PROXY STATEMENT

This proxy statement is mailed to shareholders commencing on or about April 2, 2003, in connection with the solicitation by the board of directors (the "Board") of SWIFT ENERGY COMPANY (the "Company") of proxies to be voted at the annual meeting of shareholders to be held at the Wyndham Greenspoint Hotel, 12400 Greenspoint Drive, Houston, Texas, on May 13, 2003 at 4:00 p.m., Houston time, and any adjournment thereof (the "Meeting"), for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice. Management does not know of any matters other than those listed on the Notice that will be presented for action at the Meeting.

The Annual Report to Shareholders covering the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 will be mailed to each shareholder entitled to vote at the Meeting on or before the date of mailing this proxy statement.

The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Company. In addition to solicitations by mail, a number of regular employees of the Company may solicit proxies in person or by telephone. The Company has also retained Georgeson Shareholder Communications Inc. as sole proxy solicitor. The Company estimates the cost of retaining Georgeson to be approximately $7,500.

QUORUM AND VOTING

The record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting was the close of business on March 28, 2003. On the record date, there were 27,284,710 shares of common stock of the Company, par value $.01 per share, issued and outstanding and entitled to vote.

Each share of common stock entitles the holder to one vote on each matter presented at the Meeting. Proxies will be voted in accordance with the directions specified thereon. Any proxy on which no direction is specified will be voted for the election of all nominees named therein to the Board for the terms indicated, in favor of amendment of the 2001 Omnibus Stock Compensation Plan and otherwise at the discretion of the persons designated as proxies. A shareholder may revoke his proxy at any time prior to the voting thereof by attending and voting at the Meeting or by filing with the Secretary of the Company a written revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares entitled to be voted at the Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum to transact business. If a quorum is not present or represented at the Meeting, a majority of the votes represented at the Meeting may adjourn the Meeting from time to time without notice, other than an announcement at the Meeting, until a quorum is present or represented.

An automated system administered by the Company's transfer agent tabulates the votes. Abstentions are included in the determination of the number of shares present and voting and are counted as abstentions in tabulating the votes cast on nominations or proposals presented to shareholders. Broker nonvotes are not included in the determination of the number of shares present and voting or as a vote with respect to such nominations or proposals.

PROPOSAL 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

At the Meeting, three Class I directors are to be elected for terms to expire at the 2006 Annual Meeting. The Company has three classes of directors and each year the directors in one of these classes are nominated to serve three year terms, or until their successors have been duly elected and qualified. The persons named as proxies on the accompanying proxy card have been designated by the Board, and unless authority is withheld by a shareholder on a proxy card, they intend to vote for the election of all of the nominees named below to the Board. If any nominee should become unavailable or unable to serve as a director, the persons named as proxies may vote for a substitute selected by them, or the Board may be reduced accordingly; however, the Board is not aware of any circumstances likely to render any nominee unavailable. Any director elected by the Board to fill a vacancy will be elected for the unexpired term of such director's predecessor in office.

Under the Company's 1990 Nonqualified Stock Option Plan, as amended (the "1990 Nonqualified Plan"), each nonemployee director is granted options to purchase 10,000 shares of the Company's common stock on the date he first becomes a nonemployee director. Additionally, on the day after each annual meeting of the shareholders, each individual who is a nonemployee director on that date is granted options to purchase 5,000 shares of the Company's common stock. The 1990 Nonqualified Plan permits each nonemployee director to hold a maximum of 66,000 options to purchase shares of common stock under the Plan, subject to adjustments for changes in capitalization affecting the stock of the Company.

One nonemployee director exercised options during the year ended December 31, 2002, acquiring a total of 6,050 shares of the Company's common stock.

The following table presents information as of December 31, 2002 regarding the total number of unexercised options held by the nonemployee directors under the 1990 Nonqualified Plan. In addition to his fees as a non-employee director, Mr. Virgil Swift receives compensation pursuant to a consulting agreement. Under his consulting agreement, which has been in effect since July 2000, Mr. Swift is paid $5,000 per month for providing advisory services to key employees, officers and directors, especially in the area of the Company's New Zealand oil and gas exploration and production operations and as otherwise requested by the Chairman of the Board and the President. In 2002, Mr. Swift received a special grant of 22,000 options under the 2001 Omnibus Stock Compensation Plan for his consulting services. The consulting agreement is terminable by either party without cause upon two weeks written notice. During the term of the consulting agreement, upon a change of control, all outstanding stock options held by Mr. Swift will become 100% vested.

Meetings of the Board

During 2002, the Board met on 12 occasions either in person or telephonically. In addition, management confers frequently with its directors on an informal basis to discuss Company affairs. During 2002, each director attended at least 75% of the aggregate of (i) the total number of meetings of the Board and (ii) the total number of meetings of all committees of the Board on which he served.

Committees of the Board

The Board of the Company has established the following standing committees: Audit, Corporate Governance, Compensation, Executive and Special Transactions Committees. Descriptions of the functions of the Audit, Corporate Governance and Compensation Committees are set forth below.

Audit Committee. Under currently existing New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") standards, all of the members of audit committees must be independent. Additionally, the NYSE has standards of experience for audit committee members. The members of the Swift audit committee satisfy the NYSE's current criteria for both independence and experience.

Under new SEC rules, companies will be required to disclose whether their audit committees have an "audit committee financial expert" as defined in Item 401(h) of Regulation SK under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act") and whether that expert is "independent" as that term is used in Item 7(d)(3)(iv) of Schedule 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"). The board of directors has determined that Henry C. Montgomery, chairman of the Audit Committee, and Clyde W. Smith, Jr., are "audit committee financial experts." Each of them is "independent," as well.

The audit committee provides assistance to the Company's directors in fulfilling the Board's oversight responsibility as to the Company's accounting, auditing and financial reporting practices and as to the quality and integrity of the financial reports of the Company. The specific functions and responsibilities of the audit committee are set forth in the written charter of the audit committee adopted by the Board. The audit committee reviews and reassesses its charter annually and recommends any changes to the Board for approval. A report of the audit committee appears under the caption "Audit Committee Report," below. Messrs. Montgomery (Chairman), Smith and Evans are members of the audit committee, which held eight meetings in 2002.

Edgar Filing: SWIFT ENERGY CO - Form DEF 14A

Corporate Governance Committee. The Corporate Governance Committee reviews the performance of directors and recommends persons for directorships. The Corporate Governance Committee may consider nominees recommended by shareholders, upon written request by a shareholder addressed to any member of the committee. See "Shareholder Proposals" herein. This committee reviews corporate governance duties and procedures and, where necessary, recommends changes to the Board. This committee also administers the Company's conflicts of interest policies. Messrs. Evans (Chairman), Smith, Withrow and Galvin are members of the Corporate Governance Committee. The Corporate Governance Committee held three meetings in 2002.

Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee at all times is comprised of at least three directors who are "nonemployee directors" as defined in Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act. The Compensation Committee has sole authority to administer the Company's stock option plans and stock purchase plan, although it has no discretion as to awards of stock options under the 1990 Nonqualified Stock Option Plan for nonemployee directors (as amended and restated as of May 13, 1997). The Compensation Committee also reviews and makes recommendations regarding the compensation levels of the Company's executive officers. Messrs. Smith (Chairman), Montgomery, Withrow and Galvin are members of the Compensation Committee, which held three meetings in 2002.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires the Company's directors and executive officers, and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file with the SEC and the NYSE initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of common stock of the Company. Officers, directors and greater than 10% shareholders are required by regulation to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

To the Company's knowledge, based solely on a review of the copies of Forms 3 and 4 furnished to the Company during the 2002 fiscal year, and Forms 5 furnished to the Company with respect to such fiscal year, the Company's officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners complied with all Section 16(a) filing requirements except as follows: Mr. David Wesson inadvertently filed a Form 4 for the month of November 2002 three days late. Mr. Harold Withrow and Mr. Joe D'Amico each inadvertently filed a Form 4 late, filing in November 2002 for a transaction that occurred in January 2002.

TO AMEND THE COMPANY'S 2001 OMNIBUS STOCK COMPENSATION PLAN TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF SHARES SUBJECT TO THE PLAN BY 500,000 SHARES FROM 1.5 MILLION SHARES TO 2.0 MILLION SHARES

2001 Omnibus Stock Compensation Plan

The purpose of the 2001 Omnibus Stock Compensation Plan (the "2001 Plan") is to promote and advance the interests of the Company by aiding the Company in hiring, retaining and rewarding qualified employees, and increasing managerial and key employees' interest in the growth and financial success of the Company by offering stock options and stock and cash bonus incentives based on performance. Copies of the 2001 Plan as filed with the SEC may be obtained by going to the Company's website at www.swiftenergy.com or the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. The 2001 Plan appears as an exhibit to the Company's registration statement on Form S-8 filed with the SEC on August 9, 2001. It may also be obtained without charge by writing to the Company at 16825 Northchase Drive, Suite 400, Houston, Texas 77060, Attention: Corporate Secretary, or calling (281) 874-2700.

An aggregate of 1.5 million shares of the Company's common stock are currently reserved for awards under the 2001 Plan, which represents approximately 6% of the Company's issued and outstanding shares as of December 31, 2002. As of December 31, 2002, approximately 1,206,390 options were outstanding under the 2001 Plan, meaning that only 293,610 options remain available for future grant. The Board of Directors has authorized an amendment to the 2001 Plan, subject to shareholder approval, to increase the number of shares of the Company's common stock available for issuance under the 2001 Plan from 1.5 million shares to 2.0 million shares.

The Company currently anticipates that it will, as a general matter, grant options on an annual basis, although future option grant recipients, and future option grant levels, have not been determined. Therefore, the number, amount and type of awards to be received by or allocated to eligible persons in the future under the 2001 Plan cannot be determined at this time. The Company has not approved any awards under the 2001 Plan that are conditioned upon shareholder approval of the proposed plan amendment. On March 28, 2003, the closing price of the Company's common stock was $8.87. On that date, approximately 183 employees were eligible to participate in the 2001 Plan.

Summary of the 2001 Plan

The 2001 Plan authorizes the Company to grant various awards ("Awards") to officers and other key employees of the Company or its subsidiaries, including incentive stock options ("ISOs"), nonqualified stock options ("NSOs"), "reload" options ("Reload Options"), deferred compensation stock options ("DCSOs"), stock appreciation rights ("SARs"), restricted stock grants ("Restricted Stock Grants"), restricted unit grants ("Restricted Unit Grants") and performance bonus awards ("Performance Bonus Awards").

Administration. The Compensation Committee of the Board has sole authority to construe and interpret the 2001 Plan, to select participants ("Participants"), to grant Awards and to establish the terms and conditions of Awards. The Compensation Committee is allowed to give the Company's chief executive officer specifically limited written authority to grant Awards to new employees. Currently, he may grant no more than 10,000 options to any new employee, nor more than 30,000 options in any fiscal quarter. Members of the Compensation Committee are not eligible to receive Awards under the 2001 Plan.

Eligibility. Any employee of the Company or its subsidiaries, including, without limitation, any officer, employee-director, or any consultant, is eligible to receive Awards under the 2001 Plan. Nonemployee directors are not eligible to participate in the 2001 Plan. The 2001 Plan sets forth various restrictions upon exercise of Awards, and allows extension of the period of exercisability following the retirement, death, disability or termination of a Participant. The Compensation Committee also has the discretion to accelerate the vesting or exercisability of options under such events.

Edgar Filing: SWIFT ENERGY CO - Form DEF 14A

Shares Subject to 2001 Plan. The maximum number of shares of common stock in respect of which Awards may currently be granted under the 2001 Plan (the "Plan Maximum") is 1,500,000 (2,000,000 if Proposal 2 passes), subject to appropriate adjustment in the event of a reorganization, stock split, stock dividend, merger, consolidation or other change in capitalization of the Company affecting its common stock.

Term. The 2001 Plan will terminate on December 31, 2010 unless sooner terminated by the Board, except with respect to Awards then outstanding.

Amendment. The Board may amend the 2001 Plan at any time, except that (1) the Board must obtain shareholder approval to make any amendment to the 2001 Plan that would increase the total number of shares reserved for issuance (except for adjustments necessary to reflect changes in capitalization), materially modify eligibility requirements or materially increase the benefits accruing to Participants under the 2001 Plan, and (2) certain amendments are altogether prohibited (e.g., any amendment that would impair a Participant's vested rights).

Incentive Stock Options. Options designated as ISOs within the meaning of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), together with the regulations promulgated thereunder, may be granted under the 2001 Plan up to the Plan Maximum. To the extent that any portion of an ISO that first becomes exercisable by any Participant (under all of the stock option plans of the Company or its subsidiaries) during any calendar year exceeds the $100,000 aggregate fair market value limitation of Section 422(d) of the Code, or such other limit as may be imposed by the Code, such excess portion shall be treated as a NSO. ISOs shall be exercisable for such periods as the Compensation Committee shall determine, but in no event for a period exceeding ten years or, for Participants who own more than ten percent (10%) of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of the Company, five years.

Nonqualified Stock Options. NSOs may be granted for a stated number of shares of common stock and will be exercisable for such period or periods as the Compensation Committee shall determine. Holders of NSOs may elect, subject to the discretion of the Compensation Committee, to have the Company withhold from shares to be delivered upon exercise of an NSO, the number of shares necessary to satisfy any withholding taxes attributable to the exercise, so long as the amount withheld does not exceed the minimum statutory tax withholding attributable to the transfer.

Exercisability. ISOs and NSOs will become exercisable in installments as determined in its sole discretion by the Compensation Committee although it is generally anticipated in keeping with past Company practice that such options may be exercised as to 20% installments on each of the first five anniversary dates of the date of grant or such other period as may be designated by the Compensation Committee. The exercise price for options may be paid in cash or, if acceptable to the Compensation Committee, by delivery of shares of common stock already owned by the Participant for more than six months and having a market value equal to the exercise price.

Option Exercise Prices. NSOs and DCSOs may be issued at any exercise price that the Compensation Committee determines. The exercise price of an ISO shall be at least one hundred percent (100%) of the fair market value of the common stock on the date of grant and at least one hundred ten percent (110%) of the fair market value of the common stock on the date of grant to ten percent shareholders.

Reload Options. Under the 2001 Plan, whenever a Participant holding an ISO or NSO exercises an option (the "Original Option") and pays the exercise price by tendering shares of common stock (a "stock-for-stock exercise"), the Company may grant a "Reload Option" to the Participant which provides that Participant an option to purchase the exact number of shares tendered in the stock-for-stock exercise at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of such shares at the date of exercise of the Original Option. Reload Options may be granted on the exercise of Original Options as well as on the exercise of Reload Options. Reload Options are not exercisable after the later of the expiration of the option term of the Original Option or two years following the date of grant of the Reload Option. Except as described above, the terms and conditions of Reload Options will be identical to the terms and conditions of the related Original Options. Reload Options are designed to encourage stock-for-stock exercises by Participants, because when a Reload Option is granted to a Participant, the Participant may make a stock-for-stock exercise without necessarily suffering a dilution in percentage ownership of the Company's common stock. At the same time, the Participant will be able to participate fully in any future appreciation in the Company's common stock, as if the Original Option had been exercised for cash.

Transferability. The Compensation Committee may allow transfer of NSOs to family members, trusts and partnerships for their benefit or owned by them, or to charitable trusts. Options held by transferees are subject to the same restrictions and forfeiture upon termination of employment applicable to the Original Option holder. ISOs are not transferable except by will or the laws of descent and distribution.

Change of Control. In the event of a change of control of the Company described in the 2001 Plan, all stock options and SARs outstanding shall become fully vested and fully exercisable (other than certain options granted within a year prior to the change of control), and all restrictions and conditions of Restricted Stock Grants and Restricted Unit Grants outstanding shall be deemed to be satisfied, unless the Board expressly provides otherwise.

A "change of control" occurs upon: (i) any person or group becoming the beneficial owner of shares with 40% or more of the votes that may be cast for the election of directors; (ii) persons who were directors of the Company immediately prior to a cash tender offer, exchange offer, merger, sale of assets or contested election cease to constitute a majority of the Board; (iii) the shareholders of the Company approve a transaction in which the Company ceases to be an independent publicly owned corporation or approve the sale of all or substantially all the assets of the Company; or (iv) a tender offer or exchange offer is made for shares of the Company's common stock (other than by the Company) and shares are acquired thereunder.

Stock Grants, Restricted Stock Grants and Restricted Unit Grants. The Compensation Committee may in its discretion grant shares of common stock to a Participant with or without restrictions, vesting requirements or other conditions. A Restricted Stock Grant is an Award of shares of the Company's common stock that does not vest until certain conditions established by the Compensation Committee have been satisfied. At a minimum, the Participant shall be required to provide services to the Company for a period of at least one year from the date of the Award ("Restriction Period"). A Restricted Unit Grant is an Award of "units" subject to similar vesting conditions, each unit having a value equal either to a share of common stock or the amount by which a share of common stock appreciates in value between the date of grant and the date at which any restrictions lapse. During the Restriction Period, a Participant may vote and receive dividends on the shares of common stock awarded pursuant to a Restricted

Stock Grant, but may not sell, assign, transfer, pledge or otherwise encumber such shares.

When the Restriction Period expires or the restriction with respect to installments of shares lapses, the Participant is entitled to receive (1) with respect to a Restricted Stock Grant, shares of common stock free and clear of restrictions on sale, assignment, transfer, pledge or other encumbrances, or (2) with respect to a Restricted Unit Grant, payment for the value of the units.

Performance Bonus Awards. The Compensation Committee in its sole discretion may award Participants a Performance Bonus Award in the form of cash or shares of common stock, or a combination thereof, on such terms and conditions as the Compensation Committee designates. Performance Bonus Awards will be based upon evaluation of a variety of performance factors ("Performance Factors") applicable to the Company as a whole for a calendar year ("Company Factors") and upon an individual employee's performance for the year in contributing to the Company's performance ("Individual Factors"). The Performance Factors, their elements and their weighting may be changed from year to year by the Compensation Committee as the Compensation Committee deems advisable. Currently, the 2001 Plan includes as Company Factors (1) annual increases in earnings per share for the Company, (2) annual increases in the Company's cash flow per share, (3) annual increases in the volume of the Company's proved oil and gas reserves and (4) annual increases in the volume of the Company's probable oil and gas reserves. Currently the Individual Factors are: (a) the individual's performance in achieving either the Company's overall strategic objectives or the objectives of the individual's department or group within the Company and (b) the Compensation Committee's determination, in its sole discretion, of the extent to which the Participant's individual performance merits a bonus. The Compensation Committee will use the Company Factors and Individual Factors to determine a Participant's Performance Bonus Award. The Compensation Committee may also grant bonuses under the 2001 Plan which vary from those determined using the Performance Factors.

Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the 2001 Plan

The following is a summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences which are generally applicable to Awards granted under the 2001 Plan as of the date of this proxy statement. This summary is for general information only and does not address all of the tax consequences that may be relevant to a particular Participant in light of his, her or its personal circumstances. This discussion is not to be construed as tax advice. Participants are urged to consult their own tax advisors as to the particular tax consequences to them of their participation in the 2001 Plan, including the applicability of any U.S. federal tax laws or any state, local or foreign tax laws or any treaty, and any changes (or proposed changes) in applicable tax laws or interpretations thereof.

Grant of Incentive Stock Options and Stock Appreciation Rights. A Participant will not recognize any taxable income at the time an ISO or an SAR is granted and the Company will not be entitled to a federal income tax deduction at that time.

Exercise of Incentive Stock Options and Disposition of Common Stock Received upon Exercise. No taxable income will be recognized by a Participant exercising an ISO at the time of exercise. If an ISO Participant holds the shares received from the exercise of an ISO for the longer of two years after the date such option was granted or one year after the acquisition of the shares pursuant to such option, the difference between the exercise price and the amount realized upon disposition of the shares will constitute a long-term capital gain or loss, and the Company will not be allowed a federal income tax deduction with respect to that amount. If the shares acquired pursuant to the exercise of an ISO are disposed of by a Participant prior to either of these dates, the Participant will realize taxable ordinary income in an amount equal to the excess of the fair market value of the common stock purchased at the time of exercise over the exercise price. Correspondingly, the Company will usually be allowed a federal income tax deduction equal to that amount, predicated upon satisfaction of certain reporting obligations.

Alternative Minimum Tax. The difference between the exercise price and fair market value of shares received from the exercise of an ISO is generally an adjustment to income for purposes of the alternative minimum tax ("AMT"). The AMT, imposed to the extent it exceeds the taxpayer's regular tax, is 26% of an individual taxpayer's alternative minimum taxable income (28% in the case of alternative minimum taxable income in excess of $175,000). Alternative minimum taxable income is determined by adjusting regular taxable income for certain items, increasing that income by certain tax preference items and reducing this amount by the applicable exemption amount. Whether AMT applies to particular Participants depends on their individual circumstances. If a Participant incurs AMT as a result of the exercise of an ISO, the Participant will generally be allowed an AMT credit carryover for use in future years.

Nonqualified Stock Options and Deferred Compensation Stock Options. A Participant will generally not recognize any taxable income at the time a NSO or DCSO is granted, and the Company will not be entitled to a federal income tax deduction at that time. However, because NSOs and DCSOs may be granted by the Compensation Committee at exercise prices substantially below the fair market value of the common stock of the Company on the date the option is granted, the IRS might take the position under certain circumstances that income is recognized at the time such options are granted, equal to the amount of the "discount" at which the NSO or DCSO was granted.

If NSOs or DCSOs are granted at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the common stock at the date granted, taxable ordinary income will be recognized by the Participant at the time of exercise in an amount equal to the excess of the fair market value of the shares purchased at the time of such exercise over the exercise price. The Company will usually be allowed a federal income tax deduction equal to the ordinary income attributable to the exercising Participant. The Participant will generally recognize a taxable capital gain or loss upon the subsequent sale of such shares.

In the case of NSOs and DCSOs which are issued at an option price that is less than the fair market value of the common stock subject to such option on the date it is granted to a Participant, the same rules should apply, unless the IRS takes the position that such "discount" options may under certain circumstances be subject to tax at the time granted to a Participant.

Stock Appreciation Rights. Upon the exercise of a SAR, the Participant will realize taxable ordinary income equal to the fair market value of the payment received from the Company, and the Company generally will be allowed a corresponding federal income tax deduction at that time. The Participant's basis in any shares of common stock acquired will be equal to the amount of income upon which the Participant was taxed. Upon any subsequent disposition of such shares, any gain or loss realized will be a capital gain or loss.

Restricted Stock Grants and Restricted Unit Grants. Unless a Participant makes a tax election under Code Section 83(b), a Participant receiving a Restricted Stock Grant or a Restricted Unit Grant (collectively "Restricted Awards") will not recognize taxable income and the Company will not be entitled to a federal income tax deduction at the time such Restricted Award is granted. When the restrictions on a Restricted Award terminate or lapse, the excess of the fair market value of the Restricted Award on the date the restrictions terminate or lapse over the amount paid by the Participant, or the base value of the Restricted Award at the time of grant as determined by the Compensation Committee will be taxable as ordinary income to the Participant and will be allowed as a federal income tax deduction to the Company. Upon a subsequent disposition of shares received from a Restricted Award, the gain or loss recognized by the Participant will generally be treated as capital gain or loss. By filing a Section 83(b) election, the amount of a Participant's ordinary income, the commencement of the holding period and the Company's deduction will be determined as of the date of the grant.

Performance Bonus Awards. A Participant receiving a Performance Bonus Award will recognize ordinary income, and the Company will be allowed a corresponding deduction at the time such Award is granted.

Change of Control. Some Awards that become payable solely because of a change of control of the Company as a result of a tender offer, contested election, business combination or related events may constitute excess parachute payments under Section 280G of the Code. Amounts generally would be treated as "excess parachute payments" to the extent they exceed 300% of the Participant's average annual compensation for the five years preceding the change of control. Amounts treated as excess parachute payments cannot be deducted by the Company for federal income tax purposes and the Participant is subject to a 20% excise tax thereon.

Special Rules. To the extent a Participant pays all or part of the exercise price of an NSO or DCSO by tendering shares of common stock previously owned by the Participant, the tax consequences described above generally would apply. However, the number of shares received upon exercise of such option equal to the number of shares surrendered in payment of the exercise price will have the same basis and tax holding period as the shares surrendered. The additional shares received upon such exercise will have a tax basis equal to the amount of ordinary income recognized on such exercise and a holding period which commences on the date of the exercise.

To the extent a Participant pays all or part of the exercise price of an ISO by tendering previously acquired common stock owned by such Participant, the tax consequences described above generally will apply to such exchange. However, if a Participant exercises an ISO by tendering shares previously acquired on the exercise of an ISO, a disqualifying disposition will occur if the applicable holding period requirements described above have not been satisfied with respect to the surrendered stock. The consequence of such a disqualifying disposition is that the Participant may recognize ordinary income at that time.

Edgar Filing: SWIFT ENERGY CO - Form DEF 14A

If a Participant subject to Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act receives shares of common stock upon the exercise of an Award, other than an ISO, Section 83 of the Code generally defers recognition of income until six months after the date of exercise, unless the Participant elects to have the shares valued at the date of exercise. Absent such election, taxable ordinary income will be recognized in an amount equal to the difference between the exercise price and the fair market value of the shares at the end of the six month deferral period.

The grant, receipt and exercise of Reload Options will be treated for federal income tax purposes in the same manner as the underlying option for which the Reload Option was granted.

Withholding Taxes. In general, withholding taxes must be paid whenever ordinary income to the Participant is recognized for federal income tax purposes. For example, withholding taxes must be paid at the time of exercise of any NSO or DCSO, Performance Bonus Award or SAR. Withholding taxes must also be paid in respect of any Restricted Stock Grant or Restricted Unit Grant when the restrictions thereon lapse, terminate or are removed.

Board Recommendation

The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares represented at the Meeting in person or by proxy is needed to approve the amendment to the 2001 Plan. Unless a shareholder withholds authority on the proxy card, those persons designated as proxies by the Board intend to vote for the approval of the amendment to the 2001 Plan. The Board believes that such approval is essential to enable the Company to continue to attract and retain qualified employees. The Company's 50 most senior managerial, technical and supervisory employees have been employed by the Company for an average of approximately 13 years. Management believes that the approval of the proposed amendment to the 2001 Plan will contribute to the continuation of the Company's history of employee longevity, as the Company's stock option plans have done in the past.

THE BOARD RECOMMENDS THAT THE SHAREHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" AMENDMENT OF THE 2001 PLAN.

During this five year period, Mr. Swift's compensation is one-half (i.e. $300,000) his annual base compensation at the time of transition from a full-time to half-time schedule, with a 4% per annum inflation adjustment, plus any bonus provided by the Board. These amounts are also payable in one lump sum, discounted to present value, upon Mr. Swift's death or disability, which also triggers 100% vesting of all unexercised options, plus continuation of insurance for his spouse and minor children for a year. In the event of a change of control, Mr. Swift is to be paid a lump sum equal to the discounted present value of amounts payable during the remainder of the contract, plus a one year continuation of medical and dental coverage, and a tax gross-up if such payments are deemed to be subject to "parachute payment" excise taxes. Mr. Swift's contract also provides for a payment of approximately $407,000 per year to Mr. Swift or his estate during each of the last five years of the agreement in consideration of Mr. Swift's agreement not to compete with the Company while he is receiving payments from the Company. The first two of these payments were made in 2002 and 2001. Upon termination of Mr. Swift's employment during its term, other than for cause, Mr. Swift is entitled to receive continuation of his salary for a period of one year plus 4 weeks' salary for every year of service to the Company if he is then being employed and paid on a half-time basis, provided that salary payments are not to be made for more than five years after he begins his part-time status. Insurance coverage is to be continued while he is being paid, and all unexercised stock options held at such date are to become vested.

Effective May 9, 2001, the Company entered into amended and restated employment agreements with Terry E. Swift, President and Chief Executive Officer, Bruce H. Vincent, Executive Vice President, Alton D. Heckaman, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, James M. Kitterman, Senior Vice President, and Joseph A. D'Amico, Executive Vice President and on the same date entered into a new employment agreement with Victor Moran, Senior Vice President. All of the agreements provide for an initial three-year term, which is automatically extended for one year on each anniversary of the agreement (such period, as so extended at any time, the "Contract Term"). These agreements provide for payment of certain amounts and continuation of medical benefits for one-half of the remainder of the Contract Term upon termination of employment other than for cause. The payment shall be equal to the executive's base salary in effect immediately prior to the termination date, plus one week's salary for every year of service to the Company, plus in the case of Messrs. Swift, Kitterman and Heckaman, certain amounts compounded at a rate of 8% per annum, representing amounts in lieu of Company contributions to a 401-K plan for those periods of employment prior to adoption of such a plan by the Company. The agreements also provide for the continuation of medical benefits for one-half of the remainder of the Contract Term upon termination of employment other than for cause. The agreements can be terminated by the Company other than for cause only by a majority of the continuing directors who have been directors for two years or nominated for election by a majority of continuing directors. Upon employment termination in connection with or following a change of control, the executives are entitled to receive their salary that would have been paid for the remainder of the Contract Term, plus two weeks' salary for every year of service to the Company, plus in the case of Messrs. Swift, Kitterman and Heckaman, certain amounts compounded at a rate of 8% per annum, representing amounts in lieu of Company contributions to a 401-K plan for those periods of employment prior to adoption of such a plan by the Company, and continuation of medical and dental insurance and universal life coverages for certain periods. Immediately prior to termination of employment, outstanding unexercised stock options vest or are deemed to have vested, and the executives retain such options with no change to their terms, except as to Mr. Moran, for whom the only outstanding options that vest are those granted after the date of his employment agreement.

- (1) A. Earl Swift, Chairman of the Board, received 25,000 options, representing 4.3% of total options granted to employees in 2002, with an exercise price of $16.96, an expiration date of February 4, 2012, and a grant date present value of $314,700.
- (2) Estimated present values are based on the Black-Scholes Model, a mathematical formula used to value exchange-traded options. The stock options granted by the Company are long term, non-transferable and subject to vesting restrictions, while exchange-traded options are short term and can be exercised or sold immediately in a liquid market. The Black-Scholes Model considers a number of factors, including the expected volatility of the stock, interest rates, and the estimated time period until exercise of the option. In calculating the grant date present values set forth in the table, the following ranges of assumptions were used: daily volatility for common stock of 61.36% to 86.65%, risk-free rate of return of 4.75% and actual number of years from grant date to expiration date. In each case, the risk-free rate was based on a 10 year government bond as of the grant date and no dividend yield. No adjustments were made for non-transferability or risk of forfeiture. The ultimate value of the option will depend on the future market price of the Company's common stock, which cannot be forecast with reasonable accuracy.

Option Values

The following table contains information concerning the number of shares acquired and value realized from the exercise of options during 2002 and the number of unexercised options held by the named executive officers at December 31, 2002.

- (1) Options are "in-the-money" if the market price of a share of common stock exceeds the exercise price of the option. The value of unexercised in-the-money options equals the closing price of Swift common stock at December 31, 2002 $9.67 less the exercise price.
- (2) Value Realized represents the difference between the exercise price of the options and the NYSE closing price on the exercise date for Swift common stock received upon exercise.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

During 2002, the Compensation Committee of the Company consisted of Messrs. Smith, Montgomery and Withrow and, from August 2002, Mr. Galvin, who are all independent directors. To the Company's knowledge, there are no inter-relationships involving members of the Compensation Committee or other directors of the Company requiring disclosure in this section of the proxy statement.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Philosophy

The Board first established its Compensation Committee in 1982. The Compensation Committee has always been composed solely of nonemployee directors, and has set executive compensation since that time. Since 1987 when the Compensation Committee undertook an evaluation of the Company's policies, compensation has been based upon Company performance.

Philosophically, the Compensation Committee and the Company's Chief Executive Officer believed it to be beneficial to the Company in its early years to keep executive compensation in the low to middle ranges in comparison to levels paid by comparable entities, particularly in comparison to many companies in the oil and gas industry. Since 1987, the bonus compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer has been based almost solely upon the Company's performance, as described below.

Since late 1989, the bonus formula for the Chief Executive Officer has been based upon earnings per share and growth in oil and gas reserves, as described in detail below. Since 1995, the criteria also have reflected the importance of cash flow to an oil and gas company and the Company's increased emphasis on exploration and drilling activities to achieve growth in probable reserves, in addition to acquisition of producing properties, given the Compensation Committee's belief that successful drilling activities are based upon a high level of drilling prospects. Accordingly, the bonus formula in the 2001 Omnibus Stock Compensation Plan (the "2001 Plan"), the plan which was adopted by the Shareholders at the 2001 Annual Meeting and was in effect with respect to compensation in 2001, provides for bonuses based upon year-to-year increases in earnings per share, cash flow per share, proved reserves and probable reserves and an assessment of the individual's contribution over the course of the year.

Compensation Criteria and Performance Measurement

The Company's executive compensation consists of three components: base salary, annual incentive bonuses, and long term stock-based incentives.

Base Salary for a particular year is based upon (i) the executive's scope of responsibility, (ii) an evaluation of each executive's individual performance during the year, (iii) an attempt to keep executive salaries within the range paid by comparably sized oil and gas exploration and production companies, based in part upon annual surveys provided by outside consultants on independent oil and gas companies with similar market capitalizations (the "Compensation Surveys"), and (iv) an evaluation of the Company's performance during the preceding year, including the Company's earnings, reserve growth and cash flow. Individual performance evaluation is based upon each executive's review of his own performance throughout the year and upon a performance review and compensation recommendation by the Company's Chief Executive Officer, which is then reviewed and acted upon by the Compensation Committee.

The Compensation Surveys include companies in common with the Dow Jones Oil, Secondary Index (the "Index") used in the "Five Year Shareholder Return Comparison" set forth herein. The Compensation Surveys are used by the Company for purposes of executive compensation comparison because they constitute a broader group than the group of companies included in the Index, and because the Compensation Surveys are comprised of companies somewhat closer in size and line of business to the Company than some of the companies included in the Index. The Index was selected in accordance with SEC rules solely for shareholder return comparison purposes because it is a published industry index.

Annual Incentive Bonuses for a particular year are awarded after the end of that year, based on both individual and Company performance during that year. Under the 2001 Plan, bonuses are awarded in the form of Performance Bonus Awards, which may be in cash, in shares of the Company's common stock or a combination thereof, as determined by the Compensation Committee. The amount of an executive officer's Performance Bonus Award for a particular year is determined utilizing the following factors: (i) the increase in earnings per share during that year and the increase in the cash flow per share during that year (measures of short-term performance); (ii) the increase in the volume of the Company's proved and probable oil and gas reserves during that year (measures of long-term performance); (iii) individual performance of that executive officer in contributing to either the Company's overall achievement of its strategic objectives, or the achievement of the objectives of the executive's department or group within the Company; and (iv) the Compensation Committee's determination of the extent to which the executive officer's individual performance merits a bonus. Historically, the Compensation Committee has elected to have a portion of the bonus consist of Company stock.

In determining Performance Bonus Awards for 2002 (determined and paid in February 2003), the Committee considered all of the above factors in determining bonuses awarded. The Compensation Committee also took into account individual performance ratings reflecting individual contribution and contribution to group effectiveness.

Long-Term Stock-Based Incentives are provided through grants of incentive stock options, usually on an annual basis, to executives and others under the 2001 Plan. This component is intended to retain and motivate executives to improve long-term shareholder value. Stock options are granted at the prevailing market price. Grants have always vested in equal amounts over five years.

The Compensation Committee determines a total number of options to be granted in any year based on the total number of outstanding unexercised options, so as to avoid excessive dilution of the shareholders' value in the Company through option exercises. Out of the number so determined, options are granted to executive officers in varying amounts, roughly related to their levels of executive responsibility. Outstanding performance by an executive officer may be recognized through a larger than normal option grant.

The Company believes that its compensation policy described above provides an excellent link between the value created for shareholders and the compensation paid to executive officers.

Compensation of Chief Executive Officer

Base Salary. The Chief Executive Officer's base salary in 2002 was $400,000, compared to his base salary of $392,086 in 2001 for his service as President of the Company until May 8, 2001 and his service as President and Chief Executive Officer thereafter. The Compensation Committee's determination was based on the factors described above under "Compensation Criteria and Performance Measurement--Base Salary."

Bonus. In determining the Chief Executive Officer's bonus, the Compensation Committee has typically given more weight to factors based upon the Company's performance than to its evaluation of his general contribution, since the Compensation Committee does not observe and supervise such performance on a day-to-day basis. Terry E. Swift received a bonus of $120,000 in cash for his service as Chief Executive Officer, compared to his cash bonus of $96,600 in 2001 for his service as President of the Company until May 8, 2001 and his service as President and Chief Executive Officer thereafter.

Stock Options. In 2002 the Company granted the Chief Executive Officer 20,000 options to purchase shares of the Company's common stock, on the basis explained above under "Compensation Criteria and Performance Measurement--Long-Term Stock-Based Incentives."

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Compensation Committee does not propose to adopt any particular policy with respect to Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. Section 162(m) generally limits deductions for compensation paid to any employee in excess of $1 million per year. The Company believes that any loss of deduction for compensation exceeding Section 162(m)'s limitations is outweighed by the flexibility it gains in not meeting the requirements of this section.

All Other Fees

In connection with the standards for independence of the Company's independent public accountants promulgated by the SEC, the Audit Committee has reviewed and is satisfied that the additional services did not affect the independence of Ernst & Young.

Ernst & Young, certified public accountants, began serving as the Company's independent auditors in 2002. A representative from Ernst & Young will be present at this year's Meeting. Further, a shareholder may not submit a matter for consideration at the 2003 Meeting, regardless of whether presented for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement and form of proxy card, unless the shareholder shall have timely complied with the requirements in the Company's Bylaws which set a notice deadline after which a shareholder will not be permitted to present a proposal at the Company's shareholder meetings. The Bylaws state that in order for business to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a shareholder, the shareholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the Company.
