Taro Provides Estimates for 2005 Sales and Net Income and Will Restate 2003 and 2004 Results; Non-Cash Adjustments to 2003 and 2004 Will Reflect New Information Used in Estimating Accounts Receivable Reserves

HAWTHORNE, N.Y.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--June 22, 2006--Taro Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. (NASDAQ: TARO) today said that it expects to report 2005 sales in a range of approximately $295 million to $305 million, and net income in a range of approximately $14.0 million to $16.0 million. These estimates are subject to change pending completion of the audit of 2005 results. Although Taro does not ordinarily provide estimates or guidance on earnings, the Company is making an exception in light of the extended period for completion of its 2005 audit.

The Company had previously reported that during its 2005 audit process, its independent outside auditors were conducting additional work related to how the Company estimated its accounts receivable reserves. During this time, the Company received additional information, previously unavailable to the Company, from certain principal customers which is now being used to revise its estimates of the Company's accounts receivable reserves for prior years. These adjustments will result in a restatement of financial results for 2003 and 2004.

Restatement of 2003 and 2004 Results

Based upon the additional information, Taro's 2003 opening balances for net accounts receivable will be reduced by approximately $45.0 - 48.0 million. Sales and pre-tax income for 2003 will each be reduced by approximately $37.0 - 40.0 million. Sales and pre-tax income for 2004 will each be reduced by approximately $8.0 - 11.0 million.

As a result of these adjustments to accounts receivable reserves, the Company will also fully reserve for its deferred tax assets. Including this reserve for taxes, the 2003 opening balance for retained earnings will be reduced by approximately $56.0 - 60.0 million, the net income for 2003 will be reduced by approximately $28.0 - 30.0 million, and the net income for 2004 will be reduced by approximately $28.0 - 30.0 million.

All of these estimates are subject to change pending completion of the 2005 audit.

The Company is seeking to complete the restatement and finalize the audit of its 2005 financial statements as soon as possible. Given the steps which must be taken, the Company does not believe it will be in a position to file its Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2005 by June 30, 2006, but believes that it may be able to file within the 15-day automatic extension period. The Company intends to make an update announcement regarding the timing of its Form 20-F filing and to report its earnings for 2005 upon completion of the audit of its 2005 financial statements. The inability to provide 2005 audited financial statements to date is resulting in the Company not being in compliance with certain reporting obligations in certain of its debt instruments, which the Company is discussing with its lenders. While no assurances can be given, based in part on such discussions, on the circumstances giving rise to the delay and on the estimated financial impact of the anticipated adjustments, the Company believes it will be able to resolve any non-compliance issues with its lenders without any material adverse effects.

Taro is a multinational, science-based pharmaceutical company dedicated to meeting the needs of its customers through the discovery, development, manufacturing and marketing of the highest quality healthcare products.
