The following email was sent to the Weyerhaeuser employees by the Chief Executive Officer of Weyerhaeuser, Doyle Simons, on November 8, 2015:

DOYLE EMAIL TO EMPLOYEES

Today we made two significant announcements that will transform our company:

We have agreed to merge with Plum Creek, creating the world's premier timber, land and forest products company with more than 13 million acres of some of the most diverse and productive forests in the country. The combined company will retain the Weyerhaeuser name. This is an exciting step forward to grow our company, drive shareholder value, and create a winning organization with a shared focus on achieving excellence.

At the same time, we announced that we are going to explore strategic alternatives for our Cellulose Fibers business. This was a very difficult decision to make, but I believe it is the right decision not only for our shareholders, but also for our talented and dedicated CF employees who deserve to be part of a company that is focused on investing in their future growth.

On Monday morning we will hold two conference calls that I encourage you to attend if you can.

Analyst/Investor Conference Call: At 5:30 a.m. Pacific Time, Nov. 9, we will host a webcast with analysts and investors. If you can't join live, the recording and presentation will be archived at www.wy.com shortly after the call concludes.

Employee Conference Call: At 9:00 a.m. Pacific Time, Nov. 9, I will hold a conference call for all employees to talk more about these announcements, including what to expect in the months ahead.

I know this news will generate lots of questions and uncertainty. On Roots you'll find more information and initial Q&A documents with answers we know today. While there are legal limitations on what we can say during the transition period for both these announcements, we are committed to collecting your questions and providing as many answers as possible in the coming months.

Finally, I want to remind everyone that it's distracting times like this when our safety value is really put to the test. Please watch out for each other and have the courage to intervene if you see an unsafe condition or behavior. Nothing we've announced today is more important than your personal safety and the safety of those around you.
