Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Company is a Missouri corporation. Section 351.355(1) of the Revised Statutes of Missouri provides that a corporation may indemnify an officer, director, employee or agent of the corporation in any action, suit or proceeding (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and settlement amounts actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. Section 351.355(2) provides that the corporation may indemnify any such person in any action or suit by or in the right of the corporation against expenses (including attorneys' fees) and settlement amounts actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of the action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no such person may be indemnified in respect of any matter in which he has been adjudged liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation, unless authorized by the court. Section 351.355(3) provides that, except as otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, the corporation shall indemnify any such person against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the action, suit or proceeding if he has been successful in defense of such action, suit or proceeding and if such action, suit or proceeding is one for which the corporation may indemnify him under Section 351.355(1) or (2). Section 351.355(7) provides that the corporation shall have the power to give any further indemnity to any such person, in addition to the indemnity otherwise authorized under Section 351.355, provided such further indemnity is authorized, directed or provided for in (i) the articles of incorporation of the corporation, (ii) any duly adopted amendment thereof, or (iii) any bylaw or agreement of the corporation which has been adopted by the shareholders of the corporation, and provided further that no such indemnity may indemnify any person from or on account of such person's conduct which was finally adjudged to have been knowingly fraudulent, deliberately dishonest or willful misconduct.

The Company's Articles of Incorporation (the "Articles") contain provisions indemnifying the Company's directors and officers (other than a director or officer suing on his own behalf or in the right of the Company) to the full extent permitted by law. The Articles provide that the Company will indemnify its directors and officers against all expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and settlement amounts actually and reasonably incurred by them in any action, suit or proceeding, including any action by or on behalf of the Company, on account of their services as a director or officer of the Company, or their services as a director, officer, employee, member or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, trade or industry association or other enterprise when they are serving in such capacities at the request of the Company, excepting only cases where the conduct of such person is finally adjudged to be knowingly fraudulent, deliberately dishonest or willful misconduct. The Articles further provide that the Company shall pay or advance defense expenses to any director or officer of the Company upon receipt of an undertaking from such director or officer to repay those expenses if it is ultimately determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified. The Articles further provide that the Company may indemnify employees and agents of the Company to the same extent as provided in the previous sentence or to such lesser extent as the Company in its discretion may deem appropriate.

The Articles also authorize the Company to enter into indemnification agreements with any director, officer, employee or agent of the Company providing for indemnification rights to the maximum extent permitted by law. The Company has entered into an indemnification agreement with each member of its board of directors. Each indemnification agreement was approved by all members of the Board of Directors at meetings of the Board of Directors. In each agreement, the Company agreed to indemnify the director and hold him harmless to the full extent authorized or permitted by the General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri, or by any amendment thereof, or by any other statutory provision authorizing or permitting such indemnification which may be adopted, and specifically against any and all expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the director in connection with certain threatened, pending or completed actions, suits or proceedings, to which the director is, was or becomes a party. Indemnification will not be provided under certain circumstances set forth in the indemnification agreements.

The directors and officers of the Company are covered by an insurance policy which indemnifies them against certain civil liabilities including, under certain circumstances, liabilities under the federal securities laws which might be incurred by them in such capacity.

The foregoing summaries are subject to the complete text of the statute, the Company's Articles and Bylaws, and the arrangements referred to above, and are qualified in their entirety by reference thereto.

Item 9. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

Provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(h) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
