- (b) Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2008.

Any statement contained in a document incorporated or deemed to be incorporated by reference herein shall be deemed to be modified or superseded for purposes of this registration statement to the extent that a statement contained herein or in any other subsequently filed document which also is or is deemed to be incorporated by reference herein modifies or supersedes such statement. Item 4. Description of Securities.

Under the Whirlpool Corporation Executive Deferred Savings Plan II (the Plan), the Company will provide eligible employees the opportunity to defer a portion of their future cash and equity compensation. The obligations of the Company ultimately to pay such deferred amounts in accordance with the Plan (the Obligations) will be unsecured general obligations of the Company and will rank without preference with other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness of the Company from time to time outstanding. A brief description of certain aspects of the Plan follows, and is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Plan, a copy of which has been filed as an exhibit to this registration statement:

1. The Plan allows those employees of the Company designated by the Human Resources Committee of the Board of Directors (the Committee), generally senior management (Participant(s)), to defer a portion of his or her compensation.
2. The amount of compensation to be deferred by each Participant will be determined in accordance with the Plan based on irrevocable elections by the Participant. Each Obligation will be payable upon termination of employment or on a date selected by the Participant in accordance with the terms of the Plan.
3. Each Participant or his or her beneficiary under the Plan is an unsecured general creditor of the Company with respect to his or her own Plan benefits. Benefits are payable solely from the Company s general assets, and are subject to the risk of corporate insolvency. In the event of the Company s insolvency, each Participant s deferred compensation may be subject to a lien or security interest of the Company s creditors.
4. The Committee may amend or modify the Plan, at any time and from time to time and in any respect, provided, however, that no such action of the Committee, without approval of the Participant, may adversely affect in any way any amounts already deferred pursuant to the Plan.
5. The Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer is responsible for the day-to-day administration of the Plan, subject to the control and discretion of the Committee. The Chairman and CEO has the right to interpret the Plan and determine all other matters that might arise under the terms and conditions of the Plan, other than who is eligible to participate

6. A Participant's right or the right of any other person to the Obligations cannot be transferred, pledged, or encumbered subject to a Participant's written designation of a beneficiary under the Plan or to the terms of a domestic relations order.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Robert J. LaForest, Esq., who has rendered an opinion as to the validity of the deferred compensation obligations being registered by this registration statement, is an officer of the Company and holds restricted stock equivalents and options to purchase shares of the Company's common stock.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Delaware General Corporation Law and the Certificate of Incorporation of the Company provide for the indemnification of any person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any action, suit, or proceeding by reason of the fact that such individual is or was a director or officer of the Company or serves or served another enterprise (including the plan) at the request of the Company against all expense, liability, and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) excise taxes or penalties, and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered in connection therewith, to the fullest extent authorized by the Delaware General Corporation Law, and also generally provides for mandatory advancement by the Company of defense-related expenses. Furthermore, pursuant to Section 102(b)(7) of the Delaware General Corporation Law, the Company has included in its Certificate of Incorporation a provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the Company or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except in cases where the director breached his duty of loyalty to the Company or its stockholders, failed to act in good faith, engaged in intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law, willfully or negligently authorized the unlawful payment of a dividend or approved an unlawful stock redemption or repurchase or obtained an improper personal benefit.

Both the Delaware General Corporation Law and the Certificate of Incorporation of the Company provide that the Company may maintain insurance to cover losses incurred pursuant to liability of directors and officers of the Company. The Company has obtained directors' and officers' insurance coverage, which insurance covers certain liabilities of directors and officers of the Company arising under the Securities Act.

The Company has entered into indemnification agreements with each of its non-employee directors and certain officers providing for the indemnification of such directors and officers. The indemnification agreements provide for indemnification by the Company of each person subject to an indemnification agreement to the fullest extent permitted by law against expenses and damages if the person is, or is threatened to be made, a party to or participant in a legal proceeding by reason of his or her status as a director or officer of the Company or by reason of the fact that he or she is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, trustee, general partner, managing member, fiduciary, employee or agent. The indemnification agreements provide that the Company will advance the expenses the person incurred in any such proceedings prior to final disposition of the claim. In determining a person's entitlement to indemnification, the person will be presumed entitled to indemnification, and the Company will have the burden of proving otherwise.

Item 9. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

- (1) to file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:
- (i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended;
- (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement;
- (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i) and (1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) that, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) to remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the Registrant certifies that it has reasonable grounds to believe that it meets all of the requirements for filing on Form S-8 and has duly caused this registration statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in the city of Benton Harbor, State of Michigan on May 15, 2008.
