Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On February 25, 2016, the Board of Directors (the Board) of Nevro Corp. (Nevro or the Company) approved an executive leadership succession plan pursuant to which Michael DeMane, the Company's current Chief Executive Officer and a member of the Board, will transition into the role of Executive Chairman of the Board, and Rami Elghandour, the Company's current President, would assume the role of President and Chief Executive Officer, in each case, effective as of June 1, 2016 (the Transition Date). In connection with this succession plan, Mr. DeMane notified the Board of his resignation as Chief Executive Officer of the Company, effective on the Transition Date. In addition, on February 25, 2016, the Board approved a plan to nominate Mr. Elghandour as a Class II director to be elected to the Board at the Company's 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held in 2016.

Mr. Elghandour, 37, joined the Company in October 2012, has served as the Company's Chief Business Officer and currently serves as the Company's President. From September 2008 to October 2012, Mr. Elghandour managed investments for Johnson & Johnson Development Corporation, or JJDC, where he led several investments and served on the board of directors of a number of private companies, including our Board. Additionally, he led strategic initiatives in the development and management of JJDC's portfolio. From 2001 to 2006, Mr. Elghandour worked for Advanced Neuromodulation Systems, Inc. (acquired by St. Jude Medical, Inc.), a medical device company, where he led firmware design and development on several implantable neurostimulators. Mr. Elghandour received an M.B.A. from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and a B.S. in Electrical and Computer Engineering from Rutgers University School of Engineering.

The Company anticipates entering into new compensatory arrangements with Messrs. DeMane and Elghandour prior to the Transition Date reflecting their new roles with the Company.

A press release announcing the above-described events is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
