Exhibit 9.

22nd June 2006

BARCLAYS PLC TO ACQUIRE US MORTGAGE SERVICING BUSINESS OF HOMEQ SERVICING CORPORATION FROM WACHOVIA CORPORATION

Barclays Bank PLC ("Barclays") announces that it has entered into an agreement to purchase the US mortgage servicing business of HomeEq Servicing Corporation from Wachovia Corporation ("Wachovia") for a consideration of $469 million. This consideration represents net book value for the mortgage servicing rights ("MSR") and fixed assets, and $209 million in respect of advances, the collection of which is fully indemnified by Wachovia. The consideration is subject to an adjustment mechanism based on the value of the MSR and advances at completion of the transaction. Completion is subject to various conditions including regulatory consents. Barclays will finance the transaction out of existing cash resources.

This transaction will add further capabilities to Barclays Capital's successful mortgage securitisation franchise in the US.

Grant Kvalheim, Co-President of Barclays Capital, commented, "This is a great opportunity for Barclays Capital to add an additional first-class operation to its US business. This transaction will enable us to grow our existing US mortgage securitisation franchise. It will improve our ability to price deals, manage risk and expand our list of counterparties."

Forward-looking statements

This document contains certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the US Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Section 27A of the US Securities Act of 1933, as amended, with respect to certain of Barclays plans and its current goals and expectations relating to its future financial condition and performance, in particular with respect to Barclays Capital. These forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate only to historical or current facts. Forward-looking statements sometimes use words such as 'aim', 'anticipate', 'target', 'expect',

Edgar Filing: BARCLAYS PLC - Form 6-K

'estimate', 'intend', 'plan', 'goal', 'believe', or other words of similar meaning. Examples of forward-looking statements include, among others, statements regarding Barclays future financial position, income growth, impairment charges, business strategy, projected levels of growth in the banking and financial markets, projected costs, estimates of capital expenditures, and plans and objectives for future operations.

By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to future events and circumstances, including, but not limited to, global as well as US economic and business conditions, market related risks such as changes in interest rates and exchange rates, the policies and actions of governmental and regulatory authorities, changes in legislation, and the impact of competition - a number of which factors are beyond Barclays control. As a result, Barclays actual future results may differ materially from the plans, goals, and expectations set forth in Barclays forward-looking statements. Any forward-looking statements made by or on behalf of Barclays speak only as of the date they are made. Barclays does not undertake to update forward-looking statements to reflect any changes in Barclays expectations with regard thereto or any changes in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based. The reader should, however, consult any additional disclosures that Barclays has made or may make in documents it has filed or may file with the SEC.

BARCLAYS PLC

Barclays announces definitive agreement for the disposal of 43.7% stake in FirstCaribbean to CIBC

Further to its announcement on 13th March 2006, Barclays Bank PLC ("Barclays") has now entered into a definitive agreement with Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce ("CIBC") for the sale of Barclays 43.7% shareholding in FirstCaribbean International Bank Limited ("FirstCaribbean").

As previously announced, CIBC will pay a price of US$1.62 per FirstCaribbean share, valuing Barclays stake at approximately $1.08 billion. The transaction, which is subject to a number of conditions, including the receipt of applicable regulatory approvals, is anticipated to complete in late 2006.

Under the definitive agreement, CIBC has the option of paying for the transaction in cash, CIBC common shares, or a combination of cash and shares, the relative proportions of which CIBC will determine before completion. Barclays would not intend to be a long term holder of any CIBC shares it may receive in connection with this transaction.

Promptly after the close of the transaction, CIBC will be required to make a mandatory offer to all shareholders in FirstCaribbean. The mandatory offer will also be at a price of $1.62 per share. Both CIBC and FirstCaribbean have reiterated their commitment to maintaining a strong minority ownership that they expect to grow in the future.

The parties have agreed to structure the transaction in two stages, with Barclays selling 90% of its holding initially and then CIBC potentially acquiring, at Barclays option, the balance through the subsequent mandatory tender offer. The consideration represents a multiple of 17.5x FirstCaribbean's operating earnings for the year ended 31 October 2005 and a multiple of 3.0x FirstCaribbean's tangible book value. Assuming a sale of 100% of Barclays stake in FirstCaribbean, the post-tax gain to Barclays on the sale is approximately GBP250 million.

CIBC will also pay an additional sum to Barclays, as well as the other shareholders who tender their shares to this offer, to reflect dividends in respect of their period of ownership prior to closing.

Naguib Kheraj, Group Finance Director, Barclays PLC, said: "This transaction leaves FirstCaribbean well positioned for its future development. While the combination of Barclays and CIBC's Caribbean retail banking assets created value for all stakeholders, the future strategy of FirstCaribbean is now best pursued with one controlling shareholder."
