Internet Gold's Smile.Media and Teddy Productions to Create
Internet Video Company

Wednesday November 15, 9:00 am ET

PETACH TIKVA, Israel, November 15 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Internet Gold, (Nasdaq: IGLD; TASE: IGLD) today announced that smile.media ltd., its fully-owned subsidiary, has signed an agreement with Teddy Productions, one of Israel's leading entertainment production groups, to establish an internet video company. The new company will establish an Israeli internet video portal and will produce a broad range of internet video programs. smile.media will hold 50.1% of the new company and the owners of Teddy Productions will hold the remaining 49.9%.

Teddy Productions is owned by Tmira and Dudu Yardeni, who for the past three decades have been pioneering leaders of Israel's entertainment and media industries. Today, Teddy Productions produces a variety of television/media programs and live events. It also has exclusive relationships with leading Israeli artists and pop-media talents.

"We are excited to partner with Teddy Productions to benefit from the exciting internet video phenomenon," said Eli Holtzman, Internet Gold's CEO. "Throughout the world, internet video is attracting huge audiences and commanding a growing portion of internet media budgets. The Israeli market, with more than 95% of all Internet users hooked up via broadband, is ripe for this cutting-edge entertainment format. We believe that leading video sites will become a fertile source of revenues over the next few years as larger portions of advertising budgets are being shifted from traditional off-line media to the internet. Our strategic plan is to develop a wide variety of unique video content which will be promoted in synergy with our broad range of e-media properties to achieve leadership in this important and growing source of advertising revenues.

"In teaming up with Teddy, we will benefit from the brand, talent and content properties that they have developed over the last 30 years and their deep understanding of Israeli entertainment tastes. Together, we will create a unique internet video portal, extending smile.media's positioning as Israel's #1 internet media group," Mr. Holtzman concluded.

About Internet Gold
