This Report on Form 6-K contains a press release dated February 2, 2009, announcing the appointment of Arnaud de Weert as a new member of the Infineon Technologies AG Supervisory Board, effective February 1, 2009.

News Release / Presseinformation

Arnaud de Weert joins Infineon Supervisory Board

Neubiberg, Germany February 2, 2009 Based on the decision made by the Local Court in Munich, Arnaud de Weert has been appointed as a new member of the Infineon Technologies AG Supervisory Board, effective February 1, this year. De Weert follows Prof. Dr. Martin Winterkorn, who resigned from this office, officially as of January 31, 2009. Arnaud de Weert (45) has been president of Novelis Europa in Zurich since May 1, 2006. The world leader in aluminum rolling supplies international customers in the automotive, building, packaging, transport and printing industries. Prior to this, de Weert was, among other things, employed in different managerial positions at General Electric in England, Spain and the Netherlands for nine years. The Infineon Technologies AG Supervisory Board will profit from this solid base of international experience.

About Infineon
