Item 8.01. Other Events.

On November 30, 2010, J. Scott Plank, Executive Vice President of Business Development of Under Armour, Inc. (the Company) entered into a pre-arranged stock trading plan to sell shares of the Company's Common Stock. The trading plan is designed to comply with Rule 10b5-1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The trading plan entered into by Mr. Plank provides for the sale, over a period of approximately ten months beginning in February 2011, of up to 375,000 shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock held by him personally and up to 25,000 shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock for his charitable foundation. These sales are being done for asset diversification, tax and estate planning and charitable giving purposes.

Mr. Plank currently beneficially owns 2,521,842 shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock, representing approximately 4.9% of the total shares of Common Stock outstanding as of October 31, 2010. If Mr. Plank completes all the planned sales under this trading plan, he would beneficially own 2,121,842 shares of Class A Common Stock, representing approximately 4.3% of the total shares of Common Stock outstanding as of October 31, 2010.

In accordance with Rule 10b5-1, officers and directors of a public company may adopt a plan for selling stock of the public company. The plan may be entered into only when the officer or director is not in possession of material, non-public information about the company. The stock transactions for Mr. Plank's personal benefit under the plan will be disclosed publicly through Form 144 and Form 4 filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
