Edgar Filing: CHINA SOUTHERN AIRLINES CO LTD - Form 6-K

PARTIES:

- (i) the Company; and
- (ii) Harbin Embraer, a joint venture company established in the PRC, which is an independent third party and not a connected person (as defined in the Listing Rules) of the Company

AIRCRAFT TO BE ACQUIRED:

Six EMB-145LR aircraft

CONSIDERATION:

The net tangible assets of the Company as published in its latest annual report for the year ended December 31, 2002 are RMB9,613,207,000.

According to the information provided by Harbin Embraer, the catalog price of a EMB-145LR aircraft is approximately US$20,100,000.

The aggregate consideration is payable wholly in cash and is determined after arm's length negotiation between the parties.

NATURE OF THE TRANSACTION:

Pursuant to a waiver dated March 22, 2002 granted by the Stock Exchange, a summary of which is set out in the Company's announcement dated March 25, 2002, instead of the net asset test and consideration test under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules, in respect of the Company, the tests for determining notifiable transactions (except for connected transactions or share transactions) of the Company may be calculated by reference to the ATKs for aircraft being acquired by the Company as compared to the Company's aggregate fleet ATKs.

The total ATKs for EMB Aircraft, when aggregated with the ATKs for all aircraft acquired by the Company during the last 12 months, represent approximately 7.68% of the Company's aggregate fleet ATKs. The Transaction therefore does not constitute a discloseable transaction of the Company.

REASONS FOR AND BENEFITS OF THE TRANSACTION:

The Company's principal business is that of civil aviation. The Directors believe that the acquisition of EMB Aircraft, together with the proposed acquisition of Airbus Aircraft, will further expand the flight service network and operating capacity of the Company, thereby enhancing its ability to compete significantly in the industry.
