On January 19, 2005, the Company announced that Gerald W. (Jerry) Deitchle had been named President and CEO of the Company and his employment commenced February 1, 2005. Under the terms of Mr. Deitchle's employment contract, he is entitled to receive annual cash compensation of $300,000, subject to escalation annually in accordance with the Consumer Price Index (CPI). In addition, Mr. Deitchle was entitled to receive a cash bonus of $125,000 if fiscal 2005 earnings before interest, amortization, depreciation and income taxes (EBITDA) equaled or exceeded $16,000,000 and an additional $25,000 if fiscal 2005 EBITDA equaled or exceeded $18,000,000. Mr. Deitchle received an initial grant of stock options to purchase 275,000 shares of the Company's common stock under the Company's existing stock option plan. These options will vest 100,000 on the date of grant and 87,500 on the second and third anniversary of the date of grant. Additionally, Mr. Deitchle received a stock option grant of 25,000 shares upon joining the Company's Board of Directors in November 2004, with 12,500 options vesting on the first and second anniversary of the date of grant. Pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement, the Company has agreed to take all reasonable action within its control to cause Mr. Deitchle to continue to be appointed or elected to the Board of Directors during the term of his agreement. The Company may terminate Mr. Deitchle's employment at any time. If the termination is by the Company for Cause (as defined below), as a result of the death or Disability (as defined below) of Mr. Deitchle, or by Mr. Deitchle for other than Good Reason (as defined below), Mr. Deitchle will be entitled to receive all amounts payable by the Company under his employment agreement to the date of termination (including a prorated portion of any accrued bonuses). For purposes hereof, Disability shall mean incapacity due to physical or mental illness which results in Mr. Deitchle being absent from the full-time performance of substantially all of his material duties with the Company for 90 consecutive days or 180 days in any 12 month period.

In the event of termination of employment by the Company without Cause or by Mr. Deitchle for Good Reason, Mr. Deitchle shall be entitled to receive the following: (i) such Base Salary, vacation, prorated bonus and other benefits as have been earned through the date of termination and, to the extent that Mr. Deitchle is not covered by any other comprehensive insurance that provides a comparable level of benefits, the Company will pay Mr. Deitchle an amount equivalent to his COBRA payments for up to 18 months following the termination or the maximum term allowable by then applicable law for coverage of Mr. Deitchle and his eligible dependents, (ii) a lump sum severance equal to the greater of (a) one year's then current base salary, or (b) fifty percent (50%) of the base salary that would be due to him (including annual increases) between the date of termination and the end of the remaining term of his employment.

For purposes of Mr. Deitchle's employment agreement, Cause means (i) an act or acts of dishonesty undertaken by Mr. Deitchle and intended to result in material personal gain or enrichment of him or others at the expense of the Company; (ii) gross misconduct that is willful or deliberate on Mr. Deitchle's part and that, in either event, is materially injurious to the Company, (iii) the conviction of Mr. Deitchle of a felony; or (iv) the material breach of any terms and conditions of his employment agreement by Mr. Deitchle, which breach has not been cured within 30 days after written notice thereof from the Company. The cessation of employment by Mr. Deitchle shall not be deemed to be for Cause unless and until there shall have been delivered to Mr. Deitchle a copy of a resolution, duly adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the entire membership of the Board (not including Mr. Deitchle) at a meeting of the Board called and held for such purpose (after reasonable notice to Mr. Deitchle and an opportunity for him, together with his counsel, to be heard before the Board), finding that, in the good faith opinion of the Board, one or more causes for termination exist and specifying the particulars thereof in detail.

For purposes of Mr. Deitchle's employment agreement, Good Reason means (i) any removal of Mr. Deitchle from, or any failure to nominate or re-elect Mr. Deitchle to, his current office and/or the Board, except in connection with termination of Mr. Deitchle's employment for death, Disability or Cause, (ii) the failure of the Company to obtain the assumption of this Agreement by any successor to the Company, as provided in this Agreement, (iii) the material breach by the Company of any terms and conditions of Mr. Deitchle's employment agreement, which breach has not been cured by the Company within thirty (30) days after written notice thereof to the Company from Mr. Deitchle, or (iv) in the event of certain events constituting a change in control of the Company (a) (1) any reduction in Mr. Deitchle's then-current base salary or any material reduction in Mr. Deitchle's comprehensive benefit package (other than changes, if any, required by group insurance carriers applicable to all persons covered under such plans or changes required under applicable law), (2) the assignment to Mr. Deitchle of duties that represent or constitute a material adverse change in Mr. Deitchle's position, duties, responsibilities and status with the Company immediately prior to a change in control, or (3) a material adverse change in Mr. Deitchle's reporting responsibilities, titles, offices, or any removal of Mr. Deitchle from, or any failure to re-elect Mr. Deitchle to, any of such positions; except in connection with the termination of Mr. Deitchle's employment for Cause, upon the Disability or death of Mr. Deitchle, or upon the voluntary termination by Mr. Deitchle; (b) the relocation of Mr. Deitchle's place of employment from the location at which Mr. Deitchle was principally employed immediately prior to the date of the change in control to a location more than 50 miles from such location; or (c) the failure of any successor to the Company to assume and agree to perform its obligations under Mr. Deitchle's employment agreement.

Paul Motenko and Jeremiah Hennessy Employment Agreements

On June 27, 2005, the Company entered into Amended and Restated Employment Agreements with each of Paul Motenko and Jeremiah Hennessy. The forms of employment agreements were substantially identical except that the agreement provides that Mr. Motenko will serve as the Co-Chairman, Secretary and as a Vice President of the Company whereas Mr. Hennessy's employment agreement provides that he will serve only as the Co-Chairman.

Unless earlier terminated, the term of Mr. Motenko and Mr. Hennessy's employment shall end on December 31, 2009; provided, however, that his employment term shall be extended for additional one year periods unless and until the Company or Mr. Motenko or Mr. Hennessy, as the case may be, gives notice of its or his intention not to renew.

Pursuant to the terms of their employment agreements, Mr. Motenko serves as the Co-Chairman of the Company as well as a Vice President and Secretary. Mr. Hennessy serves as Co-Chairman of the Company. The employment agreements provide that the position of Co-Chairman shall be an executive office of the Company. During the term of the Agreement, the Company (and its Board of Directors) are obligated to take such reasonable actions within their control to cause Mr. Motenko and Mr. Hennessy to continue to be appointed or elected to the Board of Directors. In addition, should Gerald Deitchle, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer, resign or be terminated, the Company has agreed to use its best efforts to cause Mr. Motenko and Mr. Hennessy to each be reinstated as Co-Chief Executive Officers of the Company.

Each of Mr. Motenko and Mr. Hennessy is entitled to receive annual cash compensation of $300,000, subject to escalation annually in accordance with the consumer price index. In addition, each of Mr. Motenko and Mr. Hennessy received a lump sum payment equal to the amount by which the base salary paid to them from January 1, 2005 through the effective date of their employment agreements was less than the base salary that would have been paid to them under the employment agreements had they been in effect on January 1, 2005. Bonuses shall be determined by the Board in its sole discretion.

Each of Mr. Motenko and Mr. Hennessy is entitled to certain fringe benefits including use of a Company automobile or automobile allowance of $1,000 per month, a $1,000,000 life insurance policy (premiums for which shall not exceed $7,500 per year) on the life of Mr. Motenko and Mr. Hennessy, as the case may be, with the beneficiaries designated by Mr. Motenko or Mr. Hennessy. In addition, they are entitled to receive customary vacation benefits, family health insurance and the right to participate in the Company's customary executive benefit plans.

Pursuant to the terms of their employment agreements, each of Mr. Motenko and Mr. Hennessy received an initial grant of stock options to purchase 85,000 shares of the Company's common stock under the Company's 2005 Equity Incentive Plan. Each of these options vests as follows: (i) 34,000 shares upon grant, (ii) 17,000 shares on December 31, 2007, (iii) 17,000 shares on December 31, 2008 and (iv) 17,000 shares on December 31, 2009. The option exercise price was the closing price of the Company's common stock on the date of grant.

The Company may terminate Mr. Motenko and/or Mr. Hennessy's employment at any time. If the termination is by the Company for Cause (as defined below), as a result of the death or Disability (as defined below) of Mr. Motenko or Mr. Hennessy, or by Mr. Motenko or Mr. Hennessy for reasons other than Good Reason (as defined below), Mr. Motenko and Mr. Hennessy, as the case may be, will be entitled to receive all amounts payable by the Company under his employment agreement to the date of termination (including a prorated portion of any accrued bonuses). In addition, if the termination is by the Company or Mr. Motenko or Hennessy, as the case may be, as a result of Disability, to the extent that Mr Motenko or Hennessy is not covered by any other comprehensive insurance that provides a comparable level of benefits, the Company will pay an amount equivalent to the terminated executive's COBRA payments for up to 18 months following the termination or the maximum term allowable by then applicable law for coverage. For purposes hereof, Disability shall mean incapacity due to physical or mental illness which results in the executive being absent from the full-time performance of substantially all of his material duties with the Company for 90 consecutive days or 180 days in any 12 month period.

In the event of termination of employment by the Company without Cause or by Mr. Motenko or Mr. Hennessy for Good Reason, Mr. Motenko or Mr. Hennessy, as the case may be, shall be entitled to receive the following: (i) such Base Salary, vacation, prorated bonus and other benefits as have been earned through the date of termination and, to the extent that the executive is not covered by any other comprehensive insurance that provides a comparable level of benefits, the Company will pay the executive an amount equivalent to his COBRA payments for up to 18 months following the termination or the maximum term allowable by then applicable law for coverage of the executive and his eligible dependents, (ii) a severance equal to the greater of (a) one year's then current base salary, or (b) one hundred percent (100%) of the base salary that would be due to him (including annual increases) between the date of termination and the end of the remaining term of his employment, payable in accordance with the Company's ordinary payroll practices. In addition, in the event of a termination without Cause or for Good Reason, the Options (as described and defined below) shall continue to vest and remain exercisable through the end of the remaining term of the employment agreement. In addition, in the event there is a Change of Control within 12 months following a termination by the Company without Cause, executive shall be entitled to a cash payment equal to the amount, if any, by which the aggregate fair market value of the shares subject to any unvested Options or subsequent stock options exceeds the aggregate exercise price of such options on the effective date of termination.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

During fiscal 2005, Messrs. King, Brassfield and Bassi served on the Compensation Committee. No member of the Compensation Committee was, during fiscal 2005, an officer or employee of the Company, a former officer of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or had a relationship requiring disclosure by the Company under Item 404 of Regulation S-K. No executive officer of the Company has served on the board of directors or compensation committee of any other entity that has or has had one or more executive officers who served as a member of the Company's Board of Directors or the Compensation Committee during fiscal 2005.

Certain of the members of the Company's Board of Directors or their affiliates have entered into transactions or arrangements with the Company during the past fiscal year which transactions and arrangements are described in "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions" below.

Report of the Compensation Committee on Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee makes this report on executive compensation pursuant to Item 402 of Regulation S-K. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in any of the Company's previous filings under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), that might incorporate future filings, including this Proxy Statement, in whole or in part, this report and the graph which follows this report shall not be incorporated by reference into any such filings, and such information shall be entitled to the benefits provided in Item 402(a)(9) of Regulation S-K.

The Compensation Committee reviews the performance of the Company's officers and key employees and reports to the Board of Directors. In such capacity, the Committee administers the executive compensation plans, reviews programs and policies, and monitors the performance and compensation of executive officers and other key employees, except for Mr. Motenko and Mr. Hennessy and, effective February 1, 2005, Mr. Deitchle, whose compensation is established under Employment Agreements described elsewhere in this Proxy Statement. See "Executive Compensation and Other Matters." The Committee makes recommendations regarding option grants to executive officers and other employees pursuant to the Company's equity compensation plans, including the 2005 Equity Incentive Plan.

As to executives and other key employees, other than Messrs. Motenko, Hennessy and Deitchle, the Board establishes compensation designed to achieve an overall level of compensation which is competitive with other companies in the restaurant industry in each geographical area in which the Company operates.

The Company's compensation program consists of three main components: base salary, bonus and long term incentives in the form of stock options. The bonus and long-term incentives constitute the at risk portion of the compensation program. In general, compensation is determined based upon individual performance, responsibility and achievement in light of the Company's goals and expectations.

The Compensation Committee generally adheres to compensation policies that are designed to (i) attract and retain individuals with outstanding ability, (ii) motivate and reward such individuals for outstanding performance, (iii) create a portion of the total compensation that is based on the performance of the Company as well as of the individual employee and (iv) within the foregoing basic parameters, compensate employees in the middle to the top of the range of compensation offered by comparable companies.

As described above, the Committee compensated its current Co-Chairmen (and former Co-Chief Executive Officers) pursuant to Amended and Restated Employment Agreements approved by the Board of Directors, as modified and extended with respect to Paul Motenko and Jeremiah Hennessy pursuant to new Employment Agreements effective as of June 23, 2005. Such Employment Agreements provide for basic compensation, an initial option grant of 85,000 shares, and the possibility of discretionary bonuses. In addition, the Company compensates its current President and Chief Executive Officer, Gerald W. Deitchle, pursuant to an Employment Agreement effective as of February 1, 2005. Mr. Deitchle's Employment Agreement also provides for basic compensation, an initial option grant of 275,000 shares, as well as the possibility of additional bonus compensation based upon formulas specifically tied to performance criteria for the Company.

The Compensation Committee determined, for 2005, that the Company's EBITDA was in excess of $18,000,000, and that based on the contractual bonus formula for EBITDA contained in his Employment Agreement, Mr. Deitchle earned a cash bonus of $150,000 for such period.

Jacmar, through its specialty wholesale food distributorship, is our largest supplier of food, beverage and paper products. Jacmar sells products to us at prices comparable to those offered by unrelated third parties. Jacmar supplied us with $24.8 million, $19.3 million, and $14.6 million of food, beverage and paper products for fiscal 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively, and 54.6%, 57.1%, and 53.5% of our total costs for these products, respectively. We had trade payables to Jacmar related to these products of $2.3 million, $2.2 million and $1.1 million at January 3, 2006, January 2, 2005 and December 28, 2003, respectively. The Board of Directors has reviewed the terms of the agreements relating to pricing between Jacmar and the Company, and believes that the terms are at least as favorable or more favorable than the Company could obtain from another third party offering comparable goods and services.
