Item 5. Other Events.

On February 21, 2002, Computer Associates International, Inc. ("CA") issued a press release to announce that contrary to a filed news report, it had not drawn down one of its credit lines to repay outstanding obligations on its commercial paper program. The press release also contains other information about CA's recent debt repayments. CA held a conference call on February 22, 2002 to discuss the matters contained in the press release and other recent events. This announcement is generally available via newswire, the CA web page (<http://ca.com/press>) and furnished herewith. Information regarding access to the conference call is contained in the press release.

- (c) Exhibit

99 - Press release dated February 21, 2002

This filing contains "forward-looking statements" that involve risks and uncertainties. Actual results could differ materially from those projected or forecasted in the forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially include: risks and instability associated with changes in the company's business model; risks associated with changes in the way in which the company accounts for license revenue; the difficulty of making financial projections resulting from the significant percentage of CA's quarterly sales consummated in the last few days of the quarter; the emergence of new competitive initiatives resulting from rapid technological advances or changes in pricing in the market; market acceptance of new products and services and continued acceptance of existing products and services; risks associated with the entry into new markets; the risks associated with integrating acquired businesses and technologies; the effects of war or acts of terrorism; dependency on large dollar licensing transactions; delays in product delivery; reliance on mainframe capacity growth; the ability to recruit and retain qualified personnel; business conditions in the distributed systems and mainframe software and hardware markets; uncertainty and volatility associated with Internet and eBusiness related activities; use of software patent rights to attempt to limit competition; adverse results of litigation; fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates; the volatility of the international marketplace; uncertainties relative to global economic conditions; and other risks described in filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which are available at www.sec.gov. CA assumes no obligation to update the information contained herein, except to the extent otherwise provided in the securities laws.
