FIRST FARMERS & MERCHANTS CORPORATION REPORTS 2006 FINANCIAL RESULTS

Columbia, Tenn., March 13, 2007 - First Farmers and Merchants Corporation, an $820 million bank holding company serving seven Middle Tennessee counties, through its wholly-owned subsidiary, First Farmers and Merchants Bank reported that loans, deposits and total assets all increased during 2006, as did interest and fee income, retained earnings, total equity and the dividend paid to shareholders. The Bank's Trust and Financial Management Department also continued to grow last year.

"This is a very exciting time in the history of First Farmers & Merchants Bank" said Chairman and Chief Executive Officer T. Randy Stevens. "Our Board of Directors continued in 2006 to pursue strategic growth and take initiatives in an effort to increase common stock value and reward our shareholders for their support. These initiatives included paying a total of $3,796,000 in dividends and repurchasing 80,000 shares of common stock."

On the income side, total interest and dividend income more than doubled its rate of increase from the previous year- rising 8.5 percent from December 31, 2006 to December 31, 2005 compared to a 4.1 percent increase the previous year. Loans, less unearned income and allowance for possible loan losses, grew 3.1 percent. Fee income also grew, up 15.5 percent. Service fees on deposit accounts increased 7.4 percent and other service fees and commissions rose by 14 percent.

The Bank's Trust and Financial Management Department, which management believes to be one of the most successful in Tennessee for many years, continued to grow in 2006, delivering 4.6 percent more income in 2006 than in 2005.

Shareholders enjoyed a 6.3 percent larger dividend in 2006 over 2005, and retained earnings grew at a double-digit rate to 11.7 percent. Finally, total assets increased 0.9 percent, deposits rose 2.2 percent and total equity grew 0.7 percent.

Founded in 1909, First Farmers & Merchants Bank (Member FDIC) is one of the largest independent banks in Tennessee. Headquartered in Columbia, the bank operates 18 offices in a seven-county area that includes Maury, Lawrence, Marshall, Hickman, Dickson, Giles and Williamson counties. It is distinguished by its commitment to traditional, personal banking relationships that incorporate state-of-the-art technology to provide the highest possible level of service.
