No. 8056-CS* (the Wolfner Complaint), was filed in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware against the Company, the members of the Board, Parent and Purchaser. The Wolfner Complaint alleges, among other things, that the members of the Board breached their fiduciary duties to the Company's stockholders by entering into the Merger Agreement, and further alleges that the Company, Parent and Purchaser aided and abetted the members of the Board in breaching their fiduciary duties. The Wolfner Complaint also alleges that the Schedule 14D-9, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 20, 2012, is materially incomplete and omits certain information. The Wolfner Complaint seeks, among other things, to enjoin the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and an award of money damages.

On November 27, 2012, an additional putative shareholder class action complaint, captioned *Eakle v. Titanium Metals Corp., C.A. The Eakle Complaint also alleges that the Schedule 14D-9, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 20, 2012, is materially incomplete and omits certain information. The Eakle Complaint seeks, among other things, to enjoin the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and an award of money damages.

The Empire Complaint also alleges that the Schedule 14D-9, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 20, 2012, is materially incomplete and omits certain information and that, as a result, the Company, the members of the Board, Parent and Purchaser violated Section 14(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules promulgated thereunder and that the members of the Board and the Company's president and chief executive officer violated Section 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as control persons of the Company.
