Item 3.03 Material Modifications to Rights of Security Holders.

On May 11, 2006, New Century Financial Corporation (the "Company"), following approval by its stockholders at the 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company held on May 10, 2006, filed Articles of Amendment with the State Department of Assessments and Taxation of the State of Maryland, to amend the Company's charter as follows:

· Section 5.1(a) of Article V was amended to increase the number of authorized shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 (the "Preferred Stock"), from 10,000,000 shares to 25,000,000 shares. The increase in the number of authorized shares of Preferred Stock, under certain circumstances, may have an anti-takeover effect by diluting the voting power of a person seeking to acquire control of the Company through a tender offer, proxy contest or otherwise. Such effect, however, was not the intent of the Company's board of directors in authorizing the additional shares of Preferred Stock.

· Section 5.2 of Article V was amended to: (i) amend the definition of "Excepted Holder Limit" to allow the Company's board of directors to grant exemptions to the ownership limits on the value or number of shares of the Company a single stockholder or any group or affiliated stockholders may hold, as such ownership limit is defined in the Company's charter, without having to reduce the ownership limit applicable to all other stockholders; (ii) amend the board of director's ability to increase the ownership limit such that no increase of the ownership limit may be made if after giving effect to such increase, the Company would otherwise fail to qualify as a real estate investment trust; and (iii) provide clarifying language in several instances where needed, including the legend to be placed on stock certificates and the prohibition on record ownership of shares of the Company's capital stock by "disqualified organizations" (as such term is defined in Section 860(e)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended).

Item 8.01 Other Events.
