CSO
confirms
continuing slump
in visitor figures
since Irish Government's €10 tourist tax
introduced Ryanair calls on Government to scrap €10 tourist tax now

Ryanair
, the World's favourite airline, today (6th Aug 09) welcomed the CSO June traffic figures which confirm that 114,000 (15%)
fewer visitors
travelled to Ireland

in June
as the Government's €10
tourist tax
continues to devastate Irish tourism
. Ryanair

's traffic
in June
grew by 13
, more than

670
,000
new passengers, which disproves the Governments false claim that that this decline is due to the recession.

Ryanair
warned that unless the Irish Government's
€10 tourist tax is scrapped,
then
the fall in
Irish
visitor numbers
will worsen next winter
, as more flights
, routes
and services are cut from Dublin
Cork
and
Shannon Airports

Ryanair's
Daniel de Carvalho
said:

*CSO figures
show a 15%*

*drop in visitor numbers in June. The loss of these 114
,000
visitors confirms
that the collapse in Irish tourism
is accelerating as the Irish Government's €10 tourist tax makes
Ireland
an uncompetitive tourist market.*

In recent months the Belgian, Dutch, Greek and Spanish governments have all scrapped tourist taxes and/or reduced airport charges to zero in order to stimulate tourism.

Ryanair has expanded in these countries including our recent announcement of 43 new routes to/from Spain this winter.

Irish
Government cannot grow
Irish
tourism by taxing it*

*. We
must scrap this stupid
€10 tourist tax
and start welcoming visitors
, not tax
ing
them

Ends.
