We are furnishing presentation materials, included as Exhibit 99.1 to this report, which we are using during investor meetings in November and December 2005. #### Caution Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This news release contains historical information as well as forward-looking statements that are based upon our estimates and anticipation of future events that are subject to certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to vary materially from the expected results described in the forward-looking statements. The words “anticipate,” “believe,” “estimate,” “expect,” “hopeful,” “intend,” “may,” “optimistic,” “preliminary,” “project,” “should,” “will,” and other expressions are intended to identify these forward-looking statements. There are numerous important factors that could cause our actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. Thus, sentences and phrases that we use to convey our view of future events and trends are expressly designated as “forward-looking statements” as are sections of this news release clearly identified as giving our outlook on future business. The principal risk factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements are described in various documents we file with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including Form 10K/A for the year ended December 31, 2004 and Form 10Q for the most recent quarter. These forward-looking statements are subject to significant risks, assumptions and uncertainties, including, among other things, the following important factors that could affect the actual outcome of future events. Regarding the sale of our personal lines subsidiary, MEEMIC Insurance Company and its internal agency, we would add the following Cautions to those included in our filings with the SEC:

- The transaction may not occur as expected or it may take longer to accomplish than we expect;
- governmental approvals of the transaction may not be obtained, or adverse regulatory conditions may be imposed in connection with governmental approvals of the transaction;
- the sale is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions which are beyond the control of ProAssurance; and
- the distribution of proceeds arising from the sale to ProAssurance may not be approved by governmental authorities, or such approval may be for an amount less than requested.

We urge you not to place undue reliance on any such forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date made, and wish to advise readers that the factors listed above could affect our financial performance and could cause actual results for future periods to differ materially from any opinions or statements expressed with respect to periods in any current statements. We do not undertake and specifically decline any obligation to publicly release the result of any revisions that may be made to any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of such statements or to reflect the occurrence of anticipated or unanticipated events.
