NEWS RELEASE FROM HARMONY

18 November 2004

Competition Tribunal rules in Harmony's favour

The Competition Tribunal today dismissed with costs an application by Gold Fields Limited (Gold Fields) to interdict the Early Settlement Offer. The Early Settlement Offer will therefore continue to be implemented as announced and will close on 26th November 2004.

Gold Fields has been spectacularly unsuccessful in trying to frustrate Harmony's offers through every possible legal and regulatory means in South Africa. It continues with litigation in the United States that we believe has no merit. One has to seriously question the objectives of the Gold Fields board. It appears that Gold Fields management do not understand their fiduciary duties, said CE Bernard Swanepoel.

This communication is for information purposes only. It shall not constitute an offer to purchase or exchange or the solicitation of an offer to sell or exchange any securities of Gold Fields or an offer to sell or exchange or the solicitation of an offer to buy or exchange any securities of Harmony, nor shall there be any sale or exchange of securities in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale or exchange would be unlawful prior to the registration or qualification under the laws of such jurisdiction. The distribution of this communication may, in some countries, be restricted by law or regulation. Accordingly, persons who come into possession of this announcement should inform themselves of and observe these restrictions. The solicitation of offers to buy Gold Fields ordinary shares (including Gold Fields ordinary shares represented by Gold Fields ADSs) in the United States will only be made pursuant to a prospectus and related offer materials that Harmony expects to send to holders of Gold Fields securities. The Harmony ordinary shares (including Harmony ordinary shares represented by Harmony ADSs) may not be sold, nor may offers to buy be accepted, in the United States prior to the time the registration statement becomes effective. No offering of securities shall be made in the United States except by means of a prospectus meeting the requirements of Section 10 of the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

The directors of Harmony accept responsibility for the information contained in this announcement. To the best of the knowledge and belief of the directors of Harmony (who have taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case), the information contained in this announcement is in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of such information.
