Subject Company: BBX Capital Corporation

Commission File No.: 001-13133

On November 10, 2016, BBX Capital Corporation commenced the mailing of the following materials to its shareholders of record as of November 3, 2016.

401 East Las Olas Boulevard, Suite 800

Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33301

November 10, 2016

Dear Shareholder:

The enclosed materials are being sent to you in connection with (i) the election of the type of consideration that you wish to receive pursuant to the proposed merger (the "Merger") of BBX Capital Corporation ("BBX Capital") and BFC Financial Corporation ("BFC") as well as (ii) the waiver and release being sought from BBX Capital's shareholders as a condition to closing the Merger.

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement between the companies (the “Merger Agreement”), BBX Capital’s shareholders (other than BFC and shareholders who exercise and perfect their appraisal rights in accordance with Florida law) will have the right to receive, in exchange for each share of BBX Capital’s Class A Common Stock that they own at the effective time of the merger, at their election, $20.00 in cash, without interest, or 5.4 shares of BFC’s Class A Common Stock. BBX Capital’s shareholders may specify different elections for different shares of BBX Capital’s Class A Common Stock that they own. Accordingly, BBX Capital’s shareholders may receive all stock consideration, all cash consideration, or a mix of stock and cash consideration in exchange for their shares. Each choice is more fully described in the enclosed materials.

Based on the anticipated closing of the Merger on December 15, 2016, the deadline to submit Election Forms and Letters of Transmittal will be 5:00 p.m., New York Time, on December 13, 2016. If the closing of the Merger is delayed to a subsequent date, the election deadline will be similarly delayed to a subsequent date (which will be the second business day prior to the new closing date of the Merger or such other time as mutually agreed by BFC and BBX Capital), and the companies will promptly announce any such delay and, when determined, the new election deadline. If you hold your shares in “street name” through a bank, broker or other nominee, you will need to make your election through that broker, bank or other nominee, and you therefore may be subject to an earlier deadline. You should contact your broker, bank or other nominee promptly for information on how and when you must give them instructions for your election.

Consummation of the Merger is conditioned upon approval of the Merger Agreement by holders of shares of BBX Capital’s Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock representing a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the Merger Agreement and by the holders of a majority of the shares of BBX Capital’s Class A Common Stock voted on the Merger Agreement, excluding the shares voted by BFC and its affiliates. To ensure that your shares are represented at the special meeting of BBX Capital’s shareholders to be held for the purpose of voting on the Merger Agreement, please take a moment now to vote your shares. The proxy card for use in voting your shares or a voting instruction card from your broker, bank or other nominee was included with the Proxy Statement/Prospectus (as defined below) previously sent to you.

In addition to the required approval of BBX Capital's shareholders, consummation of the merger is subject to a number of other conditions, including (i) unless waived by BFC, that holders of not more than 150,000 shares of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock duly and validly exercise, or remain entitled to exercise immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, appraisal rights, and (ii) unless waived by BFC and BBX Capital, (A) the resolution of any litigation or threatened litigation against the companies or their affiliates relating to the Merger to the satisfaction of BFC and BBX Capital or (B) the receipt by BBX Capital of executed waivers and releases from unaffiliated holders of at least 2,250,000 shares of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock irrevocably waiving the right to participate in, or receive any proceeds from, any shareholder class action lawsuit relating to the Merger and releasing and discharging BFC, BBX Capital, Merger Sub (as defined in the Merger Agreement), the Surviving Company (as defined in the Merger Agreement) and each of their respective officers, directors, employees, members, managers and other affiliates from any and all claims, demands, controversies, causes of action, obligations, liabilities, costs, expenses, fees and damages arising out of the Merger Agreement other than in connection with the exercise of appraisal rights or any failure to pay or issue to the shareholder the stock consideration and/or cash consideration to which the shareholder is entitled pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement. A copy of the waiver and release being sought from BBX Capital's shareholders, which contains instructions for submitting the waiver and release, is included as part of this mailing.

Additional information about the Merger Agreement and the Merger, including information on how to vote your shares, is included in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus of BFC and BBX Capital, dated November 4, 2016 (the "Proxy Statement/Prospectus"), previously mailed to you.

If you have questions about the merger or the election or voting process, please contact the information agent for the merger, Georgeson LLC, toll-free at (888) 624-7035.

Very truly yours,

Jarett S. Levan

ELECTION OPTIONS

You may hereby make ONE of the following elections: (1) you may elect to receive the Stock Consideration of 5.4 shares of BFC's Class A Common Stock for each share of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock as consideration with respect to all of your shares of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock by checking the "STOCK CONSIDERATION ELECTION" box; (2) you may elect to receive the Cash Consideration of $20.00 in cash, without interest, for each share of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock as consideration with respect to all of your shares of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock by checking the "CASH CONSIDERATION ELECTION" box; or (3) you may elect to receive a combination of Stock Consideration and Cash Consideration by checking the "MIXED CONSIDERATION ELECTION" box and specifying the number of shares of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock with respect to which you elect to receive Stock Consideration and the number of shares of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock with respect to which you elect to receive Cash Consideration. Please carefully review the General Instructions enclosed with this Election Form and Letter of Transmittal and select ONLY ONE of the three election options below by placing an X in the box to the left of your chosen election. If you do not select any election or if you do not otherwise validly and timely complete, execute and deliver to the Exchange Agent this Election Form and Letter of Transmittal and all other required documentation and materials, you will be deemed to have made no election. Other than Dissenting Shareholders, shareholders who do not make a valid election will be entitled to receive solely Cash Consideration with respect to their shares of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock.

STOCK CONSIDERATION ELECTION—You elect to receive Stock Consideration with respect to ALL of your shares of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock (5.4 shares of BFC's Class A Common Stock for each share of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock).

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR BBX CAPITAL
ELECTION FORM AND LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

(Please read carefully the instructions below)

1. Introduction

On July 27, 2016, BFC Financial Corporation (“BFC”), BBX Capital Merger Subsidiary LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of BFC (“Merger Sub”), and BBX Capital Corporation (“BBX Capital”) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (as amended on October 20, 2016, the “Merger Agreement”) which provides for BBX Capital to be merged with and into Merger Sub (the “Merger”), with Merger Sub surviving the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of BFC. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, BBX Capital’s shareholders (other than BFC and shareholders who exercise and perfect their appraisal rights in accordance with Florida law (“Dissenting Shareholders”)) will have the right to receive, in consideration for each share of BBX Capital’s Class A Common Stock they own at the effective time of the Merger, at their election, $20.00 in cash, without interest (the “Cash Consideration”), or 5.4 shares of BFC’s Class A Common Stock (the “Stock Consideration”). The Cash Consideration and Stock Consideration are referred to together as the “Merger Consideration.” BBX Capital’s shareholders may specify different elections for different shares of BBX Capital’s Class A Common Stock that they own. Accordingly, BBX Capital’s shareholders may receive all Cash Consideration, all Stock Consideration, or a mix of Cash Consideration and Stock Consideration in exchange for their shares.

Included with these General Instructions is an Election Form and Letter of Transmittal that you must complete, sign and return to Computershare Trust Company, N.A. (the “Exchange Agent”) in order to make your election. The Election Form and Letter of Transmittal permits you to specify the type of Merger Consideration that you desire to receive in exchange for your shares. FOR YOUR ELECTION TO BE EFFECTIVE, THE EXCHANGE AGENT MUST RECEIVE YOUR COMPLETED AND EXECUTED ELECTION FORM AND LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL, TOGETHER WITH ALL OTHER REQUIRED DOCUMENTS AND MATERIALS, AT THE APPLICABLE ADDRESS OF THE EXCHANGE AGENT SET FORTH ON THE ELECTION FORM AND LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL PRIOR TO THE ELECTION DEADLINE (AS DEFINED BELOW) (SEE INSTRUCTION 2).

A more detailed description of the Merger Agreement and of the election procedures is included in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus of BFC and BBX Capital, dated November 4, 2016 (the “Proxy Statement/Prospectus”), which has been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and mailed to you under separate cover. Before making your election, you should read the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, including all of its annexes, as well as the documents incorporated by reference into the Proxy Statement/Prospectus. The Merger Agreement is included as Annex A to the Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

The tax consequences to you of the Merger and the election you make will depend on your own situation. You are urged to consult your own tax advisor as to the U.S. Federal income tax consequences of the Merger and the election you make, as well as the effects of state, local and non-U.S. tax laws.

Please read and follow carefully these General Instructions regarding completion of the Election Form and Letter of Transmittal. These General Instructions, including the terms and conditions set forth herein, are considered part of the Election Form and Letter of Transmittal.

If you hold your shares in “street name” through a bank, broker or other nominee, you will need to make your election through that broker, bank or other nominee, and therefore may be subject to an earlier deadline. You should contact your broker, bank or other nominee promptly for information on how and when you must give them instructions for your election.

Your submission of an Election Form and Letter of Transmittal does NOT constitute a vote for the approval of the Merger Agreement. You may submit an Election Form and Letter of Transmittal even if you have voted, or plan on voting, against the approval of the Merger Agreement, and must submit an Election Form and Letter of Transmittal if you would like to receive any Stock Consideration in exchange for your shares. In order to vote your shares of BBX Capital’s Class A Common Stock for or against the approval of the Merger Agreement, you must follow the voting procedures described in the Proxy

2. Delivery Instructions and Election Deadline

For any election to be valid, the Election Form and Letter of Transmittal, properly completed and signed, must be returned to the Exchange Agent, together with all required documents and materials, either by mail or by overnight courier, at the appropriate address of the Exchange Agent set forth on the front of the Election Form and Letter of Transmittal. You are solely responsible for delivery of the Election Form and Letter of Transmittal and any other documents required hereby to the Exchange Agent. Delivery of the Election Form and Letter of Transmittal to an address other than as set forth on the Election Form and Letter of Transmittal will NOT constitute a valid delivery to the Exchange Agent.

Election Forms and Letters of Transmittal must be received by the Exchange Agent no later than the election deadline (the "Election Deadline"), which will be 5:00 p.m., New York time, on the second business day prior to the effective time of the Merger. BFC and BBX Capital will publicly announce the anticipated Election Deadline at least five business days prior to the Election Deadline. If the effective time of the Merger is delayed to a subsequent date, the Election Deadline will be similarly delayed to a subsequent date (which will be the second business day prior to the new effective time of the Merger or such other time as mutually agreed by BFC and BBX Capital), and the companies will promptly announce any such delay and, when determined, the new Election Deadline.

Please allow ample time for delivery of your Election Form and Letter of Transmittal. If you hold your shares in "street name" through a bank, broker or other nominee, you may have to allow additional time in order to make a timely election.

Any shares of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock for which the Exchange Agent does not receive a properly completed and executed Election Form and Letter of Transmittal by the Election Deadline will be deemed to be shares in respect of which no election has been made. Other than Dissenting Shareholders, BBX Capital shareholders will be entitled to receive solely Cash Consideration with respect to his, her or its shares of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock for which no election has been made or for which no election has been deemed to be made.

No stop transfer instructions may be outstanding against any of the shares subject to such certificate(s) or confirmation of book-entry transfer. If you provide the certificate(s) evidencing your shares of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock or confirmation of book-entry transfer, you (i) represent that you have full authority to surrender without restriction such shares to the Exchange Agent for exchange and (ii) subject to the closing of the Merger and the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, surrender without restriction such shares to the Exchange Agent for exchange.

That replacement certificate will then be required to be timely submitted together with the Election Form and Letter of Transmittal and any other required documents in order for your election to be valid. You may be required to post a bond to secure against the risk that the certificates may be subsequently recirculated. An Election Form and Letter of Transmittal cannot be processed until a replacement certificate for a lost, stolen, misplaced or destroyed certificate has been submitted.

4. Termination of Merger Agreement

In the event of termination of the Merger Agreement, the Exchange Agent will promptly return stock certificates representing shares of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock via registered mail or through a book-entry transfer for shares held in street name. The Exchange Agent and BBX Capital will use their commercially reasonable efforts to facilitate return of BBX Capital stock certificates in the event of termination of the Merger Agreement, but the return of certificates other than by registered mail will only be made at the expense, written direction and risk of the requesting shareholder, accompanied by a pre-paid, pre-addressed return courier envelope sent to the Exchange Agent.

Do not send them to BFC or BBX Capital. The method of delivery (mail or overnight courier) of stock certificate(s), confirmation of book-entry transfer or Notice of Guaranteed Delivery, as applicable, to the Exchange Agent at the appropriate address of the Exchange Agent set forth on the front of the Election Form and Letter of Transmittal is at the option and risk of the surrendering shareholder. If the election is not for the account of a member of an Eligible Institution, a signature guarantee must be completed by an Eligible Institution. The signature of a notary public is not sufficient for this purpose.

9. Notice of Guaranteed Delivery

In order for an election to be effective, a properly completed Election Form and Letter of Transmittal, together with the stock certificate(s) representing the shares covered thereby or confirmation of delivery in book-entry form (in each case, unless delivery is guaranteed as described below), must be received by the Exchange Agent by no later than the Election Deadline. Persons to whom stock certificate(s) or confirmations of delivery of shares in book-entry form are not immediately available also may make an election by completing the Election Form and Letter of Transmittal, with the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery properly completed and duly executed by an Eligible Institution, and submitting it to the Exchange Agent by the Election Deadline. Any such election is subject to the condition that the stock certificate(s) or confirmation of book-entry delivery, the delivery of which is guaranteed by such completion and due execution, are in fact delivered to the Exchange Agent no later than 5:00 p.m., New York time, on the third business day after the Election Deadline (the "Guaranteed Delivery Deadline"). Elections made with respect to stock certificate(s) or shares delivered in book-entry form that are received after the Guaranteed Delivery Deadline will not be valid.

10. IRS form W-9

Under U.S. Federal income tax law, a non-exempt shareholder is required to provide the Exchange Agent with such shareholder's correct Taxpayer Identification Number ("TIN") on the enclosed IRS Form W-9. If the certificate(s) is in more than one name or is not in the name of the actual owner, consult the instructions in the enclosed IRS Form W-9 for additional guidance on which number to report. Failure to provide the information on the form may subject the surrendering shareholder to 28% back-up withholding on the payment of any cash. The surrendering shareholder must write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN if a TIN has not been issued and the shareholder has applied for a number or intends to apply for a number in the near future. If a TIN has been applied for and the Exchange Agent is not provided with a TIN before payment is made, the Exchange Agent will withhold 28% on all payments to such surrendering shareholders of any Cash Consideration in exchange for their shares. Please review the instructions in the enclosed IRS Form W-9 for additional details of what TIN to give the Exchange Agent. Exempt shareholders (including, among others, all C corporations and certain foreign individuals) are not subject to these backup withholding requirements. To prevent possible erroneous backup withholding, an exempt shareholder should indicate their exempt status on the IRS Form W-9. See the instructions in the enclosed IRS Form W-9 for additional instructions. In order for a nonresident alien or foreign entity to qualify as exempt from U.S. Federal withholding tax and backup withholding, such person must submit an appropriate IRS Form W-8 signed under penalties of perjury attesting to such exempt status. Such form can be obtained from the Exchange Agent or from the IRS's website at www.irs.gov.

11. Non-Electing Holders

BBX Capital shareholders who fail to make a valid election, including shareholders who do not validly and timely complete, execute and deliver to the Exchange Agent this Election Form and Letter of Transmittal and all other required documentation and materials, will be deemed not to have made an election. Other than Dissenting Shareholders, BBX Capital shareholders will be entitled to receive solely Cash Consideration with respect to his, her or its shares of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock for which no election has been made or for which no election has been deemed to be made. Any BBX Capital shareholder who seeks to exercise appraisal rights but who withdraws or loses his, her or its appraisal rights under the Florida Business Corporation Act and who does not make a valid election prior to the Election Deadline will be deemed to not have made an election with respect to his, her or its shares and, accordingly, will only have the right to the receive Cash Consideration in exchange for his, her or its shares of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock.

Corporate Actions Voluntary COY: BFCC

12. No Fractional Shares

BBX Capital shareholders who elect to receive Stock Consideration will not receive any fractional shares of BFC's Class A Common Stock. Instead, the aggregate number of shares of BFC's Class A Common Stock to be issued to each shareholder of BBX Capital who elects to receive Stock Consideration will be rounded up to the next largest whole share.

13. Revocation or Change of Election Form and Letter of Transmittal

Any Election Form and Letter of Transmittal may be revoked or changed by written notice from the person submitting such form to the Exchange Agent, but, to be effective, such notice must be received by the Exchange Agent at or prior to the Election Deadline. Such notice must specify the person in whose name the election to be revoked has been submitted, the name of the registered holder thereof and the numbers shown on the certificate(s) or book-entry transfer representing the shares subject to the election being revoked. In the event that a Election Form and Letter of Transmittal is revoked, the shares of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock as to which an election was made in such Election Form and Letter of Transmittal will be treated as shares in respect of which no election has been made, except to the extent a subsequent election is properly made by the holder of such shares prior to the Election Deadline.

To change your election, you must revoke your election in accordance with the procedures set forth in the previous paragraph and deliver to the Exchange Agent a new Election Form and Letter of Transmittal. The new Election Form and Letter of Transmittal must be received by the Exchange Agent prior to the Election Deadline and must otherwise comply with, and will be subject to the terms and conditions of, the Election Form and Letter of Transmittal (except for in relation to the delivery of previously-delivered certificate(s) or confirmation of delivery of shares in book-entry form representing surrendered shares of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock or a previously-delivered Notice of Guaranteed Delivery provided in accordance with Instruction 9).

You cannot revoke or change your election after the Election Deadline unless the Merger Agreement is thereafter terminated or the Election Deadline is thereafter delayed.

14. Purchase, Sale or Transfer of Shares of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock

Holders of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock who have made elections will be unable to sell or otherwise transfer their shares of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock after making the election. By signing and submitting an Election Form and Letter of Transmittal, you warrant that the shares of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock represented by the Election Form and Letter of Transmittal will not be sold, including through limit order request, unless the Election Form and Letter of Transmittal has been properly revoked in accordance with Instruction 13.

15. Disputes

Subject to the terms of the Merger Agreement and the Election Form and Letter of Transmittal, the Exchange Agent shall have reasonable discretion to determine whether any election, revocation or change has been properly or timely made and to disregard immaterial defects in Election Forms and Letters of Transmittal. Any good faith decisions of the Exchange Agent regarding such matters shall be binding and conclusive. None of BFC, BBX Capital, Merger Sub or the Exchange Agent shall be under any obligation to notify any person of any defect in an Election Form and Letter of Transmittal.

16. Cash Allocation Addendum (Optional)

If you own different blocks of shares of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock that you acquired at different times and/or at different prices and elect to receive a mix of Cash Consideration and Stock Consideration, you may (but are not obligated to) complete the Cash Allocation Addendum included herewith and return it together with your Election Form and Letter of Transmittal to specify the order of priority in which your different blocks of shares of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock are to be exchanged for Cash Consideration. The Cash Allocation

Corporate Actions Voluntary COY: BFCC

Addendum is solely for your individual tax position and will have no effect on BBX Capital, BFC or any of their respective affiliates. In particular, the Cash Allocation Addendum will have no effect on the amount of Cash Consideration or Stock Consideration you will receive in connection with the Merger, which will be determined by the election you make with respect to your shares and the terms of the Merger Agreement. Neither BBX Capital nor BFC, nor any of their respective affiliates, advisors or representatives, can provide you with any assurance about the effects of submitting the Cash Allocation Addendum, including whether the IRS will accept the Cash Allocation Addendum as a basis for the tax treatment of the Merger to you. You should consult your own tax advisor before completing the Cash Allocation Addendum. If any of your shares are held in “street name” through a bank, broker or other nominee, you should not complete the Cash Allocation Addendum with respect to those shares. However, you may consult your bank, broker or other nominee regarding the feasibility of making a similar allocation with respect to such shares.

17. Elections Effective Only upon Completion of the Merger

An election made on the Election Form and Letter of Transmittal will be effective only upon the completion of the Merger, which is subject to the satisfaction of a number of conditions described in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus. If the Merger Agreement is terminated for any reason, all Election Forms and Letters of Transmittal will be void and of no effect.

18. Miscellaneous

If the space provided in the Election Form and Letter of Transmittal is inadequate, your BBX Capital Class A Common Stock certificate numbers and the number of shares of BBX Capital’s Class A Common Stock represented thereby should be listed on a separate schedule and attached to the Election Form and Letter of Transmittal.

19. Inquiries

Form W-9 (Rev. 12-2014) Page 2 Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9. Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are: United States or under the laws of the United States; 7). Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income. In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States: disregarded entity and not the entity; the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust. Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities). Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes. If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items: 1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien. 2. The treaty article addressing the income. 3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions. 4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax. 5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article. Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption. If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233. Backup Withholding What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 28% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding. You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return. Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if: 1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester, 2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details), 3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN, 4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or 5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only). Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code on page 3 and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information. Also see Special rules for partnerships above. What is FATCA reporting? The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code on page 3 and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information. Updating Your Information You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a Corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies. Penalties Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect. Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS web site at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester. Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon. Although most public company merger transactions generate litigation, BBX Capital and BFC do not want to be in the position of paying or issuing the merger consideration to shareholders of BBX Capital while continuing to be subject to the risk of litigation from such shareholders. Accordingly, BBX Capital's board of directors and special committee and BFC's board of directors determined that it was advisable that the merger be subject to the closing condition described below.

Unless waived by BFC and BBX Capital, it is a condition to closing the merger that, among other things, (i) any litigation or threatened litigation against BFC, BBX Capital or their affiliates relating to the merger shall be resolved to the satisfaction of BFC and BBX Capital or (ii) the holders of at least 2,250,000 shares of BBX Capital's Class A Common Stock shall execute and deliver to BBX Capital this Waiver and Release of Claims. Additional information regarding this closing condition and the other conditions to closing the merger is contained in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus of BBX Capital and BFC relating to the merger.
