More detailed information regarding the identity of potential participants and their direct or indirect interests in the transaction, by securities holdings or otherwise, will be set forth in the registration statement and proxy statement/prospectus and other documents to be filed with the SEC in connection with the proposed transaction.

Agent FAQ

1. Why did PAETEC and McLeodUSA join forces?

The combination of PAETEC and McLeodUSA will create one of the largest competitive communications service providers focusing on business customers in the United States. The PAETEC and McLeodUSA geographic network coverage are highly complementary. The combined company will have a presence in 47 of the top 50, and 82 of the top 100, metropolitan statistical areas in the United States. For example, PAETEC will be able to service customers in such markets as Dallas, Houston, Detroit, Phoenix, Seattle, Denver, and Cleveland, to name a few.

2. Who is McLeodUSA?

McLeodUSA provides flexible and reliable integrated voice and data services to small and medium-sized business throughout the Midwest, Rocky Mountain, Southwest and Northwest regions. Their IP-based communications services are delivered over a high-speed broadband connection and consist of a suite of voice and data services, including local and long distance voice, internet access, email, virtual private networking, network security, conference calling, and high capacity private line services. McLeodUSA also provides wholesale communications services to other communications services providers through their extensive network facilities.

3. How will customers benefit from this transaction?

Both PAETEC and McLeodUSA believe that success is built by providing excellent service to every customer. Both companies have a total service and customer satisfaction commitment. The combined company will be a stronger communications provider, well positioned to serve medium and large enterprises and institutions. In addition to increased scale and scope, we will have a wider array of products, such as PAETEC's Equipment for Services, software applications, and resale products and McLeodUSA's products engineered for small and medium businesses.

4. When will the transaction close?

The companies expect that the transaction will close in the first quarter of 2008.

5. After the closing of the transaction, what will the combined company be called, where will it be headquartered, and who will lead it?

Following the close of the transaction, the company will be called PAETEC, which will continue to be listed on the NASDAQ Stock Market as PAET. The company will be headquartered in Fairport, N.Y. and will maintain PAETEC's and McLeodUSA's operations in major locations across the country. The combined company will be led by Chairman & CEO, Arunas Chesonis, current PAETEC Chairman & CEO.

6. How will this transaction affect service to our customers and to the channel?

Both PAETEC and McLeodUSA are committed to service and customer satisfaction, which is why we believe that the combination will create an even stronger communications provider, well positioned to serve business customers throughout the U.S.. With the increase in scale and scope along with a national presence, your opportunities to sell an enhanced suite of IP based services will continue to grow.

Both companies also share a deep commitment to the agent channel. By selecting the best-in-breed practices and processes from both companies, we will continue to strengthen our channel sales support.

7. Are there additional products we will be able to market to our customers?

There will be additional product and marketing opportunities to help you grow your base. Eventually, a unified product catalog will be available across this combined network footprint allowing you to provide true end-to-end, coast-to-coast solutions for your customers.

In addition, the combined company will serve a much larger footprint, including coverage in 47 of the top 50 MSAs in the United States in 2008.

8. We have agency agreements with both companies. Which agreements and corresponding commission rates will be honored post-merger?

During the integration period and up through completion of the transaction, both companies will (and are required to) operate as separate, competing entities. As such, all active Sales Representative Agreements along with associated performance commitments and commission structures will remain intact. It is anticipated that both programs will be combined at some point post merger. Regular communications highlighting any changes and new benefits will be sent throughout the process.

9. What can agents expect in the interim? Who is going to be my day-to-day contact?

Until the transaction closes, both companies will continue business as usual. There will be no change in how we conduct business with you and your day-to-day contacts remain the same. We will continue to live up to our core value of unmatched service to you and your customers. We will continue to keep you informed about important developments throughout the approval and integration process. If you have any questions or wish to discuss this further, please feel free to contact your PAETEC representative.

10. How will I learn more about the transaction?

Updates will be made available through each company's website, www.paetec.com and www.mcleodusa.com, and/or through direct communication from your PAETEC representative. If you have any questions, please contact your representative.
