Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

During the first quarter of fiscal 2010, the record performance of the packaged meats business of Smithfield Foods, Inc. (the Company) was more than offset by greater than expected losses in the Company's hog production segment. While the Company achieved its projected reductions in feed and hog production costs, the Company did not experience seasonal improvements in hog prices. The flu outbreak and worldwide recession hurt demand and held down prices, particularly in the export markets. The quarter just concluded was the last to be significantly influenced by the grain position entered into by the Company last year. The Company is currently buying the vast majority of its corn at or near the current market and raising costs continue to fall. The Company's efforts to reduce herd size and commodity exposure have idled hog production assets and resulted in non-cash impairment charges during the quarter. While results for the first quarter of fiscal 2010 are below the Company's expectations, further industry herd reductions and lower grain costs are anticipated to improve hog production results during the second half of fiscal 2010. In addition, the Company has maintained a very strong liquidity position as of the end of the fiscal quarter, with approximately $1.1 billion of cash and available borrowing capacity.
