Pileski (Chairman), Kupferberg, Farrell, Doherty, Ciampa, and Levine, all of whom meet the independence criteria for audit committee members in accordance with the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange and the rules of the SEC. The purpose of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, including with respect to review and, as applicable, approval of (1) the integrity of the Company's financial statements; (2) the Company's compliance with applicable legal and regulatory requirements; (3) the independent auditor's qualifications and independence; (4) the performance of the Company's internal audit function and independent auditors; (5) the system of internal controls relating to financial reporting, accounting, legal compliance and ethics established by management and the Board from time to time; and (6) the Company's internal and external auditing processes, and to provide the annual report of the Committee to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement. ### Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires the Company's executive officers and directors, and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Executive officers, directors, and greater than 10% shareholders are required by the Securities and Exchange Commission regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based solely on its review of copies of the reports of ownership furnished to the Company, or written representations that no other reports were required, the Company believes that during the 2005 fiscal year, its executive officers and directors complied with applicable reporting requirements for transactions in the Company's common stock, except that on February 14, 2006, Mr. Tsimbinos filed an amendment to his Form 3 (originally filed on November 10, 2003) to correct the number of shares reported as being beneficially owned by him through his Individual Retirement Account.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

New York Community Bank maintains a Code of Professional Conduct applicable to all Bank employees that sets forth requirements relating to ethical conduct, conflicts of interest, and compliance with the law. The Code of Professional Conduct requires that the Community and Commercial Bank's employees avoid conflicts of interest, comply with all laws and other legal requirements, conduct business in an honest and ethical manner, and otherwise act with integrity and in the Company's best interest. The Chief Executive Officer, Chief Operating Officer, and Chief Financial Officer are bound by the Code of Professional Conduct. In addition, the Board of Directors has adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics for the CEO, COO, and CFO of the Company. A copy of that Code, which also applies to the Directors and all other employees of the Company, is available, free of charge, on the corporate governance pages of our website, www.myNYCB.com.

ITEM 11. EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Directors' Compensation

Directors' Fees Directors of the Company do not receive any fees or retainers for serving on the Company's Board of Directors. In 2005, non-employee directors of the Community Bank received an annual retainer of $46,000 and a fee of $2,500 per Board meeting attended. Non-employee directors of the Community Bank also receive fees ranging from $500 to $2,000 for each committee meeting attended.

Directors' Deferred Fee Plan The Community Bank maintains the 1993 Directors' Deferred Fee Stock Unit Plan (the "Directors' Deferred Fee Plan"). This plan provides an opportunity for those members of the Board of Directors of the Community Bank who were active in such capacity on the effective date of the Directors' Deferred Fee Plan to defer receipt of fees otherwise currently payable to them, in exchange for the receipt (at the time they cease to serve as directors) of a benefit based on the value of the common stock of the Company, thus providing the Community Bank with the use of the funds for business activities. The deferral of fees under the Directors' Deferred Fee Plan applies to all fees received by directors, including regular meeting fees, special meeting fees, and committee fees.

Outside Directors' Consultation and Retirement Plan The Community Bank maintains the Outside Directors' Consultation and Retirement Plan (the "Consultation Plan") to provide benefits to outside directors and to ensure their continued service and assistance in the conduct of the Community Bank's business. Under the Consultation Plan, a director who is not currently an officer or employee of the Community Bank and who has served as a director for at least ten years (with credit given for prior service as a trustee of the Community Bank), has attained the age of 65, and agrees to provide continuing consulting services to the Community Bank, will be eligible, upon retirement, to receive an annual benefit equal to the average of the director's annual retainer and meeting fees over the 36-month period preceding the director's termination date, for a period equal to the lesser of the number of months for which such director agrees to provide consulting services after retirement, or ten years. The Consultation Plan is unfunded.

Life Insurance Benefit for Non-Employee Directors. The Company provides life insurance for non-employee directors of the Community Bank and the Company. For 2005, the premiums paid by the Company for such insurance coverage for non-employee directors amounted to $3,600 in the aggregate. These premiums are tax deductible by the Company, assuming certain requirements are met.

Directors' Option Plans Directors also participate in the Company's stock option plans, including, among others, the 1993 Stock Option Plan for Outside Directors and the Company's 1997 Stock Option Plan.

	2003	365,000	--	--	373,333	190,690

- (1) For 2004, the dollar amount represents the market value of 66,667 shares of the Company's common stock (adjusted to reflect a 4-for-3 stock split on February 17, 2004) granted to the executives in January 2004 in recognition of the executives' performance, including in connection with the successful merger of Roslyn Bancorp, Inc. with and into the Company in October 2003 and subsequent integration into the Company. All of such shares vested on the grant date, at which time the executives each paid approximately $585,000 in income tax in order to retain the shares granted, consistent with their prior practice of maintaining a significant equity interest in the Company.
- (2) For 2005, the figures include an allocation under the New York Community Bank Employee Stock Ownership Plan of 9,015 shares to each of Messrs. Ficalora, Manzulli, O'Donovan, Wann, and Cangemi, which each had a market value of $148,927.80 at December 31, 2005. The figures also include allowances under the New York Community Bank Medical Expense Reimbursement Plan to Mr. O'Donovan of $725.00, Mr. Wann of $3,216.37, Mr. Cangemi of $9,015.47; and premiums paid on behalf of the following executives under New York Community Bank's Bank-Owned Life Insurance Policy: Mr. Ficalora of $16,184.66, Mr. Manzulli of $18,636.94, Mr. O'Donovan of $10,890.38, Mr. Wann of $4,643.60, Mr. Cangemi of $4,060.50.

Employment Agreements

Edgar Filing: NEW YORK COMMUNITY BANCORP INC - Form 10-K/A

In March 2006, the Company entered into new employment agreements with Messrs. Manzulli, Ficalora, Wann, and Cangemi (the "executives"). The agreements, which are identical in form, replaced and superseded prior separate agreements between the executives and each of the Company and the Community Bank. To a significant degree, the continued success of the Community Bank and the Company depends on the skills and competence of the executives, and the employment agreements help the Company to continue to maintain a stable and competent management base.

The employment agreements each provide for an initial three-year term and daily extension so that the contract term is always three years from the then-current date, unless either party provides written notice of non-renewal or termination, at which time the expiration date becomes fixed at three years from the date of notice or termination. The employment agreements also provide for the payment and annual review of base salary, the provision of employee benefits applicable to executive personnel, and eligibility to participate in incentive and stock-based compensation programs.

The employment agreements allow the Company or the Community Bank to terminate the executives' employment for cause, as defined under and subject to procedures outlined in the agreements. The executives receive no further payments under their agreements following a termination for cause. Upon voluntary termination, the executives will receive base salary and other compensation or benefits earned through the date of termination.

Each executive may also terminate employment under the agreements for good reason (i.e., under circumstances outlined in the agreement and equivalent to constructive termination), and the Company may also terminate the executive without cause. Upon termination for good reason or termination without cause, the executive receives a lump sum benefit equal to the sum of base salary and other compensation earned through the termination date, plus the executive's pro rata share of the aggregate annual amounts of bonuses or other cash incentive compensation paid to the executive for the three calendar years preceding termination of employment. The executive also becomes entitled to a lump sum payment equal to the sum of (i) three times the highest total compensation paid to the executive during the three preceding years, including bonuses, cash and stock compensation, and other amounts reported on the executive's form W-2 (but excluding income realized from the exercise or a disqualifying disposition of stock options); and (ii) three times the average amount contributed by or allocated to the executive under all tax-qualified benefit plans during the three preceding years. The executive also receives continued medical, dental, and life insurance benefits for a period of thirty-six months following termination of employment. In addition, if the executive's termination of employment for good reason or without cause occurs on or after the effective date of a change in control, as defined in the agreement, all stock awards and stock options will accelerate and vest in full as of the executive's termination date.

If the executive terminates employment due to disability or death within one year after the occurrence of a change in control or within one year after the commencement of preliminary steps leading to an eventual change of control, with the actual change in control taking place within two years after the executive's termination of employment, the executive or his estate will receive the severance benefits described above, in the same manner as if the executive had terminated employment with good reason.

Upon a termination of employment due to the executive's disability, the Company will continue to pay the executive's base salary through an initial continuation period ending on the earliest of (i) one hundred and eighty days following termination of employment; (ii) the date long-term disability insurance benefits become payable to the executive; (iii) the death of the executive; or (iv) the expiration date of the agreement. However, if the initial continuation period ends prior to the executive's coverage under long-term disability insurance, the Company will continue to pay 60% of the executive's base salary for an additional period ending on the earliest of (i) eligibility for long-term disability insurance; (ii) death; or (iii) the expiration date of the agreement.

Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 provides that payments contingent upon a change in control that exceed three times an executive's "base amount" (i.e., three times average annual compensation over the five preceding taxable years) are "excess parachute payments." Under Section 4999 of the Code, an executive who receives an excess parachute payment is subject to a 20% excise tax on the amount received in excess of the base amount, and the Company is unable to deduct a corresponding amount. In the event that any payments or benefits provided to the executives are subject to the excise tax, the employment agreements provide the executives with indemnification for these excise taxes and any additional income, employment, and excise taxes imposed as a result of the initial indemnification.

Consulting Agreement

On January 31, 2005, in conjunction with the termination of his employment agreement, James J. O'Donovan entered into a Senior Consulting Agreement with the Company and the Community Bank. The Senior Consulting Agreement has a term of thirty-six months. Under the terms of the Senior Consulting Agreement, Mr. O'Donovan has agreed to provide certain consulting services, and to be available on a full-time basis, to the Company and the Community Bank as a Senior Lending Consultant with respect to the Community Bank's lending operations, as may reasonably be requested from time to time by the Company's Chief Executive Officer or certain designated officers. Additionally, the Senior Consulting Agreement provides that Mr. O'Donovan agreed to continue to serve as a member of the Company's and the Community Bank's Boards of Directors (as requested by the respective Boards and subject to the Company's and the Community Bank's customary nomination, election, and appointment processes). The Senior Consulting Agreement includes covenants regarding the confidentiality of information, non-competition, and non-solicitation with respect to the Company's and the Community Bank's employees or customers. In consideration for his services and for the non-competition covenants included in the Senior Consulting Agreement, Mr. O'Donovan receives a monthly consulting fee of $37,500; however, he does not receive directors' fees, advisory directors' fees, or other compensation for his service on the Boards. The Company or the Community Bank may terminate the Senior Consulting Agreement for cause (as defined in the agreement) or without cause upon providing thirty days' prior written notice. Mr. O'Donovan also may terminate the Senior Consulting Agreement by providing the Company and the Community Bank with thirty days' prior written notice. In the event Mr. O'Donovan terminates the Senior Consulting Agreement or the Company or the Community Bank terminate the agreement for cause, Mr. O'Donovan will receive payment only for accrued but unpaid monthly consulting fees and expenses due him through the last day he performs services under the Agreement. If a change in control (as defined in the Senior Consulting Agreement) of the Company or the Community Bank occurs during the term of the Senior Consulting Agreement and Mr. O'Donovan dies or terminates the consulting period within ninety days after the change in control, the term will automatically extend by fifteen months from the date of the change in control. The Company and the Community Bank also will pay Mr. O'Donovan or his estate the monthly consulting fees through the end of the extended term, as well as any then-accrued but unpaid consulting fees and expenses. The Senior Consulting Agreement also indemnifies Mr. O'Donovan for any excise taxes imposed under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code and any additional income, employment, and excise taxes imposed as a result of any change in control payments received by Mr. O'Donovan pursuant to the Senior Consulting Agreement.

The following table provides certain information with respect to the number of shares of Common Stock represented by outstanding stock options held by the Named Executive Officers as of December 31, 2005. Also reported are the values for "in-the-money" options representing the positive spread between the exercise price of any such existing stock options and the year-end price of the Common Stock.

Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners

The following table sets forth information as to those persons known by management to be beneficial owners of more than 5% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock on April 17, 2006 as disclosed in certain reports regarding such ownership filed by such persons and groups with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") in accordance with Sections 13(d) and 13(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). Other than those persons listed below, the Company is not aware of any person or group, as such term is defined in the Exchange Act, that beneficially owned more than 5% of the Common Stock as of April 17, 2006.

An independent corporate trustee has been appointed as the trustee for the ESOP (the "ESOP Trustee"). The ESOP Trustee must vote all allocated shares held in the ESOP in accordance with the instructions of the participants. Under the ESOP, unallocated shares will be voted by the ESOP Trustee in a manner calculated to most accurately reflect the instructions received from participants regarding the allocated stock so long as such vote is in accordance with the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"). ### ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

The federal banking laws require that all loans or extensions of credit to executive officers and directors must be made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, and follow substantially the same credit underwriting procedures as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons and must not involve more than the normal risk of repayment or present other unfavorable features. The Community Bank from time to time may make mortgage loans to its directors, officers, and employees, including consumer loans or loans to purchase or refinance personal residences, and may make loans secured by income-producing property to entities in which a director or officer has an ownership or, in the case of directors, a management interest, provided that all such loans are made in accordance with federal banking laws and are made in the ordinary course of business, do not involve more than normal risk of collectibility or present other unfavorable features, and are made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral requirements, as those prevailing at the same time for comparable transactions with unaffiliated persons. Additionally, in connection with the Company's acquisition of Haven Bancorp, Inc. and its mergers with Richmond County Financial Corp. and Roslyn Bancorp, Inc. and the related transactions involving their affiliated banking institutions, New York Community Bank assumed loans that had been made by the acquired or merged banking institutions to certain of their executive officers and directors and/or their immediate family members or affiliated business entities. No such loan was classified by the Community Bank as of December 31, 2005 as a non-accrual, past due, restructured, or potential problem loan.

Alternatively, the Audit Committee may adopt a policy for pre-approval of audit and permitted non-audit services by the independent registered public accounting firm. In 2005, all audit-related services, tax services, and other services were approved by the Audit Committee, which concluded that the provision of such services by KPMG LLP was compatible with the maintenance of that firm's independence in the conduct of its audit functions.
