Market Announcement

São Paulo, June, 30, 2017 – Ultrapar Participações S.A. announces that the General Superintendence of the Administrative Council of Economic Defense ( SG CADE ) issued a reasoned decision today, declaring that the Concentration Act No. 08700.002155/2017-51 ( Decision ) relating to the acquisition of Liquigás Distribuidora S.A. by Companhia Ultragaz S.A. is considered complex.

The Decision is a procedural act process established in Article 56 of Law No. 12,529/2011 and in Article 160 of Internal Regulation of CADE and enables SG-CADE to determine the performance of complementary instruction, specifying the necessary measures, and allowing the competition authority, if it deems necessary, to require an extension of the term up to 90 days (changing the deadline from 240 to 330 days).

The SG CADE determined the following measures must be carried out, without limitation to others: (i) to wait for information already requested that will support the analysis by SG CADE and the Department of Economic Studies of CADE in the elaboration of a quantitative study regarding the competitive impacts resulting from the operation; (ii) to require information from bottle suppliers; (iii) to require information from competitors and clients on the LPG market such as propellant in aerosols; (iv) to require the parties to indicate the measures to be taken so that the alleged economic efficiencies generated by the operation are shared with consumers.
