Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 1, 2011 (the “Closing Date”) the registrant and its Swiss subsidiary, 3D Systems SA (“3D Switzerland”), acquired certain assets from Huntsman Advanced Materials Americas LLC (“Huntsman U.S.”) and Huntsman Advanced Materials (Switzerland) GmbH (“Huntsman Switzerland”), subsidiaries of Huntsman Corporation (including its consolidated subsidiaries, “Huntsman”). These assets included Huntsman’s RenShape® stereolithography print materials and its Digitalis® rapid manufacturing 3D printer product line. The acquisition of the print materials complements the registrant’s print materials product offering while the acquisition of the 3D printer product line adds an additional print engine to the registrant’s printer family. This asset acquisition also expands the registrant’s intellectual property portfolio in both 3D printer and materials technology. The acquisition of these assets was consummated pursuant to an Asset Purchase Agreement (the “Asset Purchase Agreement”), dated as of November 1, 2011, by and among the registrant and 3D Switzerland as the buyers (the “Buyers”) and Huntsman U.S. and Huntsman Switzerland as the sellers (the “Sellers”). Neither of the Sellers was a party to any relationship or transaction with the registrant, any director or officer of the registrant or any associate of any such director or officer prior to the acquisition. In accordance with the Asset Purchase Agreement, on the Closing Date, the Buyers paid a purchase price to the Sellers of $41 million in cash. The purchase price was paid from the registrant’s available consolidated cash and cash equivalents.

The board of directors of the registrant approved the acquisition.

The Asset Purchase Agreement contains customary covenants, representations and warranties. The Sellers have agreed to non-competition and non-solicitation obligations relating to product line customers and suppliers that will be effective until November 1, 2016.

The Sellers agreed, jointly and severally, in the Asset Purchase Agreement to indemnify the Buyers and their affiliates against losses suffered by the Buyers and/or their affiliates resulting from, among other things, a breach of any representation or warranty made by the Sellers in the Asset Purchase Agreement and certain other breaches or failures to perform under the Asset Purchase Agreement, subject to certain de minimis, deductible, maximum liability and time limitations.

The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Asset Purchase Agreement were made only for purposes of the Asset Purchase Agreement and were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Asset Purchase Agreement, and may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures exchanged between the parties in connection with the execution of the Asset Purchase Agreement. The representations and warranties may have been made for the purpose of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Asset Purchase Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality or knowledge applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely upon the representations, warranties, or covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Sellers, the registrant, 3D Switzerland or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Asset Purchase Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the registrant’s public disclosures.

The foregoing description of certain terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Acquisition Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Item 2.01. Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.
