PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

In September 2005, the Company's Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm (IRPAF) notified the Company that it had become aware of the omission of certain audit procedures in connection with the audit of the April 30, 2005 consolidated financial statements. The IRPAF is presently in the process of completing these additional audit procedures and is not in a position to reissue its opinion on the April 30, 2005 consolidated financial statements until these additional procedures are completed.

The IRPAF has not completed its review of the consolidated financial statements for the interim period ended July 31, 2005. It is expected that the IRPAF will complete its review procedures within the extended deadline for the filing of the Form 10-Q for the interim period ended July 31, 2005.

The IRPAF has not informed the Company of any known or suspected errors in the April 30, 2005 consolidated financial statements. The Company believes that the financial statements presented in its previously filed April 30, 2005 Form 10-K remain reliable and that the balance sheet information as of April 30, 2005, derived from the audited consolidated financial statements included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K as of April 30, 2005, and the unaudited financial information as of and for the three months ended July 31, 2005 and 2004, that will be contained in the July 31, 2005 Form 10-Q fairly presents, in all material respects, the financial condition and result of operations of the Company.
