For Immediate Release

Teva announces Sale of its Israeli Veterinary Business to Phibro Animal Health

Jerusalem, Israel, October 16, 2008 - Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. (Nasdaq: TEVA) announced today that it has entered into a definitive agreement to sell its Israeli based veterinary business unit to Phibro Animal Health Corporation, for total consideration of approximately $47 million.

The transaction is subject to certain conditions, including Israeli antitrust approvals and other closing conditions, and is expected to close in the first quarter of 2009.

Teva's veterinary business unit in Israel develops, manufactures and markets veterinary products for poultry and other large farm animals, both in Israel and internationally, particularly in Southeast Asia, Africa, Latin America and Eastern Europe. The business operates one manufacturing facility in Israel with approximately 90 employees. Phibro Animal Health Corporation operates in Israel through its subsidiary, Koffolk.

Safe Harbor Statement under the U. S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995:

This release contains forward-looking statements, which express the current beliefs and expectations of management. Such statements are based on management's current beliefs and expectations and involve a number of known and unknown risks and uncertainties that could cause our future results, performance or achievements to differ significantly from the results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include risks relating to: our ability to successfully develop and commercialize additional pharmaceutical products, the introduction of competing generic equivalents, the extent to which we may obtain U.S. market exclusivity for certain of our new generic products and regulatory changes that may prevent us from utilizing exclusivity periods, competition from brand-name companies that are under increased pressure to counter generic products, or competitors that seek to delay the introduction of generic products, the impact of consolidation of our distributors and customers, potential liability for sales of generic products prior to a final resolution of outstanding patent litigation, including that relating to the generic versions of Allegra® , Neurontin® , Lotrel® and Protonix® , the effects of competition on our innovative products, especially Copaxone® sales, the impact of pharmaceutical industry regulation and pending legislation that could affect the pharmaceutical industry, the difficulty of predicting U.S. Food and Drug Administration, European Medicines Agency and other regulatory authority approvals, the regulatory environment and changes in the health policies and structures of various countries, our ability to achieve expected results through our innovative R&D efforts, our ability to successfully identify, consummate and integrate acquisitions, including the pending acquisition of Barr Pharmaceuticals Inc., potential exposure to product liability claims to the extent not covered by insurance, dependence on the effectiveness of our patents and other protections for innovative products, significant operations worldwide that may be adversely affected by terrorism, political or economical instability or major hostilities, supply interruptions or delays that could result from the complex manufacturing of our products and our global supply chain, environmental risks, fluctuations in currency, exchange and interest rates, and other factors that are discussed in this report and in our other filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC").
