99	Notice to London Stock Exchange dated 05 September 2018 Unilever Prices $1.5 Billion Bond on The US Market

Exhibit 99

UNILEVER PRICES $1.5 BILLION BOND ON THE U.S. MARKET

Unilever has on 4 September 2018 priced a triple-tranche $1.5 billion bond on the U.S. market. $500 million 3.000 per cent fixed rate notes are due 7 March 2022, $500 million 3.250 per cent fixed rate notes are due 7 March 2024 and a further $500 million 3.500 per cent fixed rate notes are due 22 March 2028. The $500 million 3.500 per cent fixed rate notes due 22 March 2028 have the same terms (other than the price to public and issue date) as the $800 million 3.500 per cent fixed rate notes issued by Unilever on 22 March 2018. The bond offering is scheduled to close on 7 September 2018.

This offering is being made only by means of a prospectus and related prospectus supplement. This announcement may contain forward-looking statements, including 'forward-looking statements' within the meaning of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as 'will', 'aim', 'expects', 'anticipates', 'intends' or 'intention', 'looks', 'believes', 'vision', or the negative of these terms and other similar expressions of future acts, performance or results, and their negatives, are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based upon current expectations and assumptions regarding anticipated developments and other factors affecting the Unilever Group (the "Group"). They are not historical facts, nor are they guarantees of future acts, performance or results.

Because these forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, there are important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. Among other risks and uncertainties, the material or principal factors which could cause actual results to differ materially are: Unilever's global brands not meeting consumer preferences; Unilever's ability to innovate and remain competitive; Unilever's investment choices in its portfolio management; inability to find sustainable solutions to support long-term growth; customer relationships; the recruitment and retention of talented employees; disruptions in our supply chain; the cost of raw materials and commodities; the production of safe and high quality products; secure and reliable IT infrastructure; successful execution of acquisitions, divestitures and business transformation projects; economic and political risks and natural disasters; the effect of climate change on Unilever's business; financial risks; failure to meet high and ethical standards; and managing regulatory, tax and legal matters. These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this announcement. Except as required by any applicable law or regulation, the Group expressly disclaims any obligation or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements contained herein to reflect any change in the Group's expectations with regard thereto or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based. Further details of potential risks and uncertainties affecting the Group are described in the Group's filings with the London Stock Exchange, Euronext Amsterdam and the US Securities and Exchange Commission, including in the Annual Report on Form 20-F 2017 and the Unilever Annual Report and Accounts 2017.
