NOTICE TO THE MARKET

São Paulo, August 15, 2016 - BRASKEM S.A. (BM&FBOVESPA: BRKM3, BRKM5 and BRKM6; NYSE: BAK; LATIBEX: XBRK) hereby announces to the market that Everson Bassinello was appointed as Chief Compliance Officer (CCO) of the Company.

With 16 years of experience in compliance and risk management, Everson has a degree in Mechanical Engineering from the Federal University of Itajubá (UNIFEI), with a graduate degree in Business Administration from the Getulio Vargas Foundation (FGV), an MBA from the Business School São Paulo (BSP) and a specialization degree in corporate governance from the Kellogg School of Management, in the United States.

The CCO reports to the Compliance Committee, an independent body of the Executive Board created in May this year and directly linked to Braskem's Board of Directors, and will have as his main duties: (i) monitoring the exposure to risks and internal control systems; (ii) managing the internal audit; (iii) supervising the Ethics Line Channel; (iv) coordinating the Ethics Committee; (v) disseminating the Code of Conduct; (vi) conducting compliance training; and (vii) supervising the corporate policies related to compliance issues.

The contracting of the CCO is in line with the Company's strategy to continuously improve its Compliance Program, focusing on the best market and governance practices.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements. These statements are statements that are not historical facts, and are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.
