ITEM 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On July 13, 2016, the Board of Directors (the Board) of Tenneco Inc. (the Company) approved amendments to certain provisions of the Company s By-Laws, effective immediately. The By-Laws were amended to, among other things:

provide for meetings of stockholders by means of remote communication; specify and enumerate the duties of the inspector for a meeting of stockholders and clarify the method of selection of such inspector;

clarify the authority of the chairman of the Board at meetings of stockholders;

provide that the chairman of the Board, instead of the Chief Executive Officer, preside at Board meetings; clarify that the Company may issue uncertificated shares of capital stock in place of any lost, stolen or destroyed stock certificate;

clarify that attendance of a person at a meeting constitutes a waiver of notice of the meeting, except when the person attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened; and increase from 72 to 75 the age at which a person shall no longer be eligible for election or reelection as a director (except as otherwise determined by the Board in good faith).

In addition to the amendments described above, the amendments to the By-Laws include changes to clarify language and consistency with Delaware law and make various administrative, technical and conforming changes. The foregoing summary of the amendments does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the amended By-Laws attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
