Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Background

On September 12, 2006, Discovery Partners International, Inc. ( Discovery Partners ) completed its business combination with Infinity Pharmaceuticals, Inc. ( IPI ), in accordance with the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization among Discovery Partners, Darwin Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of Discovery Partners ( Darwin Corp. ), and IPI, dated as of April 11, 2006 (the Merger Agreement ) pursuant to which IPI became a wholly owned subsidiary of Discovery Partners (the Merger ). As a result of the Merger, Discovery Partners changed its name to Infinity Pharmaceuticals, Inc. ( Infinity ) and the newly-acquired wholly owned subsidiary, which was formerly known as Infinity Pharmaceuticals, Inc., changed its name to Infinity Discovery, Inc. ( IDI ). Following the closing of the Merger, the business conducted by Infinity became the business conducted by IDI immediately prior to the Merger and the following IDI agreements and arrangements effectively became agreements and arrangements of Infinity. Unless the context otherwise requires, all references herein to Infinity refer to Infinity and its wholly owned subsidiaries after the effective time of the Merger.

Material IDI Agreements

Alliance and Collaboration Agreements

MedImmune Agreement. On August 25, 2006, Infinity entered into a product development and commercialization agreement (the MedImmune Agreement ) with MedImmune, Inc. ( MedImmune ) to jointly develop and commercialize novel small molecule cancer drugs targeting Heat Shock Protein 90, or Hsp90, and the Hedgehog cell signaling pathway. Under the terms of the MedImmune Agreement, MedImmune and Infinity will share equally, meaning 50/50, in all development and commercialization costs, as well as potential profits, from any future marketed products. MedImmune has agreed to provide Infinity a license payment of $70 million for co-exclusive rights to the Hsp90 and Hedgehog pathway development programs. This payment will be made in two tranches of $35 million each, with the first being paid within 30 days of the effective date of the MedImmune Agreement and the second being paid on January 5, 2007. In addition, Infinity could receive to up to $430 million in milestone payments assuming that specified late-stage development and sales objectives are achieved for products resulting from the collaboration, such that total payments to Infinity could equal $500 million.

For each of the Hsp90 and Hedgehog pathway programs, the parties contemplate that Infinity will retain primary responsibility for discovery and preclinical development of drug candidates against these targets. MedImmune and Infinity will jointly lead clinical development through first product approval. The parties will jointly develop a worldwide marketing and sales strategy for commercialized products, if any. MedImmune will have the initial right to market and sell such products worldwide while Infinity has the option to co-promote any future products in the United States, contributing up to 35% of the total promotional effort.

The parties will jointly own any invention and know-how that may be developed by either or both parties during the term of the MedImmune Agreement which invention is directed to the development, manufacture, use or sale of an active pharmaceutical ingredient of a product or is developed in the course of performing activities under the research and development plan. The parties will also jointly own any patent rights that claim such an invention.

The MedImmune Agreement will expire 60 years after the effective date. Either party is permitted to terminate the MedImmune Agreement with respect to a product if it believes there are safety concerns with respect to such product and the parties do not agree on the course of action to be taken, in which case the terminating party gives up all rights in such product. Either party may opt out of a project by giving six months written notice to the other party. If one party gives such notice, the other party has 20 days to also opt-out of the project in which case the parties will seek to out-license or sell the project assets or seek to otherwise maximize the value of the project. Any opting-out party is no longer obligated to perform work under the research and development plan and marketing plans for the project, nor pay development costs for the project. The MedImmune Agreement terminates with respect to a project if both parties opt-out. If a party materially breaches the MedImmune Agreement with respect to a project and does not cure the breach within a specified period of time, such breaching party is deemed to have opted-out of such project. If a party which opted-out of a project materially breaches the MedImmune Agreement, and does not cure the breach within a specified period of time, such breaching party shall no longer be entitled to royalties or milestones with respect to such product.

The foregoing summary description of the MedImmune Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the MedImmune Agreement, which Infinity and/or MedImmune intends to file as an exhibit to their respective Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2006.

Amgen. On July 7, 2006, Infinity entered into a license agreement (the Amgen Agreement ) with Amgen Inc. ( Amgen ). Pursuant to, and in accordance with the terms of, the Amgen Agreement, Infinity granted to Amgen a non-exclusive worldwide license to use a proprietary collection of small molecules in its internal drug discovery activities. Amgen has paid Infinity a $2.5 million upfront license fee and has agreed to make milestone payments of up to an aggregate of $31.35 million for each product that Amgen develops and successfully commercializes based upon a licensed compound, assuming that Amgen achieves specified clinical and regulatory objectives. Amgen has also agreed to make additional milestone payments of up to an aggregate of $12.0 million for each product that Amgen develops and successfully commercializes based upon a specified subset of the licensed compounds, assuming that Amgen achieves specified clinical and regulatory objectives for those licensed compounds. Finally, Amgen has agreed to make success payments totaling up to an aggregate of $6.0 million if Amgen achieves specified research and/or intellectual property objectives and to pay royalties on sales of any products.

The Amgen Agreement will expire upon the later of Amgen's permanent cessation of all research and development activities under the Amgen Agreement or the expiration of the final royalty term, unless earlier terminated. Amgen has the right to terminate the Amgen Agreement at any time upon 60 days prior written notice. Either party has the right to terminate the Amgen

Agreement in connection with a material breach by the other party that remains uncured for a period of 60 days.

Novartis. On November 16, 2004, Infinity entered into a collaboration and option agreement (the "Novartis Collaboration Agreement") with Novartis International Pharmaceutical Ltd. Pursuant to the Novartis Collaboration Agreement, Infinity and Novartis agreed to jointly design a collection of novel small molecules to be synthesized by Infinity using its diversity oriented synthesis chemical technology platform. Under the Novartis Collaboration Agreement, Novartis may use the resulting compound collection in its independent drug discovery efforts. Infinity has certain rights to use the resulting compound collection in its own drug discovery efforts, and Novartis has the option to license from Infinity on an exclusive worldwide basis specified lead compounds for further development and commercialization. In the event that Novartis exercises this option to license specified lead compounds, it has agreed to pay Infinity milestone payments and royalties based upon net sales of certain drug products incorporating such compounds. In addition, Novartis will pay Infinity up to $10.5 million for the successful delivery of compounds and has agreed to make milestone payments of up to an aggregate of $13.0 million for each product that Novartis develops and successfully commercializes based upon certain licensed compounds, assuming that Novartis achieves specified clinical and regulatory objectives. In connection with the Novartis Collaboration Agreement, Novartis Pharma AG, an affiliate of Novartis, purchased a specified number of shares of IDI preferred stock which, after giving effect to the merger, were converted into 868,499 shares of Infinity Common Stock.

The Novartis Collaboration Agreement will expire in November 2012, unless earlier terminated or extended by mutual agreement of Infinity and Novartis. Either party may terminate the Novartis Collaboration Agreement at any time in the event of a material breach by the other party that remains uncured for a period of 90 days. Either party may also terminate the Novartis Collaboration Agreement in the event of the other party's insolvency or bankruptcy. Novartis may terminate the Novartis Collaboration Agreement upon a sale of all or substantially all of Infinity's assets or a transaction that results in the change of control of Infinity. The Merger does not constitute a change of control for these purposes.

On February 24, 2006, Infinity entered into another collaboration agreement with Novartis Institutes for BioMedical Research, Inc. (the "Novartis Product Development Agreement") to discover, develop and commercialize drugs targeting Bcl protein family members for the treatment of a broad range of cancer indications. Under the terms of the Novartis Product Development Agreement, Infinity has granted to Novartis an exclusive, worldwide license to research, develop and commercialize pharmaceutical products that are based upon Infinity's proprietary Bcl inhibitors. Novartis paid Infinity $15.0 million in upfront license fees and has committed research funding of approximately $10.0 million during the initial two-year research term. The research term may be extended for up to two additional one-year terms at the discretion of Novartis, and Novartis will agree to fund additional research during any extension period in an amount to be agreed upon. Assuming that the strategic alliance continues for its full term and specified research, development and commercialization milestones are achieved for multiple products for multiple indications, Novartis has agreed to make milestone payments totaling over $370.0 million, such that total payments to Infinity could exceed $400.0 million. In addition, Novartis has agreed to pay Infinity royalties upon successful commercialization of any products developed under the alliance. In connection with the Novartis Product Development Agreement, Novartis Pharma AG purchased a specified number of shares of IDI preferred stock which, after giving effect to the Merger, converted into 266,310 shares of Infinity Common Stock.

Pursuant to the Novartis Product Development Agreement, Infinity and Novartis are conducting joint research to identify molecules for clinical development. Novartis will have responsibility for clinical development and commercialization of any products based upon compounds discovered under the joint research program. However, Infinity may request to participate in clinical development and if such request is agreed upon by Novartis then Novartis will fund agreed-upon development costs incurred by Infinity. Infinity also has a non-exclusive right to detail Bcl-2 family inhibitor products in the United States, with Infinity's detailing costs to be reimbursed by Novartis.

Novartis has the right to terminate the Novartis Product Development Agreement at any time upon 60 days' prior written notice. In addition, Novartis has the right to terminate the Novartis Product Development Agreement in connection with a material breach by Infinity that remains uncured for a period of 120 days after notice. Infinity can terminate specified programs under the Novartis Product Development Agreement as to breaches by Novartis relating solely to such programs that remain uncured for a period of 120 days after notice or can terminate the Novartis Product Development Agreement in its entirety in connection with a material breach by Novartis that remains uncured for a period of 120 days after notice.

Johnson & Johnson. On December 22, 2004, Infinity entered into a technology access agreement (the "J&J Agreement") with Johnson & Johnson Pharmaceutical Research & Development, a division of Janssen Pharmaceutica N.V. ("Johnson & Johnson"). Pursuant to the J&J Agreement, Infinity granted to Johnson & Johnson a non-exclusive worldwide license to use certain Infinity small molecule compounds in its own drug discovery efforts. Under the terms of the J&J Agreement, Johnson & Johnson paid Infinity an upfront license fee of $2.5 million. Additionally, Johnson & Johnson Development Corporation, an affiliate of Johnson & Johnson, purchased a specified number of shares of IDI preferred stock which, after giving effect to the Merger, converted into 579,000 shares of Infinity Common Stock. On March 2, 2006, Infinity and Johnson & Johnson amended the J&J Agreement to, among other things, allow for a reduction in the number of compounds to be delivered under the J&J Agreement. In connection with the reduction in compounds, Infinity has agreed to refund to Johnson & Johnson a portion of the upfront license fee in proportion to the number of compounds actually delivered. Infinity expects the partial refund of the upfront license fee to be approximately $950,000.

The J&J Agreement will expire upon Johnson & Johnson's permanent cessation of all research and development activities under the J&J Agreement, unless earlier terminated. Johnson & Johnson has the right to terminate the J&J Agreement at any time upon 60 days' prior notice. In addition, either party may terminate the J&J Agreement in the event of a material breach by the other party that remains uncured for a period of 60 days.

The foregoing description of the terms and conditions of the Amgen Agreement, the Novartis Collaboration Agreement, the Novartis Product Development Agreement and the J&J Agreement set forth herein does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of each such document attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1, 10.2, 10.3 and 10.4, respectively, and are incorporated by reference herein.

Loan Agreements

Oxford Agreement. On October 16, 2002, Infinity and Oxford Finance Corporation ( Oxford ) entered into a master loan and security agreement (the Oxford Agreement ), providing for a $5.0 million credit facility to finance the purchase of laboratory equipment, computer hardware, office furniture and equipment, computer software (including extended warranties and service contracts), and other equipment and property identified in the collateral schedules attached to each promissory note evidencing borrowings under the Oxford Agreement. This facility was increased by an additional $500,000 during 2003. As of August 31, 2006, Infinity has no further borrowing capacity available under the Oxford Agreement. Interest charged on borrowings under the Oxford Agreement range from 9.91% to 10.26% depending on whether the borrowings related to laboratory equipment or other equipment and when the borrowing occurred. Borrowings for laboratory equipment are payable in 48 consecutive monthly installments of principal and accrued interest and borrowings for other equipment are payable in 36 consecutive monthly installments of principal and accrued interest. As of August 31, 2006, there was $575,936 outstanding under the Oxford Agreement. In connection with the Oxford Agreement, Infinity issued warrants that are currently exercisable for an aggregate of 7,429 shares of Infinity Common Stock at an exercise price of $13.35 per share, after giving effect to the Merger. The warrants expire, if not sooner exercised, on various dates between December 3, 2012 and August 29, 2013.

Pursuant to an amendment to the Oxford Agreement dated March 31, 2006 (the Amended Oxford Agreement ), Infinity borrowed an additional aggregate principal amount of $7.5 million from Oxford pursuant to promissory notes, dated as of March 31, 2006 and June 30, 2006 (the Oxford Notes ). The Oxford Notes bear interest at a rate of 11.26% and 11.75% per annum, respectively, and are payable in nine consecutive monthly installments of interest only and thereafter in 30 consecutive monthly installments of principal and accrued interest. The first installment was due and payable on May 1, 2006. Infinity may prepay in full its entire indebtedness under the Oxford Notes by paying a prepayment penalty premium equal to the remaining principal balance on the Oxford Notes multiplied by the following percentages: (i) from the date of the Oxford Notes until the first annual anniversary date: 4%, (ii) from the first annual anniversary date until the second annual anniversary date: 3%, (iii) from the second annual anniversary date until the third annual anniversary date: 2%, and (iv) from the third annual anniversary date until the indebtedness under the Oxford Notes is paid in full: no premium. In connection with the Amended Oxford Agreement, Infinity issued warrants that are currently exercisable for an aggregate of 39,325 shares of Infinity Common Stock at an exercise price of $13.35 per share, after giving effect to the Merger. The warrants expire, if not sooner exercised, on various dates between March 30, 2016 and June 30, 2016.

Pursuant to the terms of the Amended Oxford Agreement, in order to secure the payment and performance by Infinity of all debts, obligations and liabilities arising under the Oxford Notes and the Amended Oxford Agreement, Infinity granted to Oxford a security interest in and against all Collateral (as such term is defined in the Amended Oxford Agreement). As further described and defined in the Amended Oxford Agreement, the Collateral comprises all of Infinity s current and future personal property and fixtures wherever located including, but not limited to, all inventory, equipment, fixtures, accounts, deposit accounts, documents, investment property, instruments, general intangibles, chattel paper and any and all proceeds therefrom. The Collateral does not include any intellectual property or interests in any intellectual property (including any royalties), but the Amended Oxford Agreement precludes Infinity from selling, transferring, assigning or otherwise encumbering its intellectual property other than licenses granted in the ordinary course of business or pursuant to agreements that Infinity reasonably believes are in, or not opposed to, its best interest.

The obligations of Infinity under the Oxford Agreement and the Amended Oxford Agreement may be accelerated upon the occurrence of an event of default under the Oxford Agreement and the Amended Oxford Agreement, respectively, which includes customary events of default, including without limitation payment defaults, defaults in the performance of covenants and obligations, the inaccuracy of representations or warranties and bankruptcy and insolvency related defaults.

GE Agreements. On December 6, 2002, Infinity and General Electric Capital Corporation ( GE ) entered into a master security agreement, as amended in December 2002 (the GE Financing Agreement ) to finance the purchase of laboratory equipment, computer hardware, office furniture and equipment, computer software (including extended warranties and service contracts), and other equipment and property identified in the collateral schedules attached to each promissory note evidencing borrowings under the GE Financing Agreement. On August 11, 2004, Infinity entered into a master lease agreement (the GE Lease Agreement ) with GE providing Infinity the ability to lease equipment and property, as more particularly described on schedules appended from time to time to the GE Lease Agreement. The GE Financing Agreement and GE Lease Agreement are referred to herein collectively as the GE Agreements. The GE Agreements provide for a total combined $12.0 million credit facility to finance the acquisition of certain equipment and property. Borrowings under the GE Financing Agreement are evidenced by promissory notes appended from time to time to the GE Financing Agreement (the GE Notes ). The GE Notes bear interest at a fixed rate between 8% and 11% per annum and are payable in 36 consecutive monthly installments of principal and accrued interest, with the first installment having become due and payable on January 1, 2003. Outstanding amounts under the GE Lease Agreement are payable in 30 monthly installments. Pursuant to the terms of the GE Lease Agreement, Infinity shall pay GE the sum of a stipulated loss value, as detailed on a schedule to the GE Lease Agreement, for the costs associated with any leased equipment that becomes worn out, lost, stolen, destroyed, irreparably damaged or unusable. At the end of the lease term, Infinity has the option to purchase all (but not less than all) of any equipment leased under the GE Lease Agreement on an as-is basis for a cash payment equal to the equipment's then fair market value, less applicable taxes. As of August 31, 2006, there was $2,506,504 outstanding under the GE Agreements. In connection with the GE Agreements, Infinity issued warrants that are currently exercisable for an aggregate of 13,538 shares of Infinity Common Stock at an exercise price of $13.35 per share, after giving effect to the Merger. The warrants expire, if not sooner exercised, on various dates between January 31, 2013 and December 28, 2015.

The obligations of Infinity under the GE Agreements may be accelerated upon the occurrence of an event of default under the GE Agreements, which includes customary events of default, including without limitation payment defaults, defaults in the performance of covenants and obligations, the inaccuracy of representations or warranties and bankruptcy and insolvency related defaults.

Horizon Agreement. On June 30, 2006, Infinity and Horizon Technology Funding Company LLC ( Horizon ) entered into a venture loan and security agreement (the Horizon Agreement ) pursuant to which Infinity borrowed an aggregate principal amount of $7.5 million from Horizon pursuant to the terms of two promissory notes, each dated as of June 30, 2006 (the Horizon Notes ). The Horizon Notes bear interest at a rate equal to 11.93% per annum and are payable in nine consecutive monthly installments of interest only and thereafter in 30 consecutive monthly installments of principal and accrued interest. The first installment was due and payable on July 1, 2006. Infinity may prepay in full its entire indebtedness under the Horizon Notes by paying a prepayment penalty premium equal to the remaining principal balance on the Horizon Notes multiplied by the following percentages: (i) from the date of the Horizon Notes until the first annual anniversary date: 4%, (ii) from the first annual anniversary date until the second annual anniversary date: 3%, (iii) from the second annual anniversary date until the third annual anniversary date: 2%, and (iv) from the third annual anniversary date until the indebtedness under the Horizon Notes is paid in full: no premium. In addition, in connection with the Horizon Agreement, on June 30, 2006, Infinity issued two warrants to Horizon which are currently exercisable for 39,326 shares of Infinity Common Stock at a purchase price of $13.35 per share. The warrants are exercisable in whole or in part at any time on or before June 30, 2016.

Pursuant the terms of the Horizon Agreement, in order to secure the payment and performance by Infinity of all debts, obligations and liabilities arising under the Horizon Notes, Infinity granted to Horizon a security interest in all Infinity Collateral (as such term is defined in the Horizon Agreement). As further described and defined in the Horizon Agreement, the Collateral comprises all of Infinity s personal property and fixtures now owned or hereafter acquired and wherever located including, but not limited to, all inventory, equipment, fixtures, accounts, deposit accounts, documents, investment property, instruments, general intangibles, chattel paper and any and all proceeds therefrom. The Collateral does not include any intellectual property, but the Horizon Agreement precludes Infinity from selling, transferring, assigning or otherwise encumbering its intellectual property other than licenses granted in the ordinary course of business or pursuant to agreements that Infinity reasonably believes are in, or not opposed to, its best interest.

The obligations of Infinity under the Horizon Agreement may be accelerated upon the occurrence of an event of default under the Horizon Agreement, which includes customary events of default, including without limitation payment defaults, defaults in the performance of covenants and obligations, the inaccuracy of representations or warranties and bankruptcy and insolvency related defaults.

The foregoing description of the terms and conditions of the Oxford Agreement and the Amended Oxford Agreement, the Oxford Notes, the GE Agreements, the Horizon Agreement and the Horizon Notes set forth herein does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of each such document attached hereto as Exhibits 10.5, 10.6, 10.7 and 10.8, respectively, and are incorporated by reference herein.

Director and Executive Officer Compensation Matters

Executive Officer Cash Compensation and Bonus

As of September 12, 2006, the following sets forth the estimated annual cash compensation of the executive officers of Infinity:

Executive Officer	2006 Annual Salary
Steven Holtzman	$ 400,000
Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and Assistant Secretary of Infinity
and
Chief Executive Officer of IDI
Julian Adams	$ 340,000
President of Infinity
and
President and Chief Scientific Officer of IDI
Adelene Perkins	$ 295,000
Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer and Secretary of Infinity
and
Executive Vice President and Chief Business Officer of IDI

In addition, each executive officer is entitled to participate in Infinity's bonus program, pursuant to which all employees of Infinity, including the executive officers, may receive a stock bonus upon the achievement of company performance goals.

Employment Offer Letters

On August 1, 2001, August 19, 2003 and February 6, 2002, Infinity entered into offer letters with each of Steven Holtzman, Julian Adams and Adelene Perkins with respect to their service as officers of IDI. Each offer letter provides for the annual salary of the executive officer, which is subject to annual adjustment based upon both individual and company performance and other factors as may be determined in the sole discretion of Infinity's board of directors. The offer letters also provided for the grant of restricted stock awards to purchase 750,000 shares, 750,000 shares and 450,000 shares of IDI Common Stock, $0.0001 par value per share ( IDI Common Stock ), which restricted stock awards were assumed and converted into 165,772 shares, 165,772 shares and 99,463 shares of Infinity Common Stock, respectively, at the effective time of the Merger. The shares were initially purchased by each executive at a purchase price which was determined to be the current fair market value of the IDI Common Stock at the time of purchase. The shares are subject to a right of repurchase by Infinity at a price equal to the original purchase price, which right of repurchase lapses, or vests, in the case of Mr. Holtzman and Mr. Adams, as to ~~1/48~~ of such shares on the executive's commencement of employment with IDI and as to 1/48th of such shares monthly thereafter. In the case of Ms. Perkins, the shares subject to the repurchase right vested as to 16,577 shares in January 1, 2003 and vest as to all additional 2,302 shares monthly thereafter. In connection with the purchase by each of Dr. Adams and Ms. Perkins of the foregoing shares, IDI extended to each such executive officer a loan in an amount equal to the purchase price of the restricted stock award, less the aggregate par value of the shares of restricted IDI Common Stock. In March 2006, the IDI board of directors authorized IDI to forgive the outstanding indebtedness of Dr. Adams and Ms. Perkins, including, in the case of Dr. Adams, certain indebtedness transferred to his former spouse. See Letter Agreements Regarding Loan Forgiveness below.

Mr. Holtzman's offer letter also provides that if his employment is terminated by Infinity without cause, or by Mr. Holtzman for good reason, each as defined in the offer letter, provided that Mr. Holtzman executes a severance agreement and release of claims, he will be eligible to receive a severance payment in the form of salary continuation until the earlier to occur of (i) 12 months from the date of his termination or (ii) the date on which he commences work with another employer or as a consultant or independent contractor, on either a full or part-time basis.

Each of Dr. Adams' and Ms. Perkins' offer letters provides that, if the executive officer's employment is terminated by Infinity without cause, as defined in the offer letter, or if the executive resigns due to a material diminution in job responsibilities or title or as a result of Infinity's failure to fulfill its obligations as provided in the offer letter, provided that the executive officer executes a severance agreement and release of claims, such executive officer will be eligible to receive a severance payment equal to his or her then-current base salary for a period of six months for Dr. Adams, and 12 months for Ms. Perkins, following the effective date of termination. The offer letters also provide that the vesting of each executive officer's then-unvested restricted stock awards to purchase shares of Infinity Common Stock will continue for a period of 6 months for Dr. Adams, and 12 months for Ms. Perkins, from the date of termination.

The foregoing summary description of the offer letters does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the offer letters, which are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.9, 10.10 and 10.11, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference.

Letter Agreements Regarding Loan Forgiveness

Effective as of March 31, 2006, IDI entered into letter agreements with each of Steven Holtzman, Julian Adams and Adelene Perkins, pursuant to which IDI agreed to forgive certain indebtedness of each executive officer (including, in the case of Dr. Adams, certain indebtedness transferred to his former spouse) in exchange for which each executive officer agreed to subject certain shares of IDI Common Stock held by such executive officer to a right of repurchase in favor of IDI for a period of two years. Such shares of IDI Common Stock were assumed by Infinity in the Merger and have been exchanged for shares of Infinity Common Stock. The following sets forth the amount of indebtedness of each officer that was forgiven and the number of shares of Infinity Common Stock currently subject to a right of repurchase:

Name	Number of Shares of Infinity
	Total Amount of Principal and Interest Forgiven	Common Stock Subject to Repurchase
Steven Holtzman	$364,874	14,698
Julian Adams	$311,240	12,488
Adelene Perkins	$81,154	3,260

The foregoing summary description of the letter agreements does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the letter agreements, which are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.12, 10.13 and 10.14, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference.

a $10,000 annual retainer;

a $25,000 annual retainer for service as lead outside director;

a $10,000 annual retainer for service as lead research and development director;

a $10,000 annual retainer for service as chair of the audit committee;

In addition to the cash compensation discussed above, non-employee directors are eligible to receive non-statutory stock options, restricted stock and other stock-based awards for Infinity Common Stock under the Discovery Partners 2000 Stock Incentive Plan which, after giving effect to the Merger has been renamed the Infinity 2000 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Plan") as follows:

Each non-employee director who serves on the board of directors of Infinity immediately after the closing of the Merger and each new director, on the date of his or her election to the board of directors, will receive a non-statutory stock option to purchase 28,125 shares of Infinity Common Stock which will vest as to 9,375 of the shares on the first anniversary of the grant date and the remainder in quarterly installments of 2,343 shares beginning at the end of the first quarter thereafter, provided that the holder continues to serve as a director. However, the shares will immediately vest in full upon certain changes in control or ownership or upon the optionee's death or disability while a board member.

Each non-employee director serving as a director on the third anniversary of (a) the closing of the Merger, in the case of directors serving on the board of directors immediately after the closing of the Merger, or (b) his or her election to the board, in the case of directors elected after the closing of the Merger, will receive a non-statutory stock option to purchase 5,625 shares of Infinity Common Stock, referred to as an annual option, on the date of the first annual meeting of stockholders following such third anniversary and on the date of each annual meeting of stockholders thereafter. Shares of Infinity Common Stock subject to the annual option will be exercisable in equal quarterly installments of 1,406 shares beginning at the end of the first quarter after the date of grant, provided that the holder of the annual option continues to serve as a director. However, the shares will immediately vest in full upon certain changes in control or ownership or upon the optionee's death or disability while a board member.

Levine and Sato will continue to vest in consideration for, and subject to, their service as lead research and development director and lead outside director, respectively, of Infinity after the Merger.

The foregoing summary description of the consulting agreements does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the advisory agreement and the consulting agreements which are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.15, 10.16 and 10.17, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference.

In connection with the Lease, Infinity issued a warrant to ARE which, after giving effect to the Merger, is currently exercisable for 33,427 shares of Infinity Common Stock at an exercise price of $13.35 per share. Pursuant to a sublease dated as of August 24, 2004 (the Sublease ), as amended, Infinity agreed to sublease a portion of the office space at 790 Memorial Drive to Hydra Biosciences, Inc.

Item 2.01. Completion of Acquisition

On September 12, 2006, pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Darwin Corp. merged with and into IDI with IDI becoming a wholly owned subsidiary of Discovery Partners, and Discovery Partners changed its name to Infinity Pharmaceuticals, Inc.

As a result of the Merger and after giving effect to the 1-for-4 reverse stock split described below in Item 5.03, each outstanding share of IDI Common Stock and IDI preferred stock automatically converted into the right to receive shares of Infinity Common Stock as follows:

each share of IDI Common Stock entitles the holder to receive 0.22103 shares of Infinity Common Stock;

each share of IDI Series A preferred stock entitles the holder to receive 0.19638 shares of Infinity Common Stock;

each share of IDI Series B preferred stock held by Prospect Ventures Partners and Venrock Associates and their affiliates entitles the holder to receive 0.24974 shares of Infinity Common Stock;

each share of IDI Series B preferred stock held by stockholders other than Prospect Ventures Partners and Venrock Associates and their affiliates entitles the holder to receive 0.28094 shares of Infinity Common Stock;

each share of IDI Series C preferred stock entitles the holder to receive 0.26055 shares of Infinity Common Stock; and each share of IDI Series D preferred stock entitles the holder to receive 0.26631 shares of Infinity Common Stock.

Each outstanding option to purchase shares of IDI Common Stock that was not exercised prior to the consummation of the Merger was assumed by Infinity at the effective time of the Merger and became an option to purchase shares of Infinity Common Stock. Each outstanding warrant to purchase shares of IDI Series A preferred stock and Series B preferred stock that was not exercised prior to the consummation of the Merger was assumed by Infinity at the effective time of the Merger and became a warrant to purchase shares of Infinity Common Stock. The number of shares of Infinity Common Stock subject to each assumed option and warrant was determined by multiplying the number of shares of IDI Common Stock or IDI preferred stock that were subject to each option or warrant, as applicable, prior to the effective time of the Merger by the applicable conversion ratio specified above and rounding that result down to the nearest whole number of shares of Infinity Common Stock. The per share exercise price for the assumed options and warrants was determined by dividing the per share exercise price of the IDI Common Stock or IDI preferred stock subject to each option or warrant, as applicable, as in effect immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger by the applicable conversion ratio specified above and rounding that result up to the nearest whole cent.

As of the closing of the Merger, former Infinity stockholders, option holders and warrant holders owned approximately 69% of Infinity Common Stock on a fully-diluted basis and former Discovery Partners stockholders and option holders owned approximately 31% of Infinity Common Stock on a fully-diluted basis. The issuance of the shares of Infinity Common Stock to the former stockholders of Infinity was registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission on a Registration Statement on Form S-4 (Reg. No. 333-134438).
