PART I

ITEM 1. BUSINESS.

Fresh America Corp. ("Fresh America", or the "Company", "we", "us", or "our"), a Texas corporation founded in 1989, provides procurement, processing/repacking, warehousing and distribution services of fresh produce and other refrigerated food products for a wide variety of customers in the retail, food service and food distribution businesses. Additional services, such as inventory planning and customer support, are also provided as areas of unique specialization. Because of the perishable nature of fresh fruits and vegetables, distribution requires specialists such as Fresh America that can maintain the "cold chain" of distribution to ensure safety, quality and yield for the wide variety of products available in today's marketplace. The Company serves over 1,900 customers in 37 states through eight distribution facilities and two sales and marketing offices. The distribution facilities are located in Arlington and Houston, Texas; Atlanta, Georgia; Scranton and Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania; Richmond, Indiana; Chicago, Illinois and Los Angeles, California. The sales and marketing offices are located in Walnut Creek and Visalia, California. In November 2001, the Company moved all central office operations from Dallas, Texas to its existing facility in Arlington, Texas.

Products

The Company provides and procures approximately 500 items in several product categories, including fresh produce, refrigerated prepackaged produce, and processed foods. Fresh produce includes staple items such as apples, lemons, lettuce, bananas, oranges, grapefruit, onions, tomatoes, potatoes and garlic, and seasonal items such as strawberries, papayas, cherries, grapes, peaches, plums, avocados and watermelons.

Refrigerated prepackaged produce includes presliced fruits and vegetables, including party trays of fresh, precut vegetables. The Company also provides certain specialty types of produce.

At each of its locations, the Company provides fresh produce and related products and services in three primary areas of specialization: program distribution, wholesale and processing/repacking. An expanded description of these areas of specialization follows:

Program Distribution. Due to the handling requirements associated with fresh fruits and vegetables and Fresh America's integrated distribution network and related services, Fresh America offers specialized services to various retail, food service and supply businesses in the industry. These services allow customers, such as Dole Fresh Vegetables, Inc. to outsource certain aspects of their fresh produce distribution function to Fresh America. These services include category management, product consolidation and freight forwarding.

Wholesale. The Company procures certain items from all major growing areas in order to sell and provide services to national and regional retail and food service accounts. These accounts include supermarkets, independent grocers and broad-line food service distributors.

Processing/Repacking. The Company performs certain value-added functions for customers that complement the other services it provides. These functions include produce ripening and repackaging functions: the assembly and preparation of fruit baskets and party trays of pre-cut vegetables; and the processing and packing of various produce items. Certain locations employ highly specialized ripening, sorting and packing equipment designed to increase efficiencies and decrease costs.

Facilities and Personnel

The Company currently conducts its operations out of eight distribution facilities located in California, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Pennsylvania and Texas and two sales and marketing offices in California. In addition to these facilities, in 2001 the Company had a location in Canada which was sold in March 2001, a location in Arizona which was sold in April 2001, and a Florida location which was closed in May 2001. The Company maintains its headquarters in Arlington, Texas.

Each distribution center employs between 9 and 116 employees, most of whom are involved in receiving and shipping, as well as driving the vehicles in the Company's transportation fleet. The distribution centers are designed for receiving, cold storage, sorting and shipping and are positioned to allow the Company to distribute perishable products by truck to its customers throughout the respective regional geographical area. Fresh America operates from approximately 758 thousand square feet of warehousing and processing space. See "Item 2. Properties."

Fresh America's products are delivered from its distribution centers to customers utilizing Fresh America's fleet of leased and owned tractors, refrigerated trailers and refrigerated trucks, as well as third party trucking companies.

Fresh America refers to its employees as "associates" and attempts to maintain a team spirit among all of its associates. Management believes that the Company's relations with its associates are good. As of March 22, 2002 the Company employed a total of approximately 374 full-time associates and 4 part-time associates, including approximately 33 corporate associates and 345 regional associates. The Company's operations in Scranton, Pennsylvania and Los Angeles, California have collective bargaining agreements with their warehouse associates.

Strategy

As discussed below in "Acquisitions/Divestitures", during 1999 through 2001, the Company divested all locations viewed as non-strategic or non-profitable, including specialty food service operations. Today, the Company is focusing on enhancing areas of proven performance, and in the near term, the Company will pursue a slower, more controlled pace of growth than in prior years. Fresh America intends to take advantage of its existing infrastructure and enhance efficiencies in its current operations. The Company's strategic initiatives include:

- . Integration. To create efficiencies and enhance control, management has designated the integration of all current facilities as a key initiative beginning in the fall of 2001 and continuing into 2002. The two primary components of this integration are the centralization of accounting and administrative functions and the implementation of an industry-specific software system at all locations. We believe these initiatives will allow the Company to further reduce administrative headcount, as well as improve the Company's ability to analyze and effectuate operational improvements in margin and expense control.

- . Quality Control. The Company focuses on quality and freshness at each step of the receipt, processing and distribution process. Because most of the products delivered by the Company are perishable, proper handling, including maintenance of constant temperature and humidity, is critical to the control of product spoilage. Produce is transported to and from the Company's operating locations in refrigerated, temperature-monitored trucks. When produce is to be received, the Company's personnel inspect the products to ensure that quality specifications have been satisfied. Accepted items are immediately stored in product specific, temperature-controlled environments. On average, inventory is turned in approximately three days.

- . Purchasing. The Company has established a preferred supplier network for core items which is facilitated through its central procurement department. With this system the Company selects its preferred suppliers and regularly monitors their ability to provide quality price and service. Through the volume of purchases in this program, the Company is able to obtain fresh produce of premium size, quality and appearance at competitive costs. In addition, in most of its operating locations, Fresh America employs purchasing agents who purchase produce directly from growers, shippers and grower cooperatives. In many cases, the Company purchases produce only from selected warehouses within a supplier's system based on management's assessment of the quality provided by the particular warehouses. Although purchases by Fresh America frequently constitute a significant portion of a particular supplier's sales, no single supplier accounts for more than 10% of Fresh America's costs of goods sold. Management believes that all of the items stocked in its inventory are available from numerous suppliers at competitive prices. The Company estimates approximately 15% of the volume of purchases are done through the Company's central procurement department.

- . Brand Equity. As a result of acquisitions during 1995 through 1998, the Company began operating under various business names at certain locations. One key component of our integration initiative identified during 2001 was to have all locations operate under the name "Fresh America", except where we believed there was significant brand equity from the existing name. After analyzing this item, the Company believes three locations have this level of brand equity: Perricone Citrus (Visalia, CA), Jos. Notarianni & Co. (Scranton, PA) and Francisco Distributing (Los Angeles, CA). Each of these locations is currently continuing to operate under these specified names with the extension of "A Division of Fresh America".

Additionally, in October 2001, Fresh America signed a five-year agreement with the Sholl Group to become the exclusive licensee packer of Green Giant Fresh tomatoes and bell peppers. This agreement supports our strategic retail branding strategy. As a result, Fresh America is the only tomato and pepper repacker to have the ability to offer national retailers three brand choices: industry, private and consumer. Green Giant Fresh also complements our food safety, packaging and procurement initiatives and this exclusive agreement has the potential to enhance Fresh America's success as a repacker in the industry.

Edgar Filing: FRESH AMERICA CORP - Form 10-K

- . Contracts and Business Arrangements. Fresh America's business relationships with its customers are established on the basis of daily orders as well as program and service arrangements. Daily orders are typically priced to customers on the basis of cost to the Company plus a pre-determined margin. Daily orders range in duration from one day to one month. Anything in excess of one month in duration is considered to be a program and service arrangement. The program and service arrangements are priced to customers as either pre-determined margin contracts, like those used for daily orders, or fee for service contracts where the price remains constant and the Company's margin fluctuates with the changes in the market prices at which the product is purchased. Due to the perishable nature of the Company's products and fluctuating commodity prices, the Company's program and service arrangements are usually negotiated on a seasonal basis, with an average duration of three to six months. If renewed at the end of a term, the program and service arrangements are typically renegotiated based on market conditions existing at that time. Each contract is set up individually and depending on the contract, the Company has a varying level of ability to increase or decrease prices consistent with fluctuations in the market. When the Company enters into fee for service contracts, which do not provide for the ability to change prices to correspond with market fluctuations, the Company attempts to negotiate corresponding fixed price agreements with growers/shippers. This matching process will reduce the Company's exposure during markets of increasing commodity prices.

Customers, Competition and Seasonality

Customer Concentration. Sam's Club, a division of Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. ("Sam's") accounted for 7.1% of sales in 2001, 30.0% of sales in 2000 and 30.5% in 1999. The reduction in sales to Sam's in 2001 stems from the expiration of a distribution agreement with the Company. The sales to Sam's in 2001 were comprised solely of value-added processing/repacking. See Item 1 - "Acquisitions and Divestitures".

Back Log Orders. The Company did not have any backlog orders at year end.

Competition. The Company operates in highly competitive markets, and its success will be largely dependent on its ability to manage product from source to customer. The produce industry is highly fragmented and is primarily comprised of small, family-owned operations serving local and regional markets. The Company also competes with national food service and wholesale food distribution companies. Due to the commodity nature of certain of our products, we operate in highly competitive markets, and our success will be largely dependent on our ability to provide quality products and services at a value to our customers. Only a few well-established companies operate on both a national and regional basis. We face strong competition from these as well as smaller regional companies in all of our product lines. Competitive considerations include:

- . some competitors may have substantially greater financial resources and operating flexibility to react to changes in the marketplace;
- . some of our products compete with imports and private label products and are sensitive to competition from regional brands; and
- . we cannot predict the pricing or promotional actions of our competitors and if we do not respond appropriately to reduced pricing or discounts or if we raise prices, we could lose market share.

Seasonality. See Item 7-MD&A under the caption "Quarterly Results and Seasonality" for information about the seasonality of the Company's business.

Acquisitions/Divestitures

The Company commenced operations in 1989 by delivering produce to one Sam's location. The success of the initial venture in Houston, Texas allowed the Company to rapidly expand its relationship with Sam's and provide produce for 375 Sam's locations in the Midwest, Northeast, Southeast and Southwest at the peak of its distribution arrangement with Sam's. The Company's distribution agreement with Sam's (the "Sam's Agreement") was governed by a written contract which expired on October 24, 2000. Thereafter, Sam's began internal distribution of produce for all of its' clubs; however, the Company continues to supply certain produce items to Sam's on a non-contractual basis.

Because the Company understood the Sam's Agreement would expire in 2000, in 1995 the Company began to implement a strategy to attract new customers over a wider geographical area and diversify its customer base into other areas of produce distribution. In executing its strategy, the Company completed 16 acquisitions from 1995 through 1998 and added various customer alliances involving fresh produce procurement, warehousing, distribution and/or marketing. Through these acquisitions and new customer relationships, the Company expanded its cold chain distribution network to become national in scope, diversified its customer and supplier relationships and expanded its value-added processing capabilities. Six of these acquisitions in the specialty food service business never achieved sufficient market presence and were closed or sold during the period from September 1999 to May 2001.

The table below identifies the acquisitions, their primary area(s) of distribution and specialization and, where appropriate, the date divested:

- /a/ Primary Services: 1. Specialty Food Service; 2. Retail/Wholesale; 3. Value-Added.
- /b/ Subsequent to their acquisition dates, these companies were integrated into one location in Houston, Texas in order to reduce costs and increase efficiencies.
- /c/ Perricone closed its market operation in Los Angeles, California and continues to operate its brokerage business in Walnut Creek and Visalia, California.
- /d/ The operating assets of Ontario Tree Fruits, Ltd. and its affiliates were sold in March 2001.
- /e/ All outstanding common stock for King's Onion House was sold in April 2001.
- /f/ Original asset purchase rescinded by legal arbitration in May 2001.
- /g/ The Company relocated Tomahawk's remaining tomato repacking operation to its distribution facility in Atlanta.

In March 2001, the Company sold the operating assets of its Canadian operation to better focus on its domestic opportunities. When a major Canadian customer was lost during 1999, the Company was not able to replace the lost business and the Canadian operations did not fit well with the Company's focus on value-added services and products. The Canadian operations incurred losses of $2.0 million during fiscal 2000 and $2.0 million in the first quarter 2001. However, by taking advantage of the import knowledge gained through the Canadian operations, the Company continues to provide its customers with imported produce through its other operating divisions.

In April 2001, the Company sold all of the outstanding capital stock of King's Onion House. The Company was not able to achieve profitable operations in fiscal 2000 and did not believe Phoenix represented a strategic market for the Company. King's Onion House incurred losses of $5.5 million during fiscal 2000.

Through an arbitration, the original October 1998 purchase by Fresh America of the assets of Thompson's Produce Company was rescinded, effective May 12, 2001. As a result, the Company was relieved of its real property lease obligations in Pensacola, Florida (total future rental payments of $5.4 million) in exchange for the return of net assets totaling $1.4 million. This location was a non-performing asset for the Company, with losses totaling $3.3 million during fiscal 2000 and approximately $850,000 in the first quarter of 2001.

In August 2001, the Company sold the assets of Bacchus Fresh International, which was acquired in connection with the Canadian operations in March 1998, and an idle real estate property at Cutten Road in Houston, Texas. The net proceeds from these asset sales of approximately $871,000 were used to repay a portion of the Company's senior term debt.

A table illustrating the performance of ongoing and divested operations for fiscal 2001 is included in Item 7 - MDA.

Financial Restructuring

Throughout its operational restructuring during the past three years, the Company has pursued various financing opportunities in an effort to restructure its senior bank and subordinated debt. In September 2001, the Company completed a financial restructuring whereby North Texas Opportunity Fund LP, ("NTOF")

purchased 50,000 shares of the Company's Series D cumulative redeemable preferred stock and warrants exercisable for 84,100,980 shares of our common stock for total cash proceeds of $5 million. Arthur Hollingsworth, an affiliate of NTOF and the Company's Chairman of the Board, subsequently purchased from NTOF, for the same price as paid by NTOF, 3,500 shares of Series D preferred stock and warrants exercisable for 5,887,069 shares of our common stock. In connection with the NTOF investment in the Company, John Hancock Life Insurance Company, John Hancock Variable Life Insurance Company, Signature 1A (Cayman), Ltd. and Signature 3

Limited (collectively, the "Hancock Entities") exchanged $20 million of subordinated debt, warrants to purchase 576,134 shares of the Company's common stock, 50,000 shares of Series C cumulative redeemable preferred stock and all accrued interest and dividends for 27,000 shares of the Company's Series D cumulative redeemable preferred stock and warrants exercisable for 45,414,529 shares of our common stock. The warrants are exercisable for a ten-year period that commenced on August 14, 2001 and ends August 14, 2011. The exercise price of the warrants is $.0001 per share and the warrants are subject to anti-dilution provisions providing adjustment in the event of any recapitalization, stock dividend, stock split, reorganization, merger or similar transaction or certain issuances of shares below their market value.

The warrants issued to NTOF, Mr. Hollingsworth and the Hancock Entities cannot be exercised until the Company's articles of incorporation are amended to increase the Company's authorized common stock from 10 million shares to 250 million shares and decrease the common stock's stated par value from $.01 to $.0001 per share (the "Charter Amendment"). In connection with the financial restructuring, the Company held a special meeting of its shareholders which was adjourned on December 28, 2001, and reconvened on December 29, 2001. The Company's shareholders were asked to approve the Charter Amendment. At the special meeting, the Charter Amendment failed to receive the necessary approval of the holders of a supermajority of the shares of the issued and outstanding stock; therefore, the Company's articles of incorporation have not been amended and the warrants issued to NTOF, Mr. Hollingsworth and the Hancock Entities are not exercisable.

Because the Charter Amendment was not approved, the holders of the Series D preferred stock received increased rights under the terms of the Series D preferred stock. Initially, each share of the 77,000 shares of Series D preferred stock had the right to receive cumulative dividends, payable monthly in cash and calculated on the basis of an annual dividend rate of $8 for each share plus interest on any accrued but unpaid dividends. Because the Charter Amendment was not approved at the special meeting, the annual dividend rate increased to $18 per share on December 31, 2001. However, the Company has obtained a waiver for the enhanced dividend amount from the Series D preferred shareholders for the period from December 29, 2001 until January 3, 2003. Therefore, the annual dividend rate will not increase to $18 per share during this period, but will remain at the original annual dividend rate of $8 for each share of preferred stock. The Company may not declare a dividend on any other class of capital stock so long as any accrued dividends for the preferred stock have not been paid. If the Company pays a dividend to holders of any other class of the Company's capital stock, then the Company will pay a dilution fee to the holders of the preferred stock.

When the Charter Amendment was not approved at the special meeting, the holders of preferred stock also became entitled to vote as a separate class for all matters on which the holders of common stock are entitled to vote, with each share entitled to one vote per share; however, where applicable law prevents class voting, holders of the preferred stock are entitled to vote together with the holders of common stock with each share of preferred stock entitled to 250 votes per share, being 11,625,000 votes for NTOF, 875,000 for Mr. Hollingsworth and 6,750,000 for the Hancock Entities.

The Series D preferred shareholders have a put right on the Series D preferred stock after August 14, 2004, and immediately upon any breach by the Company of the financial restructuring agreements or any sale, merger or change of control of the Company at $100 per share plus accrued and unpaid dividends. Because the requisite shareholder approval for the Charter Amendment was not obtained, the holders of Series D preferred stock have the right to exercise their put right at three times the face value of the preferred stock ($300 per share), such amount being $13,950,000 for NTOF, $1,050,000 for Mr. Hollingsworth and $8,100,000 for the Hancock Entities plus accrued and unpaid dividends. Additionally, the holders of the Series D preferred stock, have the right to redeem their shares of Series D preferred stock on the same terms of the put right after April 30, 2007 or immediately upon the occurrence of any sale, merger or change of control of the Company, any qualified public offering with net proceeds of at least $20,000,000 or any private equity financing with net proceeds of at least $20,000,000.

Each share of Series D preferred stock has a preference upon liquidation, dissolution, winding up or sale of the Company equal to $100 per share plus accrued and unpaid interest. Because the requisite shareholder approval for the Charter Amendment was not obtained, the holders of the preferred stock have the right to a liquidation preference payment equal to the face value of the preferred stock plus 90% of the fair market value of the remaining property of the Company and the holders of the Company's common stock will have the right to a liquidation preference payment equal to the remaining 10% of the fair market value of the remaining property of the Company.

Under the terms of the Series D preferred stock and the Shareholders Agreement dated August 14, 2001 by and among the Company, NTOF and the Hancock Entities, NTOF has the right to appoint three directors to the Board of Directors and the Hancock Entities have the right to collectively appoint one director to the Board of Directors, unless they waive such right. Because the Hancock Entities waived their right to appoint a director, NTOF appointed four members to the Company's Board of Directors in October 2001. The current Board of Directors consists of five members. In addition, NTOF and the Hancock Entities each have the right to designate one observer to attend all meetings of the Board of Directors. Under the Shareholders Agreement, the Company granted each holder of preferred stock the preemptive right to purchase, pro rata, all or any part of new securities offered by the Company. The Shareholders Agreement also grants each holder of Series D preferred stock the right of first offer and co-sale rights in the event another holder of Series D preferred stock elects to sell its stock. Prior to a public offering with net proceeds of at least $20,000,000, if the holder of 50% or more of the outstanding capital stock of the Company elects to sell all of its shares, then the holder will have pull-along rights with respect to the non-selling holders of preferred stock.

Under the Securities Exchange and Purchase Agreement dated August 14, 2001 (the "Purchase Agreement") by and among the Company, NTOF and the Hancock Entities, the Company has granted registration rights to NTOF and the Hancock Entities. The registration rights granted include two rights to demand that the Company register the holder's shares for resale to the public pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, an unlimited number of rights to register the holder's shares for resale to the public pursuant to other public offerings and, upon the Company's eligibility for use of Form S-3 under the Securities Act of 1933, an unlimited number of rights to register the holder's shares for resale to the public on Form S-3.

The Purchase Agreement also requires the Company to obtain NTOF's and/or the Hancock Entities' consent prior to taking certain actions in the operation of its business, other than pursuant to the terms of the financial restructuring. These actions include, but are not limited to, amending the Company's organizational documents adversely to NTOF and the Hancock Entities, declaring any dividends, selling or leasing any assets of the Company outside of the ordinary course of business, selling any additional capital stock of the Company (except pursuant to existing warrants and under the Company's stock option plan for employees), entering into any transactions with affiliates (other than in arms-length transactions), paying any management or consulting fees, acquiring any debt or equity interest in another entity, increasing the compensation of any executive officer by 5% or more, terminating any key employee, adopting a new employee benefit plan or employment agreement, acquiring any property for more than $500,000 or making any capital expenditure greater than $250,000 individually or $1,000,000 in the aggregate.

The Company intends to submit the Charter Amendment to the Company's shareholders at its 2002 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. The Series D preferred stock represents 68% of the combined voting power of the Company's capital stock entitled to vote on the Charter Amendment and therefore holds a sufficient number of shares needed to approve the Charter Amendment without any other shareholder vote in favor of the Charter Amendment. The Company believes that the holders of the Series D preferred stock currently intend to vote their shares in favor of the Charter Amendment.

The Shareholders Agreement also requires the Company, upon receiving an "unlocking proposal" as defined, representing a bona fide offer from an unrelated third party to enter into a sale transaction, and upon receiving notice from either NTOF or the Hancock Entities, to use good faith and commercially reasonable efforts to consummate the proposed transaction or, if the Company fails to accept the unlocking proposal, the holder will have the right to require the Company to purchase such shareholder's capital stock based upon the price that would have been paid to such holder in the sale transaction.

The following table sets forth information concerning the beneficial ownership of the Company's capital stock if the Charter Amendment is approved at the 2002 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

At the time of the restructuring the Company's senior lender, Bank of America, agreed to an extension of the maturity date of the Company's term credit facility until January 2, 2002. Subsequent to the financial restructuring, Bank of America assigned its interest in the term credit facility to Endeavour, LLC (the "Senior Lender") and the Senior Lender further extended the term credit facility to January 6, 2003. The Company is pursuing a revolving credit facility with a new lender to replace the existing term facility with a revolving credit facility prior to the maturity of the term loan. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to replace its Senior Lender as anticipated or extend its senior credit facility beyond January 2003, if that becomes necessary. See "Liquidity and Capital Resources" under Item 7 - MD&A.

Management believes that the combination of the effects of the financial restructure completed in September 2001, cash generated from ongoing operating activities, and the realization of recent reductions in operating expense will enable the Company to meet its obligations as they come due during the 2002 fiscal year.

ITEM 2. PROPERTIES.

The Company's headquarters and executive offices occupy approximately 8,200 square feet of space in its Arlington, Texas facility. The Company moved all central office operations to its facility in Arlington, Texas during 2001. As of March 22, 2002, the Company conducts its operations from the following facilities:

Location	Square Footage	Ow
Arlington, TX	104,948	Lea
Atlanta, GA	64,000	Lea
Chicago, IL	145,289	Lea
Houston, TX	80,496	Lea
Los Angeles, CA - Blackburn Street	60,000	Lea
Los Angeles, CA - Leyva Street	110,000	Lea
Richmond, IN	37,000	Own
Scranton, PA - (2 buildings)	105,249	Own
Wilkes-Barre, PA	50,000	Lea
Visalia, California	1,040	Lea
Walnut Creek, California	363	Lea

The Company owns or is obligated by lease on certain properties related to sold or closed operations. Such properties are not listed above, as they are not currently being used in operations, but aggregate approximately 20,000 square feet of leased space (with a lease expiration date of May 31, 2002 and which has been subleased below the rental amount the Company is paying) and 2,984 square feet of owned space, which the Company is currently leasing. The Company's owned facilities are pledged to the Senior Lender as collateral security for its senior credit facility. See discussion of debt arrangements under the caption "Liquidity and Capital Resources" in Item 7 - MD&A.

Management believes that its existing facilities are adequate for the Company's present level of operations. The Company is generally capable of accommodating growth within each existing geographic territory.

ITEM 3. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS.

From time to time, the Company is a party to various claims, disputes, legal actions and other proceedings involving product liability, contracts, equal employment opportunity, occupational safety and various other matters. In the opinion of management, the outcome of any pending matters should not have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations or liquidity.

Through an arbitration in May 2001, the original October 1998 purchase of the assets of Thompson's Produce Company was rescinded, and the Company was relieved of its real property lease obligations in Pensacola, Florida (total future rental payments of $5.4 million) in exchange for the return of net assets totaling $1.4 million.

ITEM 4. SUBMISSION OF MATTERS TO A VOTE OF SECURITY HOLDERS.

On December 28, 2001, the Company held a special meeting of its shareholders following the filing of a definitive proxy statement pursuant to Section 14(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The meeting was adjourned on December 28, 2001 and reconvened on December 29, 2001. The purpose of the meeting was to obtain shareholder approval of (i) an amendment to the Company's articles of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of its common stock from 10 million to 250 million shares and to decrease the stated par value of its common stock from $.01 to $.0001 per share ("Proposal One"), and (ii) the Company's 2001 Stock Option Plan ("Proposal Two"). 5,209,221 votes (61.9%) were cast in favor of the Proposal One, 498,804 votes (5.9%) were cast against the Proposal One or were withheld, and 18,650 votes (0.2%) were counted as broker non-votes or abstentions. 4,843,231 votes (57.6%) were cast in favor of the Proposal Two, 860,124 votes (10.2%) were cast against the Proposal Two or were withheld, and 23,650 votes (0.3%) were counted as broker non-votes or abstentions. Because 66.67% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote in person or by proxy at the special meeting were required to vote in favor of Proposal One, the amendment to the Company's articles of incorporation was not approved. Because a simple majority of the votes cast were required in order to approve Proposal Two, the 2001 Stock Option Plan was approved.

PART II

ITEM 5. MARKET FOR REGISTRANT'S COMMON EQUITY AND RELATED SHAREHOLDER MATTERS.

As of March 15, 2002, the Company had 60 holders of record for its common stock. The Company estimates that there were in excess of 1,000 beneficial owners of its common stock as of that date. The Company's common stock is currently quoted OTC under the symbol FRES. On April 25, 2001, the Company received notice from The Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. that its common stock had failed to maintain the continued listing standards as required by Nasdaq rules. After a hearing on May 10, 2001, the Company was notified that the Nasdaq staff had determined the Company's stock would be de-listed and the stock began trading on the Pink Sheets as of May 25, 2001. Once the Company's SEC reporting obligations were fulfilled during the third quarter of 2001, the Company was moved to the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board.

The OTC quotes reflect inter-dealer prices, without retail markup, markdown or commission and may not necessarily represent actual transactions. The high and low sales prices for the common stock on the Nasdaq Stock Market, Pink Sheets, and OTC for each quarter of fiscal 2001 and 2000 are shown below:

		High	Low
2001	First Quarter	$ 1.63	$ 1.00
	Second Quarter	$ 1.38	$ 0.15
	Third Quarter	$ 0.34	$ 0.11

	Fourth Quarter	$ 2.19	$ 0.88

Edgar Filing: FRESH AMERICA CORP - Form 10-K

The Company has never declared or paid cash dividends on its common stock. The Company currently intends to retain earnings to support operations and therefore, does not anticipate paying cash dividends on its common stock in the foreseeable future. Future payment of cash dividends on its common stock will depend upon such factors as the Company's earnings, capital requirements, capital structure, financial condition, contractual restrictions and other factors deemed relevant by the Board of Directors.

Each share of the Company's 77,000 shares of Series D preferred stock has the right to receive cumulative dividends, payable monthly in cash and calculated on the basis of an annual dividend rate of $8 for each share plus interest on any accrued but unpaid dividends. Because the Charter Amendment was not approved in 2002, the Series D preferred shareholders received the right to dividends at an annual dividend rate of $18 per share, but the Series D preferred shareholders agreed to waive such increased dividend right for 2002. The Company may not declare a dividend on any other class of capital stock so long as any accrued dividends for the preferred stock have not been paid. If the Company pays a dividend to holders of any other class of the Company's capital stock, then the Company will pay a dilution fee to the holders of the Series D preferred stock. In addition, the Company's current senior credit facility prohibits the payment of cash dividends on any of its capital stock. See material under the subheading "Financial Restructuring" in "Item 1 Business".

For non-registered issuances of common stock during the prior three years, please see discussion of July 2000 and April 2001 issuances in Item 7 - MD&A under caption "Financial Restructuring" under the subheading "Acquisitions".

Comparison of Fiscal 2001 to Fiscal 2000

Net sales. Net sales decreased $296.7 million, or 53.5%, to $257.9 million in fiscal 2001 from $554.6 million in fiscal 2000. Approximately $167.7 million of this decrease in revenues is attributable to the termination of the Sam's Agreement in October 2000. In addition, divestitures of certain operations resulted in decreased sales during 2001 as compared to 2000. These divestitures included OTF, which was sold in March 2001, resulting in a decrease of $51.3 million; King's Onion House ("King's") which was sold in April 2001, resulting in a decrease of $30.6 million; and other less significant divestitures resulting in a decrease of $14.0 million, in the aggregate. In addition, in May 2001, a decision was reached, via arbitration to rescind the original purchase agreement of the Company's Florida location, Thompson's Produce. This resulted in a decrease in sales of $10.0 million compared to the corresponding period of 2000. The Company also experienced a decrease in sales of approximately $29.0 million at its Los Angeles facility. This decrease was primarily attributable to the loss of key sales persons at this location who controlled a significant portion of sales, primarily yams, citrus and chili peppers. The Company is in process of replacing the sales persons and re-establishing customer relationships for each product line that was interrupted at this location. In addition to the specific items mentioned above, the Company was negatively impacted by the economic downturn and the events of September 11, 2001. The Company's decreases in sales mentioned above aggregating $302.6 million were partially offset by increased sales throughout the Company, primarily related to incremental business from national and regional sales programs.

Cost of Sales. Cost of sales decreased $266.5 million, or 53.7% to $229.7 million in fiscal 2001 from $496.2 million in fiscal 2000. As a percentage of net sales, cost of sales decreased to 89.1% in 2001 from 89.5% in 2000 resulting in a gross profit margin of 10.9% in 2001 as compared to 10.5% in 2000. The Company's gross profit increase was primarily attributable to the termination of the Sam's Agreement, under which produce was typically sold at lower margins in comparison to other business. The gross margin as a percentage of sales in 2001 for ongoing operations was 11.9% as compared to 3.4% for divested operations. The Company enters into arrangements with its customers on either a fee for service basis or a pre-determined margin basis. In cases where the Company provides its products to the customer on a fee for service basis, when there is an oversupply of product available, prices decrease, as there is too much product in the market for the relatively flat demand. During these times, Fresh America must sell product at a lower price to remain competitive. Sales dollars decrease as the same quantity of product is purchased at the lower price. Cost of sales and gross profit are primarily impacted due to the fact that the operational costs needed to process the product do not decrease. Therefore the cost of sales increases as a percentage of sales and the gross profit declines. Where possible, the Company attempts to reduce the risk of fluctuating commodity prices in such arrangements by negotiating corresponding fee for service arrangements with its growers and/or shippers.

Pre-determined margin contracts provide the Company with greater flexibility to hold or decrease prices to customers when commodity prices fall or hold or to increase prices to customers when commodity prices rise. During fiscal year 2000, approximately 67.2% of the Company's arrangements with its customers were on a pre-determined margin basis and approximately 32.8% of such arrangements were on a fee for service basis. This is compared with fiscal year 2001, during which approximately 15.4% of the Company's arrangements with customers were on a pre-determined margin basis and approximately 84.6% of such arrangements were on a fee for services basis.

Selling, general and administrative expenses. Selling, general and administrative ("SG&A") expenses decreased by $16.4 million, or 30.5% to $37.6 million in fiscal 2001 from $54.0 million in fiscal 2000. Approximately $3.7 million of the decrease relates to the four distribution centers where the Company significantly reduced overhead and operating expenses when the Sam's Agreement ended in October 2000. In addition, approximately $7.1 million of the decrease relates to the divestitures of OTF, King's, and Thompson's Produce as discussed above. The remaining $5.6 million decrease resulted from reduction of headcount and Company-wide cost reduction initiatives that began to take effect during the second quarter of 2001 and continued throughout the year. Selling, general and administrative expenses in fiscal 2001 for ongoing operations as a percentage of sales was 12.5% as compared to 29.8% for divested operations.

Bad debt expense. The Company's provision for bad debt decreased $2.0 million to a credit of $53,000 in fiscal 2001 from $1.9 million in fiscal 2000. The decrease is primarily attributable to additional reserves recorded in 2000 for uncollectable receivables associated with closed operations and the reduction in recorded reserves in 2001 due to significant improvements in the collection of accounts receivable in 2001 as compared to the previous year.

Depreciation and amortization. Depreciation and amortization decreased $2.3 million or 42.8% to $3.2 million in fiscal 2001 from $5.5 million in fiscal 2000, primarily related to the divestitures in 2001, discussed elsewhere herein.

Edgar Filing: FRESH AMERICA CORP - Form 10-K

Disposition costs and impairment of long-lived assets. In fiscal 2001, the Company recorded impairment charges to reduce the carrying value of property and equipment and related allocated goodwill of $152,000 and $8.2 million respectively, related to non-performing operations. An additional $1.2 million charge was recorded for lease commitments on idle facilities.

Settlement of Lawsuits. The original purchase for the assets of Thompson's Produce in October 1998, which was in litigation, was rescinded pursuant to arbitration and, as a result, the Company recorded a charge of $1.2 million in fiscal 2000 related to assets returned to the former owners in settlement of this contingency.

Operating income (loss). As a result of the foregoing factors, the Company incurred an operating loss of $22.2 million in fiscal 2001 compared to $17.1 million in fiscal 2000.

Income tax expense (benefit). Income tax benefit for fiscal 2001 relates principally to a Canadian income tax benefit from the loss of OTF prior to its sale, and income tax expense for fiscal 2000 relates principally to state income taxes, partially offset by a Canadian income tax benefit attributable to the loss of OTF. There is no federal income tax expense on the extraordinary gain arising from the September 2001 and 2000 restructurings because the Company has sufficient current fiscal year and prior year net operating losses to offset the gain. No U.S. federal income tax benefit was provided in fiscal 2001 and 2000 because the Company cannot carryback U.S. losses to recover any prior year federal income taxes.

Extraordinary gain on extinguishment of debt. The Company completed financial restructurings in the third quarters of both 2001 and 2000 which resulted in extraordinary gains from the retirement of debt. See Note 4 to the unaudited consolidated financial statements for discussion of the restructurings.

Preferred dividends and accretion. The increase in preferred stock dividends and accretion in fiscal 2001 compared to the prior year is principally due to the fair value of the Series D cumulative redeemable preferred stock issued pursuant to the financial restructuring on September 5, 2001 being substantially less than the face amount, and issuance costs which further reduced the initially recorded value. As a result, the accretion of the carrying value exceeds the accretion recorded on the previously outstanding Series C cumulative redeemable preferred stock.

Net income (loss) applicable to common shareholders. As a result of the foregoing factors, the Company incurred a net loss applicable to common shareholders of $2.9 million in fiscal 2001 compared to net loss of $21.6 million in fiscal 2000.

Comparison of Fiscal 2000 to Fiscal 1999

Net sales. Net sales decreased $115.3 million, or 17.2% to $554.6 million in fiscal 2000 from $669.9 million in fiscal 1999. Approximately $67.0 million of this decrease was attributable to the 1999 divestiture of seven of the Company's direct food service distribution operations and the first quarter 2000 closure of the Sam Perricone Citrus market operations. Approximately $41.0 million of the decrease was related to OTF, the Company's Canadian operations. The Canadian operation experienced increased revenues in 1999 as the result of a citrus freeze in the U.S. Additionally, a major customer of OTF which had accounted for approximately 65% of the Canadian operation revenues was lost during 1999. Fourth quarter sales decreased to $109.9 million compared to $151.1 million in the comparable 1999 period. Sam's represented the Company's largest customer in 2000 and 1999. Sam's accounted for 30.0% of net sales in fiscal 2000 compared to 30.5% in fiscal 1999. The Company's contract with Sam's expired in October 2000. See Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements elsewhere herein.

Cost of Sales. Cost of sales decreased $95.8 million, or 16.2% to $496.2 million in fiscal 2000 from $592.0 million in fiscal 1999. The decrease is primarily related to fourth quarter 1999 divestitures of the Company's direct food service distribution operation and decreased business volume in the OTF operation. As a percentage of net sales, cost of sales increased to 89.5% from 88.4%, which in turn decreased the Company's gross profit percentage to 10.5% from 11.6%. The Company's margins were negatively impacted by fluctuating commodity markets, the effects of which the Company was unable to fully recover through increased prices to customers associated with the Company's core items, including tomatoes, melons, onions and citrus, in those instances where the Company was unable to renegotiate such prices with its customers. The Company enters into arrangements with its customers on either a fee for service basis or a pre-determined margin basis. In cases where the Company provides its products to the customer on a fee for service basis, when there is an oversupply of product available, prices decrease, as there is too much product in the market for the relatively flat demand. During these times, Fresh America must sell product at a lower price to remain competitive. Sales dollars decrease as the same quantity of product is purchased at the lower price. Cost of sales and gross profit are primarily impacted due to the fact that the operational costs needed to process the product do not decrease. Therefore the cost of sales increases as a percentage of sales and the gross profit declines. Where possible, the Company attempts to reduce the risk of fluctuating commodity prices in such arrangements by negotiating corresponding fee for service arrangements with its growers and/or shippers.

Pre-determined margin contracts provide the Company with greater flexibility to hold or decrease prices to customers when commodity prices fall or hold or to increase prices to customers when commodity prices rise. During fiscal year 1999, approximately 66.5% of the Company's arrangements with its customers were on a pre-determined margin basis and approximately 33.5% of such arrangements were on a fee for service basis. This is compared with fiscal year 2000, during which approximately 67.2% of the Company's arrangements with customers were on a pre-determined margin basis and approximately 32.8% of such arrangements were on a fee for services basis.

Selling, general and administrative expenses. Selling, general and administrative ("SG&A") expenses decreased by $12.7 million, or 19.1% to $54.0 million in fiscal 2000 from $66.8 million in fiscal 1999. The majority of the decrease in SG&A is primarily attributable to a reduction in operating expenses of approximately $9.0 million caused by the closing of poorly performing operations in the latter part of 1999 and the first quarter of 2000. Additionally, salaries and benefits decreased at the Company's corporate office and certain other locations as a result of improved efficiencies and restructurings.

Bad debt expense. The Company's provision for bad debt decreased $4.1 million to $1.9 million in fiscal 2000 from $6.0 million in fiscal 1999. In fiscal 1999, the Company recorded an additional provision for bad debt amounting to $1.9 million related to certain past due customer balances at seven of its divested food service operations for which management determined further collection efforts would not be successful. In 1999, the Company also recorded charges totaling $2.1 million principally related to certain distribution agreements under which the Company did not fully recover amounts due from other parties associated with terminated business arrangements.

Depreciation and amortization. Depreciation and amortization decreased by $700,000 or 11.3% to $5.5 million in fiscal 2000 from $6.2 million in fiscal 1999, primarily related to the food service divestitures in 1999 and 2000 previously mentioned.

Disposition costs and impairment of long-lived assets. During the fourth quarter of 2000, the Company recorded impairment charges to reduce the carrying value of property and equipment and related allocated goodwill of $10.6 million and $2.2 million respectively, related to non-performing operations. The Company recorded goodwill impairment charges of $10.6 million and other disposition costs aggregating $2.9 million in 1999 related to non-performing operations. See Note 6 to the accompanying consolidated financial statements elsewhere herein.

Settlement of Lawsuits. In May 2001, the original purchase for the assets of Thompson's Produce in October 1998 was rescinded pursuant to arbitration and, as a result, the Company recorded a charge of $1.2 million in December 2000.

Operating income (loss). As a result of the foregoing factors, the Company incurred an operating loss of $17.1 million in fiscal 2000 compared to $19.3 million in fiscal 1999.

Other income (expense). Interest expense decreased $0.6 million to $5.2 million in fiscal 2000 from $5.8 million in fiscal 1999 due to reductions of debt for borrowed money.

Income tax expense (benefit). Income tax expense for fiscal 2000 relates principally to state income taxes, partially offset by a Canadian income tax benefit attributable to the loss of OTF. The effective tax rate for fiscal 2000 was (4.2%) compared to 10.7% in fiscal 1999. The difference in these effective tax rates compared to the statutory U.S. federal rate of 35% is primarily attributable to increases in the valuation allowance that were recorded against the Company's deferred tax assets in both fiscal years and the impairment of non-deductible goodwill in fiscal 1999.

Extraordinary gain on extinguishment of debt. In July 2000, the Company entered into an agreement amending the stock purchase agreement and restructuring certain notes payable related to the Company's November 1998 acquisition of Perricone Citrus Company. The restructuring resulted in an extraordinary gain in the third quarter of 2000 of $1.9 million. See "Liquidity and Capital Resources" in Item 7 - MD & A.

Net income (loss). As a result of the foregoing factors, the Company incurred a net loss of $20.9 million in fiscal 2000 compared to net loss of $22.0 million in fiscal 1999.

Edgar Filing: FRESH AMERICA CORP - Form 10-K

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Cash provided by operating activities was $31,000 for fiscal 2001 compared to $19.2 million in fiscal 2000. This decrease of $19.2 million is primarily attributable to the termination of the Sam's Agreement and the resulting loss of operating income subsequent to October 2000. In addition, there was less cash provided from the net changes in accounts receivable, accounts payable, inventories and accrued expenses during the current period compared to the prior year period. The decreases in these balances are due to the termination of the Sam's Agreement in October 2000 and divestiture of non-performing operations. Cash provided by investing activities was $3.3 million in fiscal 2001 as compared to cash used in investing activities of $703,000 in fiscal 2000. The increase of $4.0 million primarily relates to proceeds of $2.5 million from the King's Onion House sale in April 2001, proceeds of $2.1 million from the sales of Cutten Road and OTF, and a reduction in capital expenditures in fiscal 2001 as compared to the same period of 2000. Cash used in financing activities was $4.9 million in fiscal 2001 compared to $16.4 million in 2000. This decrease is primarily due to the reduction of net payments on short-term indebtedness in fiscal 2001 as compared to fiscal 2000.

On December 28, 2001 the Company had working capital of $2.9 million compared to working capital of $ 2.6 million at December 29, 2000. The increase of $0.3 million in working capital is primarily due to the substantial decreases in accounts receivable and inventory, partially offset by reductions in short-term debt and accounts payable. These decreases primarily resulted from the reduced scope of business operations after the termination of the Sam's Agreement in October 2000 and from the divestiture of non-performing operations.

As of December 28, 2001 the Company has $7.7 million of debt of which $1.5 million is due during 2002 and substantially all of the remainder is due in January 2003. In addition, the Company has redeemable preferred stock with redemption value of $7.7 million. The Series D preferred shareholders have a put right on the Series D preferred stock after August 14, 2004, and immediately upon any breach by the Company of the financial restructuring agreements or any sale, merger or change of control of the Company at $100 per share plus accrued and unpaid dividends. Because the requisite shareholder approval for the Charter Amendment was not obtained, the holders of Series D preferred stock have the right to exercise their put right at three times the face value of the preferred stock, such amount being $13,950,000 for NTOF, $1,050,000 for Mr. Hollingsworth and $8,100,000 for the Hancock Entities plus accrued and unpaid dividends. Additionally, the holders of the preferred stock, have the right to redeem their shares of preferred stock on the same terms as the put right after April 30, 2007 or immediately upon the occurrence of any sale, merger or change of control of the Company, any qualified public offering with net proceeds of at least $20,000,000 or any private equity financing with net proceeds of at least $20,000,000. If the Company is unable to generate sufficient cash flow to service such debt or preferred stock or refinance the senior term debt when it matures in January 2003, the Company may have to reduce or divest certain operations, restructure its preferred stock or seek additional equity capital. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to generate sufficient cash flow or raise additional debt or equity capital on satisfactory terms in order to refinance its senior term debt and expand its business. Changes in interest rates, market liquidity, stock prices and general market conditions may affect the Company's ability to raise funds or refinance senior term debt. The Company's ability to make scheduled payments with respect to indebtedness and refinance our debt will depend upon, among other things: the Company's ability to sustain cash flow and implement its business strategy.

Financial Restructuring

Throughout its operational restructuring during the past three years, the Company has pursued various financing opportunities in an effort to restructure its senior bank and subordinated debt. In September 2001, the Company completed a financial restructuring whereby North Texas Opportunity Fund LP, ("NTOF") purchased 50,000 shares of the Company's Series D cumulative redeemable preferred stock and warrants exercisable for 84,100,980 shares of our common stock for total cash proceeds of $5 million. Arthur Hollingsworth, an affiliate of NTOF and the Company's Chairman of the Board, subsequently purchased from NTOF for the same price as paid by NTOF, 3,500 shares of Series D preferred stock and warrants exercisable for 5,887,069 shares of our common stock. In connection with the NTOF investment in the Company, John Hancock Life Insurance Company, John Hancock Variable Life Insurance Company, Signature 1A (Cayman), Ltd. and Signature 3 Limited (collectively, the "Hancock Entities") exchanged $20 million of subordinated debt, warrants to purchase 576,134 shares of the Company's common stock, 50,000 shares of Series D cumulative redeemable preferred stock and all accrued interest and dividends for 27,000 shares of the Company's Series D cumulative redeemable preferred stock and warrants exercisable for 45,414,529 shares of our common stock.

Other Debt Arrangements

Bank Debt. In conjunction with this restructuring the Company's senior lender, Bank of America agreed to an extension of the maturity date of the Company's term credit facility until January 2, 2002 and a revised payment schedule. Subsequent to the financial restructuring, Bank of America assigned its interest in the credit facility to Endeavour, LLC (the "Senior Lender") and the Senior Lender extended the due date to January 6, 2003. The Company is pursuing a revolving credit facility with a new lender to replace the existing facility prior to its maturity date. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to replace its Senior Lender as anticipated or extend its senior credit facility beyond January 2003, if that becomes necessary.

Prior to its sale in March 2001, OTF had a demand agreement with Royal Bank of Canada to provide revolving credit facilities, which were collateralized by substantially all assets of OTF. This outstanding balance was fully repaid in March 2001 in conjunction with the sale of OTF's operating assets.

Acquisitions. In July 2000, the Company entered into an agreement amending the stock purchase agreement relating to the Company's November 1998 acquisition of Perricone Citrus Company. As part of the amended agreement, unsecured promissory notes owed by the Company totaling $3.5 million and the accrued and unpaid interest therein were restructured whereby the Company agreed to the following: payments totaling $100,000 upon execution of the amended agreement; lump-sum payments of $350,000 and $150,000 on January 1, 2002 and July 1, 2002, respectively; and 24 monthly installment payments of $37,500 totaling $900,000. The promissory notes accrue interest at 10% per annum. However, all accrued interest will be forgiven if scheduled principal payments are made timely. Additionally, the Company issued the note holders 300,000 warrants to purchase common shares of the Company at an exercise price of $2.50 per share. The warrants are exercisable for the duration of seven years. The issuances of these securities were exempt from registration under the Securities Act under Regulation D. The restructuring of the promissory notes and related accrued interest resulted in an extraordinary gain to the Company of $1.9 million in the third quarter of 2000. In February 2002, the Company and the note holders agreed to amend the agreement to change the due date of all remaining payments to the earlier of (i) January 7, 2003 or (ii) the repayment or refinancing of the Company's term note with the Senior Lender. In addition, all previous accrued interest was forgiven, and the remaining principal balance began accruing interest at an annual rate of 10% in January 2002.

Under the terms of the purchase agreement for the acquisition of Jos. Notarianni & Co. ("Notarianni"), a portion of the purchase price was contingent upon Notarianni's earnings subsequent to its acquisitions. The contingent payment for Notarianni was equal to 1.4 times Notarianni's average annual pretax earnings over a three-year period from October 3, 1998 to October 3, 2001. On February 5, 2002, the Company issued an unsecured promissory note to Mr. Joseph Cognetti in the amount of $1,233,043 (the "Cognetti Note"). The Cognetti Note bears interest of 5% per annum, which interest is payable in quarterly installments, and becomes due and payable on the earlier of (i) January 7, 2003 or (ii) the repayment or refinancing of the Company's term note with the Senior Lender.

The Company's purchase agreement with Hereford Haven Inc. d/b/a Martin Bros. ("Martin Bros.") also contains a contingent payment component in the purchase price. The Martin Bros. contingent payment was equal to 4 times the average annual pretax earnings for the three-year period from January 3, 1998 to January 3, 2001. The total contingent payment was $5.0 million. The payment was due March 31, 2001 and was payable in either cash, common stock or a combination of cash and common stock to the extent of 75% at the Company's option and 25% at the selling shareholder's option. In satisfaction of 75% of the contingent payment, in April 2001, the Company issued 3,166,694 shares of its common stock to Larry Martin, the former owner of Martin Bros. The issuance of these securities to Mr. Martin was exempt from registration under the Securities Act under Regulation D. At the time of issuance, the shares represented a 38% ownership interest in the Company. These shares were valued at $1.17 per share, the market value of the Company's common stock at the time of the transaction. The remaining $1.2 million of contingent consideration was evidenced by a promissory note and was restructured as part of the financial restructuring discussed above. It is payable in cash subject to the approval of the Company's Senior Lender. This note is due in January 2003 bears interest at an annual rate of 5%, payable quarterly.

Equipment Financing. The Company is party to a master lease agreement with SunTrust Bank that has been used to provide equipment financing for several of the Company's operating units. The Company was not in compliance with certain financial covenants under the terms of the lease at December 28, 2001 and received waivers for noncompliance through January 6, 2003. There can be no assurance that the Company will be in compliance with such covenants subsequent to the waiver period or will be successful in renegotiating the covenants.

Off-Balance Sheet Transactions or Arrangements. None.

Critical Accounting Policies

The Company follows certain significant accounting policies when preparing its consolidated financial statements. A complete summary of these policies is included in Note 1 to the accompanying Consolidated Financial Statements.

Certain of the policies require management to make significant and subjective estimates which are sensitive to deviations of actual results from management's assumptions. In particular, management makes estimates regarding future undiscounted cash flows of acquired operations in assessing impairment of goodwill and estimates regarding future undiscounted cash flows from the future use of long-lived assets whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of a long-lived asset may not be recoverable.

In assessing impairment of goodwill and the impairment of long-lived assets where there has been a change in circumstances indicating the carrying value of a long-lived asset may not be recoverable, the Company has estimated future undiscounted net cash flows from the acquired operations and from use of the asset, respectively, based on actual historical results and expectations about future economic circumstances including future business volume, finished product prices and operating costs. The estimate of future net cash flows from the acquired operations and use of the asset could change if actual prices and costs differ due to industry conditions or other factors affecting the level of business volume or the Company's performance.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards

Recently, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141, Business Combinations (Statement 141), Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets (Statement 142) Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 143, Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations (Statement 143) and Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 144, Accounting for Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets (Statement 144).

Statement 141 requires that all business combinations initiated after June 30, 2001 be accounted for under the purchase method. Statement 141 also specifies the criteria that intangible assets acquired in a business combination must meet to be recognized and reported apart from goodwill. The Company does not believe Statement 141 will have a significant impact on its consolidated financial statement. Statement 142 requires that goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite lives no longer be amortized, but instead be tested for impairment at least annually. Statement 142 also requires that intangible assets with estimated useful lives be amortized over their respective useful lives to their estimated residual values and reviewed for impairment. Statement 142 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2001. Amortization expense related to goodwill that will not be amortized under Statement 142 was $1,667,000, $1,404,000 and $1,979,000 for Fiscal 2001, 2000 and 1999, respectively. Because of the extensive effort needed to comply with adopting Statement 142, it is not practicable to reasonably estimate the impact of adopting this standard at the date of this report, including whether the Company will be required to recognize any transitional impairment losses as the cumulative effect of a change in account principle.

Statement 143 establishes requirements for the accounting for removal costs associated with asset retirements and is effective for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2002, with earlier adoption encouraged. The Company is currently assessing the impact of Statement 143 on its consolidated financial statements. Statement 144 supercedes Statement 121, Accounting for the Impairment of Long Lived Assets and for Long Lived Assets to be Disposed Of, and the accounting and reporting provisions of Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 30, Reporting the Results of Operations, Reporting the Effects of Disposal of a Segment of a Business, and Extraordinary, Unusual and Infrequently Occurring Events and Transactions. Statement 144 retains the fundamental provisions of Statement 121 but eliminates the requirement to allocate goodwill to long lived assets to be tested for impairment. Statement 144 also requires discontinued operations to be carried at the lower of cost or fair value less costs to sell and broadens the presentation of discontinued operations to include a component of an entity rather than a segment of a business. Statement 144 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2001 and interim periods within those years with early adoption encouraged. The Company does not expect the adoption of Statement 144 to have a material impact on its consolidated financial statements.

Quarterly Results and Seasonality

The Company's business is somewhat seasonal, with its greatest quarterly sales volume historically occurring in the fourth quarter. With the change in the current mix of business resulting from the Company's divestitures of certain specialty food service operations, the termination of the Sam's Agreement in October 2000 and the increasing effect of global sourcing, the Company believes the extent of seasonal fluctuations has decreased since 1999. There are decreases in availability of product during periods of transition from one growing region to the next. In any given quarter, an adverse development such as the unavailability of high quality produce or harsh weather conditions could have a disproportionate impact on the Company's results of operations for the full year. See Note 12 to the accompanying Consolidated Financial Statements for certain quarterly information for the Company's two most recent fiscal years.

Inflation

Although the Company cannot determine the precise effects of inflation, management does not believe inflation has had a material effect on its sales or results of operations. However, independent of normal inflationary pressures, the Company's products are subject to fluctuating prices which result from factors discussed above in the section titled "Quarterly Results and Seasonality".

Forward-Looking Statements

This Annual Report and the information incorporated by reference in this Annual Report contain forward-looking statements. Statements that are not historical facts, including statements about Fresh America's beliefs or expectations, are forward-looking statements. These statements are based on plans, estimates and projections at the time we make the statements, and you should not place undue reliance on them. In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by terminology such as "may," "will," "should," "expects," "anticipates," "plans," "believes," "estimates," "predicts," "potential" or "continue" or the negative of such terms and other comparable terminology. These statements are only predictions. Actual events or results may differ materially. In evaluating these statements, you should specifically consider various factors, including the risks outlined below. These factors may cause our actual results to differ materially from those expressed in forward-looking statements made or incorporated by reference in this Annual Report, or in any other SEC filings or public statements we may make.

The Company is subject to a number of risks, including those discussed below:

Our Debt Leverage Could Adversely Affect Our Business. The degree to which we are leveraged could have adverse consequences, such as:

- . limiting or impairing our ability to obtain refinancing for our senior term debt at favorable rates;
- . limiting or impairing our ability to obtain additional financing in the future for working capital, capital expenditures or general corporate purposes;
- . requiring us to dedicate a portion of our cash flow to the payment of principal and interest on our indebtedness and dividends on our preferred stock, which reduces the availability of cash flow to fund working capital, capital expenditures and growth opportunities; and

- . increasing our vulnerability to economic downturns, limiting our ability to withstand competitive pressures and reducing our flexibility in responding to changing business and economic conditions.

As of March 22, 2002, we had $7.7 million of debt consisting primarily of our senior bank term note. In addition, the Company has redeemable preferred stock with redemption value of $7.7 million, which increased to $23.1 million, plus accrued and unpaid dividends effective December 31, 2001 due to the Charter Amendment not receiving the approval of our shareholders as discussed elsewhere herein.

We Will Require a Significant Amount of Cash to Service Our Debt Over the Next Twelve Months and Beyond; Our Ability to Generate Cash Depends on Many Factors Beyond Our Control. If we are unable to generate sufficient cash flow to service our debt or Series D preferred stock or refinance our term debt when it matures in January 2003, we may have to reduce or divest certain operations, restructure our Series D preferred stock or seek additional equity capital. There can be no assurance that we will be able to generate sufficient cash flow or raise additional debt or equity capital on satisfactory terms to refinance our term debt and expand our business. Changes in interest rates, market liquidity, stock prices and general market conditions may all affect our ability to raise funds or refinance our term debt.

Our ability to make scheduled payments with respect to indebtedness and refinance our debt will depend upon, among other things:

- . our ability to sustain cash flow;
- . produce commodity pricing; and
- . our ability to implement our business strategy.

Each of these factors is affected by economic, financial, competitive and other factors, many of which are beyond our control.

Our Efforts To Implement Our Business Strategy May Fail. Our management has stated its intention to expand and diversify our customer base, market penetration and service offerings. This strategy poses risks associated with our ability to reduce costs, reach targeted customers, increase sales in higher margin products and increase product distribution through high-volume warehouses. These challenges will be subject to the risk of intense competition, lack of sufficient customer demand or change in customer tastes, inadequate assured sources of quality product supply and unforeseen complications, delays and cost increases. Some of our prior acquisitions were not previously integrated into our business and there can be no assurance that we will succeed in implementing our strategy to integrate these operations.

Our Debt and Preferred Stock Covenants Restrict Our Operating Flexibility. A breach of the covenants in our senior secured term debt could result in a default, in which event, the lender could elect to declare the outstanding principal amount or our senior secured debt to be immediately due and payable. Our agreements with our Series D preferred shareholders also contain various restrictions, which if not complied with could cause our Series D preferred shareholders to have a put right on their preferred stock at $300 per share (as described more fully elsewhere herein) plus accrued and unpaid dividends. The terms and conditions of our senior secured debt and agreements with our Series D preferred shareholders impose restrictions that affect, among other things, our ability to incur debt, make capital expenditures, merge, sell assets, make distributions, or create or incur liens. Our ability to comply with these requirements can be affected by events beyond our control and there can be no assurance that we will be able to comply with the provisions of the credit agreement or the agreements with our Series D preferred shareholders.

Price and Quality Fluctuations Could Adversely Affect Our Operating Income. Prices of high quality fresh produce are volatile based on available supply, which can be significantly affected by factors such as weather, disease and level of agricultural production. Both our sales and profitability could be negatively affected during periods of exceptionally high, low or volatile prices or when we cannot obtain sufficient high quality produce. During periods of lower produce prices, our operating income is adversely affected because we have less gross margin to cover operating expenses.

We Operate in Highly Competitive Markets. Due to the commodity nature of certain of our products, we operate in highly competitive markets. Many companies compete in the food service produce distribution and wholesale food distribution categories. However, only a few well-established companies operate on both a national and regional basis. We face strong competition from these as well as smaller regional companies in all of our product lines. There can be no assurance that we will be able to compete successfully with current or future competitors. Competitive considerations include:

- . some competitors may have substantially greater financial resources and operating flexibility to react to changes in the marketplace;

- . some of our products compete with imports and private label products and are sensitive to competition from regional brands; and
- . the Company cannot predict the pricing or promotional actions of our competitors and if we do not respond appropriately to reduced pricing or discounts or if we raise prices, we could lose market share.

Severe Weather Conditions and Natural Disasters Can Affect the Availability of Produce and Reduce Our Operating Results. Severe weather conditions and natural disasters, such as floods, droughts, frosts, earthquakes or pestilence, may affect the supply of our products. These events can result in reduced supplies of fresh produce and higher costs of products.

Our Operating Results Are Seasonal. Interference With Our Production Schedule During Peak Months Could Negatively Impact Our Operating Results. Our working capital requirements are seasonal and are most significant in the second and fourth quarters. Our sales tend to peak in the fourth fiscal quarter each year, mainly as a result of the holiday period in November and December. By contrast, in the third fiscal quarter of each year, sales generally decline, mainly due to less promotional activity and the availability of fresh produce. Any adverse development affecting our operations during this period, such as the unavailability of high quality produce or harsh weather conditions, could have a disproportionate impact on our results of operations for the full year.

Our Common Stock Has Recently Experienced Reduced Liquidity and Market Coverage.

Edgar Filing: FRESH AMERICA CORP - Form 10-K

Our common stock has been delisted from the Nasdaq National Market and is currently traded on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board. There has been less trading activity in our common stock as a result of this move. Also, our common stock is currently suffering from a lack of coverage by investment professionals.

ITEM 7A. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Interest Rate Risk. As of December 28, 2001 our senior secured debt accrued interest at a market rate at the time of borrowing plus an applicable margin on certain borrowings. The interest rate is based on the lending bank's prime rate plus 3%. The impact on the Company's results of operations of a one-percentage point interest rate change on the outstanding balance of the variable rate debt as of December 28, 2001 would be $44,000.

Commodity Pricing Risk. For reasons discussed previously, prices of high quality produce can be extremely volatile. In order to reduce the impact of these factors, we generally set our prices based on current delivered cost.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Mr. Washburn, our former Chief Executive Officer, served on our Compensation Committee until February 2001. From February until September 2001, the Compensation Committee consisted of Keith McKinney and Mark Gier, and there were no Compensation Committee interlocks. From October 2001 to present, our Compensation Committee is composed of Arthur Hollingsworth and Greg Campbell and there are no Compensation Committee interlocks.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE'S REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Since its formation in 1994, the Compensation Committee has been responsible for recommending bonuses and any increase in base salaries for the Company's executive officers.

The Compensation Committee believes that, in order for the Company to succeed, it must be able to attract and retain qualified executive officers. In determining the type and amount of executive officer compensation, the objectives of the Compensation Committee are to provide levels of base compensation, bonuses and long-term incentives (in the form of stock options or other plans) that will attract and retain talented executive officers and align their interests with the success of the Company. The Company's executive officer compensation program currently is comprised of base salary, bonus plan, long-term incentive compensation (in the form of stock options) and various benefits generally available to employees of the Company (such as health and disability insurance). Under the supervision of the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors, the Company has developed and implemented compensation policies, plans and programs that seek to enhance the profitability of the Company and increase shareholder value.

Base Salaries

The Company's policy is to maintain base salaries competitive with salaries paid to similarly situated executive officers of companies of similar size in comparable industries. Although neither the Board of Directors nor the Compensation Committee has conducted a formal review of base salaries paid to similarly situated executive officers, the Company believes that the base salaries payable to its executive officers are comparable to those paid by similar companies located in the Company's geographical area and engaged in industries comparable to the Company's. The Compensation Committee anticipates that adjustments to base compensation will generally be made based upon assigned responsibility and performance and successful attainment of specific goals and objectives of the Company and individual employees.

Bonuses

Year-end cash bonuses are designed to motivate the Company's executive officers to achieve specific annual financial goals and to achieve favorable returns for the Company's shareholders. At the end of each fiscal year, the Compensation Committee will assess each executive's contributions to the Company as well as the degree to which specific annual financial, strategic, and operating objectives were met by the Company.

27

Long-Term Incentives

Stock option grants under the Company's stock option plans form the basis of the Company's long-term incentive compensation for executive officers and employees. The specific objective of the Company's stock option plans is to align the long-term interests of the Company's executive officers and employees with those of shareholders by creating a strong link between executive pay and shareholder returns. The Company encourages its executive officers and employees to develop and maintain a significant, long-term stock ownership position in the Company's Common Stock. Stock options are awarded to executive officers and employees in order to encourage future management actions aimed at improving the Company's sales efforts, product quality and profitability. The Company believes that success in these endeavors will increase the value of the Company's Common Stock for shareholders. Recipients of stock options will have the opportunity to share in the increased value that results from their efforts. The Plan Administration Committee makes specific awards of options based on an individual's ability to impact Company-wide performance and in light of the total compensation appropriate for the individual's position. The Compensation Committee may also consider other bonus or long-term incentives at their discretion.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

Mr. Colon Washburn was the Company's CEO for the period of January 2001 until August 2001. Mr. Washburn resigned in 2001 as the Company's Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Washburn is a director of the Company and continues to be employed with the Company as an Executive Consultant pursuant to an employment agreement, which provides for a one-year term commencing on October 5, 2001, and which may be renewed for up to three successive one-year periods thereafter. In approving Mr. Washburn's compensation, the Board of Directors at that time evaluated and compared Mr. Washburn's duties, responsibilities and performance results, and the overall results of the Company, to industry norms to determine his base compensation. See subheading "Employment Agreements" under this Item 11.

Mr. Darren Miles joined the Company in August 2001 as the Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Miles is compensated as a consultant at an annual amount of $250,000. In approving Mr. Miles' compensation, the Board of Directors at that time evaluated and compared Mr. Miles' duties, responsibilities and performance results, and the overall results of the Company, to industry norms to determine his base compensation. During October 2001, the Compensation Committee reviewed Mr. Miles performance and recommended a cash bonus of $50,000 for fiscal 2001.

In November 2000, the Company entered into a resignation agreement and contract for services with Mr. David Sheinfeld, the former Chief Executive Officer of the Company. Pursuant to the agreement, the Company paid Mr. Sheinfeld $33,333 per month for the six months of January through June 2001. The payments decreased to $8,333 for the last six months of 2001. See subheading "Severance Agreements" under this Item 11.

The agreement terminates automatically in the event of disability (as defined in the agreement) and also terminates automatically upon death. Termination by either the employee or the Company (except for in the event of death) requires two weeks' written notice.

Mr. Washburn's agreement for employment with the Company as an Executive Consultant provides for a one-year term commencing on October 5, 2001, which may be renewed for up to three successive one-year periods thereafter. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. FRESH AMERICA CORP. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 28, 2001 and December 29, 2000

Note 1. Description of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation and Consolidation

Fresh America Corp. and subsidiaries ("Fresh America", or the "Company") provides procurement, processing, re-packing, warehousing and distribution services of fresh produce and other refrigerated products for a wide variety of customers in the retail, food service and food distribution businesses. The Company was founded in 1989 and distributes throughout the United States and Canada through 9 distribution facilities.

The Company's fiscal year is a 52-week or 53-week period ending on the Friday closest to the calendar year end. The fiscal years ended December 28, 2001 (fiscal 2001), December 29, 2000 (fiscal 2000) and December 31, 1999 (fiscal 1999) were 52-week periods. The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Fresh America Corp. and its subsidiaries. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Edgar Filing: FRESH AMERICA CORP - Form 10-K

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statements of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of less than three months to be cash equivalents.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company defines the fair value of a financial instrument as the amount at which the instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties. Financial instruments included in the Company's financial statements include cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, notes receivable from shareholders, other assets, accounts payable and other current liabilities, notes payable and long-term debt. Unless otherwise disclosed in the notes to the consolidated financial statements, the carrying value of financial instruments is considered to approximate fair value due to the short maturity and characteristics of those instruments. The carrying value of long-term debt approximates fair value as terms approximate those currently available for similar debt instruments.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market with cost determined on a first-in, first-out basis.

Property and Equipment

Depreciation of property and equipment is calculated on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets (from 5 to 40 years). Property and equipment held under capital leases and leasehold improvements are amortized on the straight-line method over the shorter of the lease term or estimated useful life of the asset.

Impairment of Long-lived Assets

The Company reviews long-lived assets, including goodwill, and certain identifiable intangibles for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to undiscounted future net cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If such assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized is measured by the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds the fair value of the assets. Assets to be disposed of are reported at the lower of carrying amount or fair value less costs to sell.

Goodwill

Goodwill, which represents the excess of purchase price over fair value of net assets acquired, is amortized on a straight-line basis over the expected periods to be benefited, generally 15 to 20 years. The Company assesses the recoverability of this intangible asset by determining whether the amortization of the goodwill balance over its remaining life can be recovered through undiscounted future operating cash flows of the acquired operation. The amount of goodwill impairment, if any, is measured based on projected discounted future operating cash flows using a discount rate reflecting the Company's average cost of funds. The assessment of the recoverability of goodwill will be impacted if estimated future operating cash flows are not achieved.

Stock Option Plan

Compensation expense is recorded on the date of grant only if the current market price of the underlying stock exceeds the exercise price. The Company provides certain proforma disclosures for employee stock option grants made in 1995 and future years as if the fair-value-based method had been applied.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized at such time as the product has been delivered or the service has been rendered.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes using the asset and liability method. Under the asset and liability method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date.

Earnings (Loss) Per Share

Basic earnings (loss) per share ("EPS") is calculated by dividing net loss available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted EPS reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue common stock were exercised or converted into common stock.

Shares used in calculating basic and diluted EPS are as follows (in thousands):

	2001 -----	2000 -----	1999 -----
Weighted average common shares outstanding - basic	7,471	5,243	5,243
Dilutive securities:
Common stock option	--	--	--
Contingent shares related to acquisitions	--	--	--
	-----	-----	-----
Weighted average shares common outstanding - diluted	7,471	5,243	5,243
	=====	=====	=====

The number of weighted average common shares outstanding used in the computation of diluted EPS includes the effect of dilutive options using the treasury stock method. For fiscal years 2001, 2000 and 1999, there are 601,000, 1,484,000, and 497,000 options and warrants, respectively, to purchase common stock that were not included in the computation of diluted EPS because to do so would have been antidilutive for the fiscal years presented.

F8

Edgar Filing: FRESH AMERICA CORP - Form 10-K

Reclassifications

Certain prior year balances have been reclassified to conform to current year presentation.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Note 2. Agreement with Sam's Club

The Company's relationship with Sam's was governed by the terms and conditions of a five-year agreement (the "Agreement"), which became effective December 1, 1995 and expired on October 24, 2000. Sam's began internal distribution of produce for all of its' clubs subsequent to the expiration date. Therefore, the Agreement was not renewed.

Sam's Club was the Company's largest customer during 2000 and 1999, and accounted for approximately 30% and 31% of the Company's sales for fiscal years 2000 and 1999, respectively. Subsequent to the termination of the Sam's Agreement the Company continues to have a relationship with Sam's which accounts for less than 10% of the Company's sales. The sales to Sam's in 2001 were comprised solely of value-added processing/repacking.

Note 3. Termination of Merger

On May 3, 1999, the Company, and Dallas-based, privately held FreshPoint Holdings, Inc. ("FreshPoint") entered into a definitive agreement pursuant to which FreshPoint would have merged with and into the Company. The transaction was to be accounted for as a reverse acquisition with FreshPoint as the accounting acquirer. In October 1999, the agreement was terminated by the Company and by FreshPoint. The Company and FreshPoint each agreed to pay their respective expenses in connection with the contemplated transaction. The Company incurred merger-related expenses of $3,850,000 in fiscal 1999. The expenses consisted of legal and professional fees of $2,433,000, regulatory expenses of $63,000, severance costs paid to employees who were terminated in contemplation of the merger of $1,259,000, and stay-to-close payments, payments to such terminated employees to remain with the Company on an interim basis in order to enable the Company to re-align its administrative functions, and other costs, aggregating $95,000.

In April 2000, the Company entered into an agreement with the Hancock Entities (as defined below) to provide additional financing through the purchase of $5 million (50,000 shares) of the Company's 12% redeemable cumulative preferred stock ("Hancock Preferred Stock"), and to restructure the then existing subordinated notes. Cumulative preferred dividends accrued as of December 29, 2000 totaled $0.3 million or $6.04 per share of preferred stock. The Hancock Preferred Stock, subordinated note agreement and accrued interest and dividends were exchanged for preferred stock and warrants in September 2001, as discussed below.

Throughout its operational restructuring during the past three years, the Company has pursued various financing opportunities in an effort to restructure its senior bank and subordinated debt. In September 2001, the Company completed a financial restructuring whereby North Texas Opportunity Fund LP, ("NTOF") purchased 50,000 shares of the Company's Series D cumulative redeemable preferred stock and warrants exercisable for 84,100,980 shares of our common stock for total cash proceeds of $5 million. Arthur Hollingsworth, an affiliate of NTOF and the Company's Chairman of the Board, subsequently purchased from NTOF for the same price as paid by NTOF, 3,500 shares of Series D preferred stock and warrants exercisable for 5,887,069 shares of our common stock. In connection with the NTOF investment in the Company, John Hancock Life Insurance Company, John Hancock Variable Life Insurance Company, Signature 1A (Cayman), Ltd. and Signature 3 Limited (collectively, the "Hancock Entities") exchanged $20 million of subordinated debt, warrants to purchase 576,134 shares of the Company's common stock, 50,000 shares of Series D cumulative redeemable preferred stock and all accrued interest and dividends for 27,000 shares of the Company's Series D cumulative redeemable preferred stock and warrants exercisable for 45,414,529 shares of our common stock.

In conjunction with this restructuring the Company's senior lender, Bank of America Texas, N.A. ("Bank of America"), agreed to an extension of the maturity date of the Company's term credit facility until January 2, 2002 and a revised payment schedule. Subsequent to the financial restructuring, Bank of America assigned its interest in the credit facility to Endeavour, LLC (the "Senior Lender") and the Senior Lender extended the due date to January 6, 2003. The Company is pursuing a revolving credit facility with a new lender to replace the existing facility prior to its maturity date. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to replace its Senior Lender as anticipated or extend its senior credit facility beyond January 2003, if that becomes necessary. See Note 12 for additional information regarding the terms of the warrants, cumulative redeemable preferred stock and other shareholder matters.

Prior to its sale in March 2001, OTF had a demand agreement with Royal Bank of Canada to provide revolving credit facilities, which were collateralized by substantially all assets of OTF. This outstanding balance was fully repaid in March 2001 in conjunction with the sale of OTF's operating assets.

In July 2000, the Company entered into an agreement amending the stock purchase agreement relating to the Company's November 1998 acquisition of Perricone Citrus Company. As part of the amended agreement, unsecured promissory notes owed by the Company totaling $3.5 million and the accrued and unpaid interest therein were restructured whereby the Company agreed to the following: payments totaling $100,000 upon execution of the amended agreement; lump-sum payments of $350,000 and $150,000 on January 1, 2002 and July 1, 2002, respectively; and 24 monthly installment payments of $37,500 totaling $900,000. The promissory notes accrue interest at 10% per annum. However, all accrued interest will be forgiven if scheduled principal payments are made timely. Additionally, the Company issued the note holders 300,000 warrants to purchase common shares of the Company at an exercise price of $2.50 per share. The warrants are exercisable for the duration of seven years. The issuances of these securities were exempt from registration under the Securities Act under Regulation D. The restructuring of the promissory notes and related accrued interest resulted in an extraordinary gain to the Company of $1.9 million in the third quarter of 2000. In February 2002, the Company and the note holders agreed to amend the agreement to change the due date of all remaining payments to the earlier of (i) January 7, 2003 or (ii) the repayment or refinancing of the Company's term note with the Senior Lender. In addition, all previous accrued interest was forgiven, and the remaining principal balance began accruing interest at an annual rate of 10% in January 2002.

Under the terms of the purchase agreement for the acquisition of Jos. Notarianni & Co. ("Notarianni"), a portion of the purchase price was contingent upon Notarianni's earnings subsequent to its acquisitions. The contingent payment for Notarianni was equal to 1.4 times Notarianni's average annual pretax earnings over a three-year period from October 3, 1998 to October 3, 2001. On February 5, 2002, the Company issued an unsecured promissory note to Mr. Joseph Cognetti in the amount of $1,233,043 (the "Cognetti Note"). The Cognetti Note bears interest of 5% per annum, which interest is payable in quarterly installments, and becomes due and payable on the earlier of (i) January 7, 2003 or (ii) the repayment or refinancing of the Company's term note with the Senior Lender.

The Company's purchase agreement with Hereford Haven Inc. d/b/a Martin Bros. ("Martin Bros.") also contains a contingent payment component in the purchase price. The Martin Bros. contingent payment was equal to 4 times the average annual pretax earnings for the three-year period from January 3, 1998 to January 3, 2001. The total contingent payment was $5.0 million. The payment was due March 31, 2001 and was payable in either cash, common stock or a combination of cash and common stock to the extent of 75% at the Company's option and 25% at the selling shareholder's option. In satisfaction of 75% of the contingent payment, in April 2001, the Company issued 3,166,694 shares of its common stock to Larry Martin, the former owner of Martin Bros. The issuance of these securities to Mr. Martin was exempt from registration under the Securities Act under Regulation D. At the time of issuance, the shares represented a 38% ownership interest in the Company. These shares were valued at $1.17 per share, the market value of the Company's common stock at the time of the transaction. The remaining $1.2 million of contingent consideration was evidenced by a promissory note and was restructured as part of the financial restructuring discussed above. It is payable in cash subject to the approval of the Company's Senior Lender. This note is due in January 2003 bears interest at an annual rate of 5%, payable quarterly.

The Company is party to a master lease agreement with SunTrust Bank that has been used to provide equipment financing for several of the Company's operating units. The Company was not in compliance with certain financial covenants under the terms of the lease at December 29, 2000 and received waivers for noncompliance through January 6, 2003. There can be no assurance that the Company will be in compliance with such covenants subsequent to the waiver period or will be successful in renegotiating the covenants.

The aggregate maturities of long-term debt for the fiscal years subsequent to December 29, 2001 are as follows (in thousands): 2002 - $1,474; 2003 - $6,226.

Note 5. Disposition Costs and Impairment of Long-lived Assets

Subsequent to the termination of the merger discussed in Note 3, in the fourth quarter of 1999 management of the Company initiated a process in conjunction with its business strategy to improve its cost structure, streamline operations and divest the Company of under-performing operations. The process continued during 2000 and into 2001.

As a result of this ongoing process, the Company closed or sold several under-performing operations in 1999, 2000 and 2001 as follows:

Fiscal 1999:

Los Angeles and San Francisco, California
Orlando, Florida
Atlanta, Georgia
Baton Rouge, Louisiana
Austin and San Antonio, Texas

Fiscal 2000:

Fiscal 2001:

Bacchus Fresh International, Chicago, Illinois

During 1999, the Company also decided to move its accounting and administrative functions from Houston to Dallas, Texas. The move was completed in fiscal 2000, and the related costs were charged to operations in that fiscal year.

During this process, management evaluated the recoverability of the carrying value of the long-lived assets and related allocable goodwill of these

In assessing the realizability of deferred tax assets, management considers whether it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The ultimate realization of deferred tax assets is dependent primarily upon the generation of future taxable income during the periods in which those temporary differences become deductible. Based upon current projections for future U.S. taxable income over the periods which the deferred tax assets are deductible, management believes that it is more likely than not that its deferred tax assets related to U.S. operations will not be realized and a valuation allowance for such assets is required at December 28, 2001 and December 29, 2000.

At December 28, 2001, the Company has a net operating loss ("NOL") carry forward for federal income tax purposes of approximately $18,500,000.

During 2001, the Company experienced two "ownership changes" as defined by the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. After an ownership change, utilization of a loss corporation's NOL carry forward is limited annually to a prescribed rate multiplied by the value of the loss corporation's stock immediately before the ownership change. In general, an ownership change occurs if ownership of more than 50% in value of the stock of the loss corporation changes during the three-year period proceeding the test date. Since the Company's stock had no value for purposes of this calculation, none of the NOL carryforward will be useable in future years.

Note 9. Options

In July 1993, the Company adopted the Fresh America Corp. 1993 Stock Option and Award Plan (the "1993 Plan"), which reserved 450,000 shares of the Company's common stock for issuance to employees and directors. Effective May 22, 1998, the 1993 Plan was frozen, which prevents any additional options from being granted under the plan. In July 1996, the Company adopted the Fresh America Corp. 1996 Stock Option and Award Plan (the "1996 Plan"), which reserved 150,000 shares of the Company's common stock for issuance to employees and directors. Effective May 22, 1998, the Company amended and restated the 1996 Plan, which increased the number of shares reserved from 150,000 to 625,000. At December 28, 2001 and December 29, 2000, options for 354,000 and 103,250 shares, respectively, were available for issuance.

Options under the 1993 and 1996 Plans are granted at an exercise price equal to at least 100% of the fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date of grant. Unless determined otherwise by the Company's Board of Directors, each independent director is automatically granted an option to purchase 5,000 shares of common stock each year. Such option grants vest immediately and will expire in ten years if not exercised. Options granted to employees generally vest in one year from the date of grant and expire after ten years if not exercised. The Plans restrict the rights to exercise based on employment status and percentage of stock ownership in accordance with Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code.

The following table summarizes stock option activity under the Plans for fiscal 1999 through fiscal 2001:

The Company has adopted the disclosure-only provision of SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation." Accordingly, no compensation cost has been recognized for the stock option plans. Had compensation cost for the Company's two stock option plans been determined for grant dates subsequent to January 1, 1995 based on the fair value at the grant date of awards consistent with the provisions of SFAS No. 123, the Company's net earnings (loss) and earnings (loss) per share would have been reduced to the pro forma amounts indicated below:

The fair value of each option grant is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following weighted average assumptions used for fiscal 2001, 2000 and 1999 for both plans: no dividend yield; expected volatility of 58% in 2001, 58% in 2000 and 136% in 1999; risk-free interest rates of 5.9% in 2001, 5.9% in 2000 and 4.2% in 1999; and expected lives of three to five years. The weighted average fair value per share of the options granted during fiscal 2001, 2000 and 1999 is estimated to be $1.93, $1.93 and $12.23, respectively. As of December 28, 2001, the weighted-average remaining contractual life of outstanding options was 7.2 years.

Note 10. Employee Benefit Plan

Effective January 1, 1992, the Company adopted the Fresh America Corp. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan (the "Plan"), which provides for the Company, at its option, to make a matching contribution of up to 6% of each qualifying employee's annual earnings. The Company's matching contribution under the Plan was $220,000, $272,000 and $343,000 for the fiscal years 2001, 2000 and 1999, respectively.

Rental expense amounted to approximately $7,227,000, $10,114,000 and $12,569,000 for the fiscal years 2001, 2000 and 1999, of which approximately $2,499,000, $3,978,000 and $5,653,000 relates to truck and trailer rental which is included in cost of sales.

The Company is involved in various claims and legal actions arising in the ordinary course of business. In the opinion of management, the ultimate disposition of these matters will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's consolidated financial position, results of operations or liquidity.

Note 12. Shareholders' Equity

Edgar Filing: FRESH AMERICA CORP - Form 10-K

The warrants issued to NTOF, Mr. Hollingsworth and the Hancock Entities discussed in Note 4 cannot be exercised until the Company's articles of incorporation are amended to increase the Company's authorized common stock from 10 million shares to 250 million shares and decrease the common stock's stated par value from $.01 to $.0001 per share (the "Charter Amendment"). In connection with the financial restructuring, the Company held a special meeting of the shareholders which was adjourned on December 28, 2001, and reconvened on December 29, 2001. The Company's shareholders were asked to approve the Charter Amendment. At the special meeting, the Charter Amendment failed to receive the necessary approval of the holders of a supermajority of the shares of the issued and outstanding stock; therefore, the Company's articles of incorporation were not amended at the special meeting. Because the Charter Amendment was not approved, the holders of the Series D preferred stock received increased rights under the terms of the Series D preferred stock (as described below) and the warrants are not exercisable. The Board of Directors has approved such amendment but the holders of the Company's issued and outstanding capital stock entitled to vote must approve it. The warrants are exercisable for a ten-year period that commenced on August 14, 2001 and ends August 14, 2011. The exercise price of the warrants is $.0001 per share and the warrants are subject to anti-dilution provisions providing adjustment in the event of any recapitalization, stock dividend, stock split, reorganization, merger or similar transaction or certain issuances of shares below their market value.

Initially, each share of the 77,000 shares of Series D preferred stock had the right to receive cumulative dividends, payable monthly in cash and calculated on the basis of an annual dividend rate of $8 for each share plus interest on any accrued but unpaid dividends. Because the Charter Amendment was not approved at the special meeting, the annual dividend rate increased to $18 per share on December 31, 2001. However, the Company has obtained a waiver for the enhanced dividend amount from the Series D preferred stockholders for the period from December 29, 2001 until January 3, 2003. Therefore, the annual dividend rate will not increase to $18 per share during this period, but will remain at the original annual dividend rate of $8 for each share of preferred stock. The Company may not declare a dividend on any other class of capital stock so long as any accrued dividends for the preferred stock have not been paid. If the Company pays a dividend to holders of any other class of the Company's capital stock, then the Company will pay a dilution fee to the holders of the preferred stock. When the Charter Amendment was not approved at the special meeting, the holders of preferred stock became entitled to vote as a separate class for all matters on which the holders of common stock are entitled to vote, with each share entitled to one vote per share; however, where applicable law prevents class voting, holders of the preferred stock are entitled to vote together with the holders of common stock with each share of preferred stock entitled to 250 votes per share, being 11,625,000 votes for NTOF, 875,000 for Mr. Hollingsworth and 6,750,000 for the Hancock Entities.

The Series D preferred stockholders have a put right on the Series D preferred stock after August 14, 2004, and immediately upon any breach by the Company of the financial restructuring agreements or any sale, merger or change of control of the Company at $100 per share plus accrued and unpaid dividends. Because the requisite shareholder approval for the Charter Amendment was not obtained, the holders of Series D preferred stock have the right to exercise their put right at three times the face value of the preferred stock, such amount being $13,950,000 for NTOF, $1,050,000 for Mr. Hollingsworth and $8,100,000 for the Hancock Entities plus accrued and unpaid dividends. Additionally, the holders of the preferred stock, have the right to redeem their shares of preferred stock on the same terms of the put right after April 30, 2007 or immediately upon the occurrence of any sale, merger or change of control of the Company, any qualified public offering with net proceeds of at least $20,000,000 or any private equity financing with net proceeds of at least $20,000,000.

Edgar Filing: FRESH AMERICA CORP - Form 10-K

Each share of Series D preferred stock has a preference upon liquidation, dissolution, winding up or sale of the Company equal to $100.00 per share plus accrued and unpaid interest. Because the requisite shareholder approval for the Charter Amendment was not obtained, the holders of the preferred stock have the right to a liquidation preference payment equal to the face value of the preferred stock plus 90% of the fair market value of the remaining property of the Company and the holders of the common stock will have the right to a liquidation preference payment equal to the remaining 10% of the fair market value of the remaining property of the Company.

Under the terms of the Series D preferred stock and the Shareholders Agreement dated August 14, 2001 by and among the Company, NTOF and the Hancock Entities, NTOF has the right to appoint three directors to the Board of Directors and the Hancock Entities have the right to appoint one director to the Board of Directors, unless it waives such right. Because the Hancock Entities waived its right to appoint a director, NTOF appointed four members to the Company's Board of Directors in October 2001. The current Board of Directors consists of five members. In addition, NTOF and the Hancock Entities each have the right to designate one observer to attend all meetings of the Board of Directors. Under the Shareholders Agreement, the Company granted each holder of preferred stock the preemptive right to purchase, pro rata, all or any part of new securities offered by the Company. The Shareholders Agreement also grants each holder of preferred stock the right of first offer and co-sale rights in the event another holder of preferred stock elects to sell its stock. Prior to a public offering with net proceeds of at least $20,000,000, if the holder of 50% or more of the outstanding capital stock of the Company elects to sell all of its shares, then the holder will have pull-along rights with respect to the non-selling holders of preferred stock.

Under the Securities Exchange and Purchase Agreement dated August 14, 2001 (the "Purchase Agreement") by and among the Company, NTOF and the Hancock Entities, the Company has granted registration rights to NTOF and the Hancock Entities. The registration rights granted include two rights to demand that the Company register the holder's shares for resale to the public pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, an unlimited number of rights to register the holder's shares for resale to the public pursuant to other public offerings and, upon the Company's eligibility for use of Form S-3 under the Securities Act of 1933, an unlimited number of rights to register the holder's shares for resale to the public on Form S-3.

The Purchase Agreement also requires the Company to obtain NTOF's and/or the Hancock Entities' consent prior to taking certain actions in the operation of its business other than pursuant to the terms of the financial restructuring. These actions include, but are not limited to, amending the Company's organizational documents adversely to NTOF and the Hancock Entities, declaring any dividends, selling or leasing any assets of the Company outside of the ordinary course of business, selling any additional capital stock of the Company (except pursuant to existing warrants and under the Company's stock option plan for employees), entering into any transactions with affiliates (other than in arms-length transactions), paying any management or consulting fees, acquiring any debt or equity interest in another entity, increasing the compensation of any executive officer by 5% or more, terminating any key employee, adopting a new employee benefit plan or employment agreement, acquiring any property for more than $500,000 or making any capital expenditure greater than $250,000 individually or $1,000,000 in the aggregate.

The Company intends to submit the Charter Amendment to the Company's shareholders at its 2002 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. The Series D preferred stock represents 68% of the combined voting power of the Company's capital stock entitled to vote on the Charter Amendment and therefore holds a sufficient number of shares needed to approve the Charter Amendment without any other shareholder vote in favor of the Charter Amendment. The Company believes that the holders of the Series D preferred stock currently intend to vote their shares in favor of the Charter Amendment.

The Shareholders Agreement also requires the Company, upon receiving an "unlocking proposal" as defined, representing a bona fide offer from an unrelated third party to enter into a sale transaction, and upon receiving notice from either NTOF or the Hancock Entities, to use good faith and commercially reasonable efforts to consummate the proposed transaction or, if the Company fails to accept the unlocking proposal, the holder will have the right to require the Company to purchase such shareholder's capital stock based upon the price that would have been paid to such holder in the sale transaction.

Note 14. Segment and Related Information

SFAS No. 131, "Disclosures About Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information," establishes standards for the way public business enterprises report information about products and services. Because of the general focus of the Company's business of handling fresh produce and the interrelated nature of the Company's business activities, all of which are generally conducted at each of the Company's locations, management of the Company does not capture the financial results of the interrelated business activities in its financial information systems by type of activity at each location or for the Company as a whole. The management of the Company measures performance based on the gross margins and pretax income generated from each of the Company's operations. Pretax income for the purpose of management's analysis does not include corporate overhead such as selling, general and administrative expenses and income tax expense. Since the business units have similar economic characteristics and are engaged in procurement, processing and distribution of produce, they have been aggregated into one reportable segment for reporting purposes. See Note 2 - "Agreement with Sam's Club" for discussion of the Company's major customer.
