 2017, compared to an operating loss of $1,250,743 for the comparable period ended March 31, 2016. The increase was mainly due to increased revenue generated from inland transportation management services and freight logistic services with strong margin contributions, and the significant decline in general and administrative expenses discussed above.

Financial Expense, Net

The Company's net financial expense was $57,737 for the nine months ended March 31, 2017, compared to net financial expense of $251,800 for the same period of 2016. We have operations in the U.S., Canada, Australia, Hong Kong and the PRC, and our financial expense for this reporting period mainly reflects the unrecognized foreign currency transaction loss expressed in USD.

Taxation

The Company's income tax benefit was $158,184 for the nine months ended March 31, 2017, compared to income tax expense of $839,076 for the nine months ended March 31, 2016. During the nine months ended March 31, 2017, the amount of NOL utilized was $1,591,000 and the tax benefit derived from such NOL was $712,000; in the corresponding period for the nine months ended March 31, 2016, the utilization of NOL was nil and no tax benefit was derived from NOL. During the nine months ended March 31, 2017, the Company provided a 90% valuation allowance against the deferred tax assets and resulted in a tax benefit of $387,900; in the corresponding period of 2016, the Company provided a 100% valuation allowance against the deferred tax assets and no tax benefit was derived therefrom. The decrease in income tax expense was also attributable to a decrease in the taxable income of Trans Pacific during nine months ended March 31, 2017 in comparison to the same period in 2016.

Net Income (Loss)

As a result of the foregoing, the Company had net income of $2,729,592 for the nine months ended March 31, 2017, compared to a net loss of $2,335,838 for the nine months ended March 31, 2016. After the deduction of non-controlling interest, net income attributable to Sino-Global was $2,833,675 for the nine months ended March 31, 2017, compared to a net loss of $2,053,150 for the nine months ended March 31, 2016. Including comprehensive loss from foreign currency translation, comprehensive income attributable to the Company was $2,610,879 for the nine months ended March 31, 2017, compared to a comprehensive loss of $2,239,495 for the nine months ended March 31, 2016.

We finance our ongoing operating activities primarily by using funds from our operations. We routinely monitor current and expected operational requirements to evaluate the use of available funding sources. In assessing liquidity, management monitors and analyzes the Company's cash on-hand, its ability to generate sufficient revenue sources in the future and the Company's operating and capital expenditure commitments. The Company plans to fund continuing operations through identifying new prospective joint venture and strategic alliance opportunities for new revenue sources, and by reducing costs to improve profitability and replenish working capital. Considering our existing working capital position and our ability to access other funding sources, management believes that the foregoing measures will provide sufficient liquidity for the Company to meet its future liquidity and capital obligations.

Operating Activities

Our net cash derived from operating activities was $3,131,772 for the nine months ended March 31, 2017, including net income of $2.73 million from increased revenue generated from inland transportation management services, freight logistics services with strong margin contributions and decreased general and administrative expenses. In addition, advances to suppliers decreased significantly by $0.82 million because we received certain freight services regarding to our prepayments pursuant to our Memorandum of Understanding with Singapore Metals & Minerals Pte Ltd. and Galasi Jernsiah Sdn BHD. Moreover, accounts receivable decreased by $0.52 million, as a result of our strengthened cash collection efforts and payments received from Tengda Northwest, our major third-party customer for inland transportation management services. However, due from related parties increased by $2.84 million because of the Cooperative Transportation Agreement was signed with Zhiyuan International Investment & Holding Group (Hong Kong) Co., Ltd. (“Zhiyuan Hong Kong”), a related party, pursuant to which we advanced transportation payments of approximately $3.21 million during the nine months ended March 31, 2017. This increase in due from related parties was partially offset by the cash collections received from Zhiyuan Investment Group, another related party, in the reporting period. Cash inflows from operating activities for the nine months ended March 31, 2017 reflect the above mentioned factors.

Net cash provided by operating activities was $2,471,000 for the nine months ended March 31, 2016, which included our operating loss of $2.34 million due to our decreased revenues and increased general and administrative expenses. In addition, the accounts receivable decreased by $1.15 million because we received payment of RMB13.4 million (USD$2.1 million) from Tengda Northwest, our major third-party customer of inland transportation management services, and due from related parties decreased by $1.72 million because we collected RMB22.1 million (USD$3.45million) from related party customer Zhiyuan Hong Kong. On the other hand, the taxes payable increased by $0.74 million due to increased taxable income from inland transportation management services provided to both Zhiyuan Hong Kong and Tengda Northwest, however the increase in tax payable was partially offset by a decrease in accounts payable of $0.38 million because the Company made the payment to settle the outstanding port charges upon receipt of the invoices. The Company's cash inflows from the operating activities for the nine months ended March 31, 2016 reflected the above mentioned factors.

Investing Activities

The Company's net cash used in investing activities was $55,474 for the nine months ended March 31, 2017 compared to net cash provided by investing activities of $308,908 for the same period of 2016. For the nine months ended March 31, 2017, we purchased a vehicle in the amount of $55,474. For the nine months ended March 31, 2016, the amount was mainly generated by cash collection from the termination of our $332,413 vessel acquisition during the nine months ended March 31, 2016.

Financing Activities

The Company's net cash derived from financing activities was $4,402,488 for the nine months ended March 31, 2017, while it was $648,149 for the nine months ended March 31, 2016. During the nine months ended March 31, 2017, 75,000 shares of 150,000 stock options were exercised by the two employees of the Company with an exercise price of $1.10. As a result, net proceeds of $82,500 were recognized as net proceeds from exercise of stock options by the Company. In addition, the Company received net proceeds in the amount of $4,319,988 from a registered direct sale of 1.5 million shares of its common stock to three institutional investors.

In the corresponding period of 2016, $691,600 was proceeds from the issuance of common stock to Mr. Weixiong Yang in a private sale transaction on July 10, 2015, and the Company's repurchase of 48,106 shares of common stock recorded as treasury stock which were cancelled subsequently, for a purchase price of $43,451.

Critical Accounting Policies

We prepare our unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements in accordance with US GAAP. These accounting principles require us to make judgments, estimates and assumptions on the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the end of each fiscal period, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during each fiscal period. We continually evaluate these judgments and estimates based on our own historical experience, knowledge and assessment of current business and other conditions, our expectations regarding the future based on available information and assumptions that we believe to be reasonable.

There have been no other material changes during the nine months ended March 31, 2017 in our significant accounting policies from those previously disclosed in the Company's annual report for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2016.

The selection of critical accounting policies, the judgments and other uncertainties affecting application of those policies and the sensitivity of reported results to changes in conditions and assumptions are factors that should be considered when reviewing our financial statements. We believe the following accounting policies involve the most significant judgments and estimates used in the preparation of our unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements.

Revenue Recognition

Revenues from shipping agency services are recognized upon completion of services, which coincides with the date of departure of the relevant vessel from port. Advance payments and deposits received from customers prior to the provision of services and recognition of the related revenues are presented as advances from customers.

Revenues from shipping and chartering services are recognized upon performance of services as stipulated in the underlying contracts.

Revenues from inland transportation management services are recognized when commodities are being released from the customer's warehouse.

Revenues from ship management services are recognized when the related contractual services are rendered.

Revenues from freight logistic services are recognized when the related contractual services are rendered.

Revenues from container trucking services are recognized when the related contractual services are rendered.

Basis of Consolidation

The Company's unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the parent, its subsidiaries and its affiliates. All inter-company transactions and balances are eliminated in consolidation. Sino-Global Shipping Agency Ltd. ("Sino-China") is considered to be a Variable Interest Entity (VIE) and the Company is the primary beneficiary. Because of the contractual arrangements, the Company had a pecuniary interest in Sino-China that requires consolidation of our and Sino-China's financial statements. The accounts of Sino-China are consolidated in the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements pursuant to Accounting Standard Codification ("ASC") 810-10, "Consolidation". As a VIE, Sino-China's revenues are included in our total revenues, its net loss from operations is consolidated with our net income (loss) before non-controlling interest. Our non-controlling interest in its net loss is then subtracted in calculating the net income attributable to the Company. The Company temporarily suspended its business with Sino-China in June 2014, therefore, there is no net income generated by Sino-China in the present.

Use of Estimates and Assumptions

The preparation of the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the dates of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting periods. Estimates are adjusted to reflect actual experience when necessary. Significant accounting estimates reflected in the Company's unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements include revenue recognition, fair value of stock based compensation, cost of revenues, allowance for doubtful accounts, deferred income taxes, and the useful lives of property and equipment. Since the use of estimates is an integral component of the financial reporting process, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are recognized at net realizable value. The Company maintains allowances for doubtful accounts for estimated losses resulting from the failure of customers to make required payments in the relevant time period. Management reviews the accounts receivable on a periodic basis and record general and specific allowances when there is doubt as to the collectability of individual balances. In evaluating the collectability of individual receivable balances, we consider many factors, including the age of the balance, the customer's historical payment history, its current credit-worthiness and current economic trends. Receivables are considered past due after 365 days. Accounts are written off against the allowance only after exhaustive collection efforts.

Off-Balance Sheet Commitments and Arrangements

We have not entered into any financial guarantees or other commitments to guarantee the payment obligations of any third parties. We have not entered into any derivative contracts that are indexed to our shares and classified as shareholders' equity or that are not reflected in our condensed consolidated financial statements. Furthermore, we do not have any retained or contingent interest in assets transferred to an unconsolidated entity that serve as credit, liquidity or market risk support to such entity. We do not have any variable interest in any unconsolidated entity that provides financing, liquidity, market risk or credit support to us or engages in leasing, hedging or research and development services with us.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

This item is not applicable because we are a smaller reporting company.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

The Company maintains controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports that it files or submits under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”) is recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission’s rules and forms. Disclosure controls and procedures include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by an issuer in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to the Company’s management, including its principal executive and principal financial officers, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

As of March 31, 2017, the Company carried out an evaluation, under the supervision of and with the participation of its management, including the Company’s Chief Executive Officer and Acting Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company’s disclosure controls and procedures. Based on the foregoing evaluation, Chief Executive Officer and Acting Chief Financial Officer concluded that the Company’s disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Exchange Act were not effective to ensure that the information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports it files or submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the applicable rules and forms due to ineffective internal controls over financial reporting that stemmed from the fact that we do not have any full-time accounting personnel who have U.S. GAAP expertise to monitor the recording of transactions.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting.

There were no changes in the Company’s internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) of the Exchange Act) during the three months ended March 31, 2017, that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company’s internal control over financial reporting.
