Section 8 Other Events

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On March 16, 2006, Rambus Inc. ( Rambus ) entered into a patent license agreement with Fujitsu Limited ( Fujitsu ) (the Agreement ) that covers semiconductors, components and systems, but not including any license to Fujitsu for its own manufacturing of commodity synchronous dynamic random access memory ( DRAM ) other than limited amounts of single data rate DRAM annually. The Agreement applies to all activities in the past and continues for five years in the future. The licensing and other fees payable by Fujitsu over the term of the Agreement can range between approximately $108 million and $198 million. Fujitsu 's payment amounts will be based in part on the relative volume of DRAM that Fujitsu purchases from Rambus-licensed or unlicensed memory manufacturers.
