The Sielox Loan Agreement contains customary representations and warranties, events of default and covenants, including, among other things, covenants that restrict the ability of Borrower to incur certain additional indebtedness or to issue equity interests, and covenants that impose certain reporting requirements on Sielox.

B.

In addition, effective as of August 24, 2009, Costar Video Systems, LLC (Costar), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, entered into a Revolving Credit and Security Agreement with BBVA Compass Bank (Compass) (the Costar Loan Agreement , and together with the Sielox Loan Agreement the Loan Agreements).

On August 25, 2009 Costar drew down $1,997,824.04 under the Costar Loan Agreement, which funds were used to pay off, in part, the outstanding obligations under that certain Loan Agreement with the Bank of Texas, N.A. (as described more fully in Item 1.02). As of August 25, 2009, Costar has outstanding borrowings of $1,997,824.04 under the Costar Loan Agreement.

Borrowings under the Costar Loan Agreement accrue interest at a rate equal to the greater of (i) 5% per annum and (ii) the 30-day LIBOR plus 3% per annum. The interest rate under the Costar Loan Agreement rate as of August 25, 2009 is 5.0%.

The Costar Loan Agreement contain customary representations and warranties, events of default and covenants, including, among other things, covenants that restrict the ability of Borrower to incur certain additional indebtedness or to issue equity interests. The Costar Loan Agreement also contains financial covenants restricting Borrower's Debt Service Coverage Ratio, Total Debt to Tangible Net Worth Ratio, and Quick Ratio (as each of such terms is defined in the Loan Agreements), as well as limiting capital expenditures of the Borrower and requiring each of the Borrower and the Company to maintain a specified Tangible Net Worth.

The foregoing description of the Loan Agreements, the Promissory Notes and the Master Revolving Promissory Note, the Security Agreement, and the Unlimited Guaranty does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the agreements which are filed as Exhibits, hereto, and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement

As of August 25, 2009, in connection with entry into the Loan Agreements as described in Item 1.01 above, the Company, Sielox and Costar (the Bank of Texas Borrowers) have repaid in full $2,747,824.04, representing the entire outstanding balance under that certain Business Loan Agreement (Asset Based), dated as of August 16, 2008, by and among the Company, Costar and Bank of Texas, N.A. (the Bank of Texas), as amended and restated by that certain Amended and Restated Loan Agreement, dated as of December 10, 2008, by and among the Bank of Texas Borrowers and Bank of Texas (as amended, the Texas Loan Agreement), and related agreements, including but not limited to the Amended and Restated Promissory Note, dated as of December 10, 2008, granted by the Bank of Texas Borrowers in favor of Bank of Texas (collectively, the Texas Loan Documents). As of such date, (i) each of the Texas Loan Documents have been terminated, (ii) the lien or security interest in favor of the Bank of Texas with respect to the assets of the Bank of Texas Borrowers has been terminated, and (iii) all obligations of the Bank of Texas Borrowers under the Loan Documents have been satisfied in full.

Sielox and Costar entered into the Loan Agreements to provide the Company with the financial stability of new credit facilities with longer maturity dates than the existing credit facility with the Bank of Texas, as well as to pay off all obligations under the Texas Loan Agreement, given that the Company was in violation of certain financial ratios under the Texas Loan Agreement and that the Company received a Notice of Default from the Bank of Texas, alleging that the Company's entry into the stipulation of dismissal with regards to the Berger v. L Q Corp. litigation (previously disclosed in the Company's Form 10-Q, filed on August 14, 2009), constituted a default under the Texas Loan Agreement. As previously disclosed, the Company disagreed with and disputed the allegation in the Notice of Default.
