Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Securities

In March 2011 we issued convertible notes (the “Convertible Notes”) to investors who loaned the Company an aggregate of approximately $4.2 million. The Convertible Notes were subject to automatic conversion into shares of our common stock, at a conversion price of $2.50 per share, in the event we consummated a financing in the amount of at least $5 million. In October and November 2011 note holders of $575,000 of the original approximately $4.2 million Convertible Notes exercised their right to convert their notes and accrued interest and were issued 232,125 shares of our common stock. The Convertible Notes are described in more detail in our Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC on March 31, 2011.

On December 13, 2011 we consummated a financing in which the gross proceeds to the company were in excess of $5 million. Accordingly, on December 14, 2011, the remaining outstanding principal balance totaling approximately $3.6 million of Convertible Notes, plus accrued interest, was automatically converted into 1,612,697 additional shares of our common stock. As of December 14, 2011, the entire original total of approximately $4.2 million Convertible Note has been retired and converted into shares of our common stock.

The issuance of shares of our common stock upon the conversion of the Convertible Notes are exempt from registration under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933 (the “Securities Act”) and regulations promulgated thereunder. The shares of common stock issued upon conversion of the Convertible Notes will not be registered under the Securities Act, or any state securities laws, and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act.
